This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. 20. No question shall be taken on any report unless upon a motion to print or recommit it; but reports shall, as of course, lie upon the table. # JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS.

The Twenty-Sixth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Easton, assembled at 11 A. M., Tuesday, June 5th, 1894, in Trinity Church, Elkton, Maryland. The Rev. Messrs. Edson, Page and Baldwin, read Morning Prayer. The Rt. Rev. Leighton Coleman, S. T. D., LL. D., Bishop of Delaware, said the Ante-Communion Service.

In consequence of the absence of the appointed Preacher of the Convention Sermon, the Rt. Rev. Wm. F. Adams, D. C. L., Bishop of Easton, read his address.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:

We have especial causes to be grateful to God for His blessings through the past year, for the condition of the Diocese is now rather to be contrasted than compared with what it was one year ago. We can afford to speak of troubles when we have been enabled to remove them, and to take account of those difficulties which God has given us strength to overcome. When we last met in convention, we had seven vacant parishes, and some of these were weakened yet more by serious divisions. These are now filled, excepting two, and one of them has called a Rector who has accepted. Some of our Parishes have lost their Rectors and replaced them during the past year, so that we have received eight new Clergy into the Diocese, and have lost five, who were engaged in active work. These brethren have received a cheering welcome from their people and have entered upon their work with ardent tokens of encouragement.

The labors of the Clergy have been blessed. The work of our Parishes has gone steadily on, and notwithstanding the fact of so many vacancies at the beginning, and far on into the year, our confirmations have increased by more than fifty per cent. over last year.

In spite of hard times, many improvements have been made in our Churches. St. Paul's, in Coventry Parish, has been altered so much for the better, that I hardly knew it. The interest of its congregation is greatly increased. It is growing too in membership, strength and in appreciation of the ability and fidelity of its Rector.

The Rev. Mr. Murphy has now among his four Churches three of the most tasty and beautiful in the Diocese. St. Mark's Church still preserves all the marks of its origin. The lion is not yet disturbed in his den.

Holy Trinity, Greensboro, under the Rev. Mr. Rich, has just completed a comfortable and beautiful rectory. White Chapel Parish, under the Rev. Mr. Edson, will soon own a rectory without debt. His zealous congregation will see to that.

East New Market is largely indebted, as the Diocese also is, to the zeal and energy of the Rev. Mr. Wey.

The congregation has now, for the first time, a churchly building, completely furnished and nearly out of debt. The good people of Vienna have their Church well on the way to completion, and hope, so soon as they obtain a Rector, to finish it.

The Rev. Mr. Gray and his Oxford congregation expect during the coming year to be in their historic old stone Church. Much praise is due both to him and his little flock, and to his predecessor as well, to whose energy and blind dash ahead the work was begun.

Christ Church, Easton, under the Rev. Mr. Baldwin, has added to its other elegant appointments a beautiful memorial—a litany desk.

Worcester Parish, Berlin, under the Rev. Mr. Howard, is at present thinking of making a change which, if made, will add greatly to the appearance and usefulness of their Church building.

If one may fairly judge from the spirit that has been awakened in the congregation, action will not lag long upon the heels of thought.

It was to me a matter of deep gratitude to God to witness the evidence of a renewing peace and union and good fellowship in this Parish. To see its strength and its earnest, consecrated energy wasted by division and lost in apathy was a sore distress. The history of this Parish, since I have known it, has been peculiar. The former Rector, the Rev. Mr. Joyner, notwithstanding his strict and conscientious fidelity in the discharge of every duty, as he saw it, was, by reason of his ill-health, unable to do all that needed to be done, and no one living felt this more painfully than himself, as I know right well. His people did their own work, and very much of that we call ministerial duty. They are trained to work, and for years sacrifice and self-denial, and generous expenditure of their time and their means are the fruits they have brought forth.

Two very handsome memorials have been added to the already beautiful chancel of Christ Church, Cambridge, a cross, pulpit and lectern, and the rectory refitted at a cost of seven hundred dollars. The Parish of Salisbury has rebuilt its rectory which was burnt down last year. It is a great improvement on the former one.

A beautiful spire rises now from the old tower of St. Andrew's, Somerset Parish. It was erected this year, at a cost of eleven hundred dollars. The interior of the Church is past all improvement. There is nothing wanting.

I would very much like to see Rectories procured for St. James, Port Deposit and Chesapeake City, Augustine Parish. To no slight extent the success of a Parish depends upon a permanent Rectorship—and permanency of occupation is not easy to secure when we cannot provide a settled home for the family of a Rector. Then a Rectory is worth about $100 a year to a Parish, and inasmuch as the Missionary Board is limited in its ability to give aid, this is a matter of grave importance—so grave, indeed, as often to settle adversely the calls we extend—for so frequently has this been the case, that I have given up entirely all endeavors to obtain the services of a minister on a less stipend than $600 and a Rectory. If this cannot be given, I let others conduct the correspondence.

It is the most pernicious policy to keep Parishes without Rectors, hoping to be able to rent, or to procure the service of a young man, or an unmarried man In this way Parishes are often made and kept vacant—and I am quite sure my brethren of the Laity will agree with me, in the assertion that, for the most part, where the doors of our Churches are closed, we then at once, begin to lose what we have gained, and the longer they are closed the harder it is to get a meeting of the Vestry to satisfy it when it does meet, and to obtain the means whereupon to warrant a call. Some years ago, I was told that the ladies in Berlin said: "We want a Rectory!" The gentleman replied, "O no; we have been getting along now for a hundred years and more without a rectory; we can rent a house when we want one; we do not want a rectory." To this the ladies answered, "we do." They set about it. One faithful and generous daughter of the Church gave the ground to build it on, and now it is finished and the rector is in it. The ladies of St. James and Chesapeake City can do the same, even though the gentlemen should say "it is impossible," for it is just the impossible that our ladies are always doing.

I consecrated Trinity Cathedral on Wednesday, the 23d day of May. There were present twenty-nine Clergymen, including four from other Dioceses, who were in former years connected with this work.

The sermon was preached by my dear brother, of Delaware, and it was one for which to give God thanks, as well as the Bishop. The Clergy have thanked him and requested a copy for publication, and the request has been graciously granted. The services of the day were impressive and full of interest, and owing to the careful preparation of the Rev. Mr. Sutton, acting Rector, and his efficient choir, there was nothing wanting to make it all that could be desired.

This congregation is to be congratulated upon the happy event, for most assiduously has it worked for years past to reach this end. Its purpose has been one, and all its energies have been combined and exerted to accomplish its purpose. There has been no division neither in counsel nor in action.

There has been no unwillingness to make sacrifices, and to them most costly ones—to bear burdens, and to bear them cheerfully—to deny themselves, and feel all the richer in their want. Out of their poverty and their self-denial they have reared their granite walls. The toil of their hands and the sweat of their brows are in them, and this is no mere figure of rhetoric, but plain and simple matter of fact.

To me belongs the mere, and alone, honor of bearing a willing and glad testimony to what they have done, and in gratitude recording it.

It has been accomplished, under God, by the Parishioners themselves, under the able leadership of the Rev. Dr. Barton, the Rev. A. R. Walker and the Rev. G. C. Sutton. But over and above these instruments, who shall take upon him to say that the spiritual force of God's chosen ones, put forth here, in His Church, among and upon them, does not remain yet among us, and work yet upon us, after, and long after, they are taken away to their rest? Has religion, indeed, no hereditaments, but chattels and realty; and godliness no posessesion to transmit, save rare and costly endowments?

It belongs to a Cathedral organization to have a staff of Clergy attached to it, ready at the bidding of the Bishop to go hither and thither through the Diocese, giving service to vacant Parishes, filling temporary vacancies, occasioned by the illness or absence of Rectors, and organizing new missions.

Now this is the part and the only part of the Cathedral work that I have been able to take upon me. I am that "staff of Clergy," and I have been "bidding and ordering" myself about all over the Diocese in the performance of this work. During the past fall and winter I have spent but two Sundays at home, and on one of these confirmed and preached in both Churches. Since my arrival in Elkton, I have learned that some goodly child of the Church has given eight hundred dollars toward the endowment of the Cathedral.

LAY WORK.

The Woman's Auxiliary and the Saint Andrew's Brotherhood are, I am glad to say, gaining ground among us. There are now in the Dioceses fifteen branches of the first and one Junior branch; of the second I am not yet informed as to the number.

There has not been so far a thorough organization of the Woman's Auxiliary; arrangements are made, however, to effect it at this time.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew's is capable of doing much good, and it is doing it, too, in some of our Parishes—Great Choptank, Chester and Trinity.

The Clergy are coming more and more to realize the importance of calling forth the energies of their people by giving them something to do and keeping it steadily before them, by making them feel that they are needed, both in loving counsel in all matters of interest to the Parish, and in action which subserves that interest.

It is not now quite so much the fashion to say: "This is your work—and this, which concerns the religious life is mine" We are beginning to call it our work and to enlist the powerful endeavors of our people, winning them to feel that they too are called to be laborers in His vineyard, to the utmost of their powers. I need not say to you, my dear brethren, who have wrought for many years in this, our Lord's vineyard, that he who works is also at the same time worked upon; that every bold stroke we strike here has a double force, though in the mind of the agent, the object be one, twofold, always twofold, is the effect. While he enriches others, he adds to his own wealth. In this wonderful vineyard the very laws of nature are transcended; other and higher canons predominate. Here the weak by great labor become strong, and th estrong increase their strength. He who toils with the greatest energy finds the deepest rest. Here, even old age forgets its infirmities, skakes off the burden of years, grows alert, "and renews the vigor of its youth." Here, the lengthening day, the onward march of hours is always towards the morning; the sunset of common life, that is the dawn of our everlasting day.

I am not unconscious of the fact that it is quite possible to look upon Parish work as mere drudgery, and to make it so, too. It is so, indeed, to him who looks no higher than the material act. But if the form or soul of the act be, "this I do for His dear sake," then it is in the realm of religion, and catches the sound of worship and ministers to life eternal. For he who takes his commands from God, answering the call of duty, though in pain and loss and self-denial, ennobles every act; what else would be the merest trivialities and impertinencies of daily life are in their very substance changed into the fine incense of prayers and devotions and acceptable sacrifices. As our years grow upon us, and the image of God grows in us, it is with a deepening awe and an ever increasing joy the thought is ours, that we are co-workers with God in the realm of eternities, and among spirits immortal, and issues that time can neither measure nor compute are the things with which we have to do. Moreover, we know that as the doing is by His high command and His every instrument fitted for its work, the work cannot fail. Elsewhere disaster, failure, loss befall man's best and most persistent endeavors; here, there can be no failure, for it is God's work, and He is one of the workers.

It is worth while, too, to bear in mind that the awakened interest and activity of our parishoners stimulates to an almost coercive force the pastoral function of our ministry and greatly enables it.

It brings us into more frequent and familiar intercourse with our flock. We acquire a closer knowledge of the condition of our Parishes, and the needs of our Parishioners—the sick, the sorrowing, the tempted, the fallen, the poor, the wounded in spirit that nurse their heart's bitterness alone, hiding it, like the stricken deer that seeks the deepest solitude of the forest in which to die. In thinking, as I often do, of this so important duty of our ministry, and in witnessing, too, with joy and gratitude, the divine blessings which attend it, under some of your Pastorates, my dear brethren, I am frequently reminded of those words, "And He calleth His own Sheep — by name."

Now sheep are much alike, and a stranger is not apt to be able to distinguish one from another; but, with this passage of Holy Scripture in my mind, I have more than once made the experiment, and I found that in a whole flock there were not two faces just alike—individuality is stamped upon them too. The Shepherd finds it; but in order to the discovery he must needs be with them often. He must learn to know them well. He must love them much; and in that, "He calleth them by name." we may be sure that to know their names, they must have heard them many a time; and to know by whom they are called, the voice must be familiar.

There is instruction here which enters into the very core and marrow of Pastoral Theolgy. What so good example can we have for the conduct of a Parish than that of the Great Pastor and Shepherd of the whole flock? And yet, there are those who seem to think this same example not altogether suited to "these times." We have heard the Pastoral work decried and contemptuously spoken of. It is by some denominated "bell-pulling," "gossiping," "idling"—fatal to serious study and progressive knowledge and ample learning.

They tell us that the Shepherd should stay at home and let sheep go to the — mountains, and if the wolf comes, send for him, or at least send him word, "as the rubrick directs." Now there are many vexed questions that are settled for us, independent of the contestants who dispute. In the Kingdom of Grace as in the Kingdom of Nature, there are laws that, in the breach, avenge themselves.

He who neglects the Pastor's duty, loses the Pastor's reward; and he learns, to his bitter cost, that the Sheep do not know his voice, and "a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him, for they know not the voice of strangers."

The voice of the prophet, the preacher, must also be the very voice of the shepherd, too, or they will flee from him. So we read, and so we seem to see.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

A Report from its Secretary will be laid before you, and your action requested in the election of its Board of Managers.

This Institution is still doing a good work, and is well worthy of your continued support.

THE CLERGY RELIEF FUND.

I beg my brethern not to forget the necessity of providing for the future. Give our people an opportunity of contributing to this fund, and announce beforehand the time of the offering.

I have just heard from Mr. James P. Wright, of Baltimore, that he is ready to pay over to us five hundred dollars, left by the late Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, formerly of Caroline county, to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in trust, the interest of which is to be paid annually to the Rector of St. John's Parish, Hillsboro.

On the nomination of the Convocations, I hereby appoint the Rev. Giles B. Cooke, Dean of the Northern Convocation; the Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell, Dean of the Middle Convocation, and the Rev. O. H. Murphy, Dean of the South Convocation.

CONVOCATIONS.

I have attended several sessions of the Middle, one of the Northern and one of the Southern Convocation during the past year. The Convocation held in Chestertown, in January, was full of interest, and the attendance good; at night, especially good. The work of St. Andrew's Brotherhood was presented in an able address by Mr. Turnbull, of Baltimore, and woman's work in the Church by Mrs. Sieusart, President of the Woman's Auxiliary of Maryland. Strong and practical addresses were made by the Clergy of the Convocation, and the attendance increased from the first service to the last.

The Middle Convocation, always more largely attended than any other by the Clergy, had the misfortune this year of meeting in the midst of storms, the last continuing for three days; at the concluding service, in Greensboro, the only one, indeed, when it was not raining, the Church was filled from the door to the chancel.

I attended one session of the Southern Convocation. Three of the Clergy were absent, and those that were present, besides having their own parts to sustain, were called upon to do the work of others.

The members of this Convocation cannot so easily assemble as the members of the Middle and Northern. The services were well attended at Monie and Grace, Wicomico; indeed, the Church was crowded at both of these places, and the people seemed to be deeply impressed.

The Rev. Jno. Martin, always known among us as "Father" Martin, entered into rest on Friday, August 11th, 1893, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Physick, of Cecil County. He had been serving St. James, Port Deposit, for some months previous to his death, and occupied its chancel the Sunday before he was stricken down. He was in his 84th year, and during the last year of his life ministered, for the most part, in Parishes that were without regular incumbents. He was not content to be idle. He was full of energy and served to the very last week he spent on earth. He went from the altar to his death bed—a chill, a slight fever, a sleep, so quiet and natural, that even his children were not alarmed—coldness and a deeper sleep told them at last that he was going home. His remains were buried in Shrewsbury Cemetery—a Parish he had served for many years. His dust lies among a people that he loved right well; a people that revered and loved him in return. A large assembly of people from neighboring Parishes and many of his brethren attended his funeral.

In the past year we have lost from the Episcopate, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Gregg, of Texas; the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lyman, of North Carolina; the Rt. Rev. Dr. Southgate and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Paddock, of the Missionary Jurisdiction of Olympia.

We have lost some valuable Clergy from our ranks this year. The Rev. A. R. Walker, acting Rector of Trinity Cathedral, who took up and brought forward a work, nearly to completion, that comparatively few were fitted to accomplish. I am sure the congregation will long feel that they are much indebted to him for his faithful and efficient management of their affairs.

The Rev. Dr. Henry B. Martin, of Somerset Parish, we could ill spare. His departure was a grief to his people, and it was a grief to himself; but he felt that he was no longer able to give to his country work the attention it required.

The Rev. Byrd T. Turner left us very much regretted by his entire Parish. His reason for leaving was acknowledged to be good—his family was larger than his stipend.

The Rev. Mr. Sutton, formerly of Shrewsbury, has taken the place of Mr. Walker. The Rev. Mr. Joralemon, of Newark, that of Dr. Martin; the Rev. Dr. Pindar, that of Mr. Turner; and these all have been well received and are thoroughly acceptable to their people.

The Rev. Chas. H. Ewing's departure leaves Crisfield again entirely under Mr. Murphy. It would be stronger to-day if it had continued so.

The Rev. David Howard, of New Jersey, has taken the Parish of Worcester; resigned by Mr. Joyner. I visited his Parish in March, confirmed twenty-one, and was delighted to see and feel the life and spirit of its members. They are at work in Berlin, and are full of zeal and hope and good works.

A year or two ago General Porter wrote to me to give him the number of our members in this Diocese, as he wished to include it in the census, which he was then engaged in taking. I was obliged to guess it. There is no report, parochial, diocesan or general, that answers the important question, "How many members of the Church are there in the Parish, in the Diocese, in the United States?" We are asked for the number of families, number of communicants, number of souls, etc., but not the number of members. "Number of souls" comes, perhaps, nearest to answering this question, but some do not put this in their reports at all, and, besides, we all rightly include under this head those who belong to our congregations and are under our pastoral care, whether they are members of the Church or not. Again, another element, somewhat confusing, enters into the record, for I find in our last Journal that one of my brethren has reported 148 communicants and 135 souls.

Our reports fail to recognize, if indeed they do not altogether ignore, our primary catechetical teaching. We believe and teach that our children are by Holy Baptism made members of Christ and children of God. We teach upon the ancient lines, and should we not report upon them, too? I, therefore, beg you, my brethren, to so change the form of your parochial reports that I may be able to reply to the question, "How many members of the Church are there in your Diocese?" The addition of one word will do it.

EVENING SESSION—JUNE 5, 1894.

The Convention met at 8 P. M.

The Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell read the report of the Board of Missions and of Mr. R. T. Martin, Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

The Board of Diocesan Missions, in making their annual report, would gratefully acknowledge the blessing of God upon the efforts made during the past conventional year in behalf of our missions.

The points which have receievd aid during the year are Worcester, Spring Hill, Stepney, Crisfield in Coventry, Pocomoke, Augustine, East Newmarket, Vienna, Holy Trinity, St. Mary's Whitechapel, Wye and Dorchester.

East Newmarket has built a new church, costing $3,500, and the debt on the building has been paid, with the exception of $300. The rector has opened a new point of work in Preston with encouraging prospects.

In Holy Trinity, Greensborough, a handsome rectory has been added to their church property. St. Mary's Whitechapel has also furnished a rectory for the incumbent. Dorchester is supplied by the Rev. Jas. L. Bryan, M. D., and Spring Hill and Stepney have secured the services of their former rector, the Rev. F. B. Adkins. Wye, vacated by the removal of the Rev. Byrd T. Turner, is now acceptably filled by the Rev. C. L. Pindar, M. D. Crisfield is now vacant, and Vienna, also vacant, has funds in hand with which to begin the erection of a church.

In all the parishes aided by the Diocesan Mission Fund, with the exception of those long vacant, there are evidences of spiritual progress in the attendance upon divine worship and in confirmations. These results will indicate that the money contributed to this fund returns most satisfactory results. We would remind the clergy and delegates of the diocese that by this fund parishes are enabled to sustain their rectors, which, without it, could not keep their churches open, and moreover, that there is more to be done than the means at disposal are adequate to accomplish. New points might be occupied with more money to procure the men, for our settled parishes do not occupy all the ground within our diocese. There are some rectors doing work in more than one parish, whom it would be well to relieve by means which would place more men in the field. It is to be hoped that the day will come when the Diocesan Mission Fund may be used at points other than our weaker parishes, and we would suggest also enable the Bishop to have at his disposal one or more men to keep open the churches in vacant parishes, and to occupy points which, if not occupied as occasion offers, are often entirely lost to the church.

There is hardly any money contributed to diocesan purposes so important as this. The work now being done cannot be accomplished on less than what is already contributed. We therefore ask for as liberal a contribution as in the past for the work of the ensuing year.

Your Board would therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary call the roll of the parishes, and pledges be made for the ensuing year.

WM. FORBES ADAMS,
JAS. A. MITCHELL,
GILES B. COOKE,
OLIVER A. MURPHY,

My going to Europe last spring in pursuit of health necessitated the closing of my last year's report on May 16, 1893. The Rev. F. B. Adkins was kind enough to act in my stead, and continue my report to the close of the year, ending 31st May; but there were so many errors in the printing of last year's Journal, especially in his supplementary report, that it is due to him and necessary for the information of those making contributions to him, that a correct statement of his report should be given for publication with this report, as follows, to wit:

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND

For the Year Ending May 31, 1894.

For the information of the Convention, the Board of Trustees of this Fund are pleased to be able to report the satisfactory condition of the Fund, as shown by the accompanying report of our Treasurer for the past year.

Besides rendering an itemized account of receipts and expenditures, this report gives a correct list of the securities in which the Fund is invested, the sum total of its assets, at the par value of its several items, with the income derived therefrom, to the close of the past year.

This income amounts to $2,622.58, and is larger than has ever before been received from our securities. But we must not be misled by this encouraging increase of income; it is still inadequate to meet other liabilities (such as taxes, salary of Treasurer and incidentals) that have to be incurred, besides the Bishop's salary. There is no certainty that our income will not be diminished the coming year by smaller dividends and deferred payments of interest upon our stock and other investments.

We, therefore, recommend the continuance of the Parochial assessments of 1891, to help meet all necessary expenses to be incurred.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMD. L. F. HARDCASTLE,
GEO. R. GOLDSBOROUGH,
HENRY HOLLYDAY,
H. H. DASHIELL,
W. S. WALKER,

AND WHEREAS, such a movement should receive the encouragement of all who desire the union of Christendom; therefore,

Resolved, That the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Easton now in session in Elkton, Md., has heard with pleasure of the step just taken by our brethren of the Congregational Church; that we hereby send them greeting, wishing them success in the movement, with the prayer that God will aid the effort and that it may issue in the restoration to unity of a now divided Christendom.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Convention is hereby directed to forward these resolutions to the Secretary of the Convention of the Congregational Church in New Jersey, to be presented to that body when it shall meet again.

Rev. Mr. Sutton submitted the report of the Trustees of the Home of Friendless Children:

TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN OF THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND.

In presenting to the Convention of the Diocese our Annual Report, we think ourselves fortunate to record that the past year has been one of unbroken health among the inmates and continued prosperity to the Institution.

If we had larger pecuniary resources there is much we could do to make the Home more attractive, but failing this, we are content with its modest appointments and seek only to secure for the children what is absolutely necessary. But for the assistance given us at various times by the Legislature, the Institution would long since have languished and died out, as only a few of the counties in the Diocese seem to realize the duty of maintaining this one charitable enterprise.

The number of inmates at present is sixteen. One girl was received last fall from Queen Anne's county. In March we placed a girl of fourteen at a good home in Somerset county.

In November a neat wire fence was placed in front of the Home, as the wooden one had given way. This improves the grounds considerably.

We are pleased to state that some of the smaller girls made, during the winter, four nice scrap-books, which were sent to a hospital for children.

During the summer the children had their usual pic-nic and also an excursion around the river, for which last we are indebted to the kindness of the Maryland Steamboat Company. At Christmas, they were well supplied with gifts and toys and were very happy in the possession of them.

Subjoined is a list of donations received and of Parishes in which children are clothed. All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOSIE P. DAWSON, Corresponding Secretary.

JAS. A. MITCHELL,
STEPHEN C. ROBERTS,
JAS. A. PEARCE,
Committee.

The report was accepted and the recommendation adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Batte offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That as there are three parties applying for the publication of the Diocesan Journal, a committee of three be appointed, of which the Secretary shall be chairman, who shall, upon the adjournment of the Convention, ask for bids from said parties, and upon receipt of same, give the work to the lowest responsible bidder.

Resolved, That this committee be requested to secure its publication at as early a date as possible.

Adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell, from the Committee on Canons, submitted the following report on the Election of Vestries and Wardens, and the amendments recommended were adopted:

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the proposed amended Canon 24, relating to the election of Vestries and Wardens, and having examined the same and also having considered the recommendations of the Bishop in his Convention address of the year 1893, find that the proposed amendments are in conformity with the Bishop's suggestions and with the provisions of the Vestry act, and they report the amended canon favorably for adoption by the Convention.

CANON XXIV.

CANON OF THE ELECTION OF VESTRIES AND WARDENS.

In every parish of this Diocese a Vestry shall be elected on Easter Monday, as prescribed in Section 2 of the Vestry Act of 1798. But if, for any cause, Easter Monday should be suffered to elapse without such election, then the said election may be held on any subsequent day appointed for the purpose, after notice given by the rector (if any) in the church on two successive Sundays, or if there be no rector, by any two vestrymen, by writing, set up at the door of the church, ten days before the day of meeting; and should there be no election of a Vestry by either method, then the existing Vestry shall hold over and be a legal Vestry; and the foregoing provisions of this Canon shall be applicable as well to new parishes heretofore erected, immediately upon organization, as to parishes now existing and organized, so as to provide for the prompt election of a legal Vestry in new parishes created between the meeting of any Convention and the next succeeding Easter Monday.

At all meetings for the election of Vestries the rector of the parish, if present, shall preside; or, in his absence, a warden; or if there be no warden present, a vestryman in the order of seniority by length of service.

The rector of each parish shall keep in the Parish Register, required by Canon XIX, to be kept by him, a list or roll of all members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in his parish, and shall furnish to the Registrar of the Parish, at least one month preceding Easter Monday in each year, a list of all such enrolled members who are white male citizens of the State, above twenty-one years of age, residents of said parish for six months next preceding the day of election; and the Registrar shall forthwith enter the same upon the Parish Register kept by him, and shall deliver a copy thereof under his hand and seal to the presiding officer of any meeting held for the election of a Vestry at least one hour before the hour fixed or appointed for such meeting.

It shall be the duty of the Registrar and Treasurer of the Parish, or of either one having the requisite official knowledge, or means of knowledge, whenever required by two vestrymen, or by any of the parishioners, when assembled for the election of a Vestry, to furnish forthwith a list of all those who have contributed to the charges of their parish for the year preceding such election.

The vestrymen, or a majority of those who shall attend, shall judge of the election of vestrymen, and of the qualifications of voters, and of the qualifications of parishioners proposed to be elected vestrymen.

Before the election of a new Vestry, the rector and Vestry shall present to the parishioners a report of their proceedings for the preceding year, setting forth the number of meetings which have been held and such statement of the proceedings thereat as they may deem useful to the congregation. If any vestryman has, during the year, failed to attend at least some one meeting of the Vestry, that fact shall be included in the report.

The parishioners entitled to vote shall then proceed to put out, by a majority of votes, four of the eight vestrymen whom they please and shall immediately thereafter elect by ballot, four vestrymen from among the persons qualified to vote, including those whom they may have voted out.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to cause copies of this Canon to be printed on a card, and to mail a copy thereof to each rector during the week before Easter Sunday in each year. Every person chosen a vestryman shall, before he acts as such, take and subscribe the oath of support and fidelity required by the constitution and form of government of the State, unless such person hath before taken such oath, and he shall also make and subscribe a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion, and he shall also take and subscribe the following oath of office, viz.

"I, A. B, do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of vestryman of parish in county, without prejudice, favor or affection according to the best of my skill and knowledge," which oath and declaration, any justice of the peace, or any vestryman present, may administer and take. Immediately after the election the Vestry shall proceed to choose from among the persons qualified to vote, other than the members of the Vestry, if such can be found, two sober, discreet and pious persons to be church wardens for the ensuing year, and before they act as such they shall take and subscribe the oath of fidelity, and make and subscribe the declaration hereinbefore prescribed to be taken by vestrymen, and also an oath that they will faithfully discharge the duties of a church warden.

Mr. R. C. Mackall offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the President, to take into consideration the matter of alterations in the Vestry Act of the General Assembly of Maryland and to report to the next convention what amendments, if any, should be asked for from the Legislature in such Vestry Laws.

Adopted.

The following were appointed on said Committee: R. C. Mackall, M. D., Mr. John Wirt, Rev. Mr. Batte.

Chancellor Jas. A. Pearce submitted the following preamble and resolution, with the opinion that the action desired is legal in all respects:

WHEREAS, by deed dated the 14th day of September, 1874, Joseph E. M. Chamberlaine and wife granted and conveyed unto Henry C. Lay, then Bishop of the Diocese of Easton, and his successors in office, their heirs and assigns, in trust for the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in said Diocese of Easton, certain lands, lying and being in the town of Oxford, Talbot County, Md.; and, Whereas, it has been represented to this Convention that it is desirable that the Bishop of the Diocese be authorized to borrow money by way of mortgage of said property, in order to pay off and discharge an indebtedness incurred in the building and erection of a church on the said property and complete said church, now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Easton, that the Bishop of the said Diocese be, and he is hereby authorized, to execute such conveyance of the said lands by way of mortgage as may be necessary to secure the payment of a sum sufficient to discharge the indebtedness incurred in the building and erection of church buildings on said property and to complete the said building, provided that the sum so secured shall not exceed two thousand dollars.

Which resolution was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Duncan moved:

That the Rev. Mr. Sutton correspond with the parishes in regard to arrearages in their pledges to Diocesan Missions.

Carried.

Mr. L. L. Waters, from the Committee on Accounts, reported as follows:

That the reports of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund, of the Treasurer of the Board of Diocesan Missions, the Treasurer of Convention and the Treasurer of the Episcopal Residence had been examined and found to be correct.

E. J. Dirickson, M. D., invited the Convention to hold its next session in St. Paul's Church, Berlin.

The invitation was accepted.

The Rev. Mr. Scott submitted the following:

Resolved, That this Convention heartily approves the law now before the House of Representatives designed to suppress lotteries, more especially that known as the Louisiana Lottery.

Second. That the reasons urged by some Senators and others, implying that such a law would interfere with the operation of churches, hospitals, etc., in raising money for their use, be condemned and repudiated by us as unworthy of consideration and antagonistic to the spirit and teaching of this church, so far as we represent the same.

Rev. Mr. Sutton moved the indefinite postponement of the resolutions, which was adopted.

Chancellor Jas. A. Pearce submitted the following:

WHEREAS, Miss Elizabeth Nichols, late of Baltimore City, deceased, has bequeathed to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of the Diocese of Easton, in trust for St. John's Parish, Caroline County, the sum of five hundred dollars, and her executor has signified his readiness to pay over the same upon a proper release; therefore

Be it Resolved by the Convention of the Diocese of Easton, That the Treasurer of this Convention, as a member of the Board of Managers of the Trust Funds of the Diocese, be and is hereby authorized to receive said legacy from said executor and to execute to him proper release therefor.

On motion the resolution was adopted.

Chancellor Jas. A. Pearce submitted the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the offerings received in the several parishes on the first Sunday after Easter, known as Hospital Sunday, and now devoted, under a standing rule of this Convention, to the Church Home of the Diocese of Maryland, be appropriated to the special use and benefit of the Bishop Lay Room in the Church Home.

The Rev. Mr. Murphy offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to the rector and people of Trinity Parish for their generous hospitality, and especially do we thank the choir for their most excellent rendering of the music during the sessions of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Convention pay $10 to the sexton of the church.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for reduced fare tickets for the use of members of the Convention.

The Convention adjourned to 8 P. M.

NIGHT SESSION.

SECOND DAY.

The Convention assembled at 8 P. M. After Prayers and the singing of Missionary Hymns, addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Rich, the Rev. Mr. Baldwin, Mrs. Sioussat, Corresponding Secretary, Md. Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary; and by the Bishop of the Diocese.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell moved that 650 copies of the Journal of Convention be printed. Carried.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell moved that a Committee of three be appointed to revise the Canons of the Convention, as amended to date, and to print 1000 copies. Carried.

The Bishop appointed Rev. Mr. Mitchell, R. C. Mackall, M. D., and Mr. Wm. S. Walker as said Committee.

Rev. Mr. Ware submitted the report of the Committee on the State of the Church:

The Committee on the State of the Church beg leave to report as follows:

Reports from thirty-one of the thirty-seven parishes have been handed to the committee; they have been thoroughly examined by us, and as the information contained in them has already been given to the Convention by the Bishop and in the report of the Committee on Parochial Assessments, we deem it unnecessary to repeat it here. But it gives us great pleasure to notice the continued prosperity of the Diocese. We also beg leave to mention the following bequests: Trinity Church, Elkton, has one of $1,000, under the will of the late Miss Partridge, one of its long-time and most devoted members; she has also made the Clergy Relief Fund and the Church Home and Infirmary of Baltimore the residuary legatees under her will. St. Mary's Church, Northeast, has received a bequest of $346.32 from the late Miss Margaret S. Pritchard, for many years a beloved communicant of North Elk Parish.

We further note, with gratitude to Almighty God, the spiritual growth of the Diocese, as evidenced by the increased interest manifested in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Woman's Auxiliary. While we have noted the general prosperity of our Diocese, we regret that more has not been done for the church at large, and we respectfully call the attention of the clergy and laity to this fact.

ALBERT WARE.
A. BATTE.

Rev. Mr. Roberts submitted the report of Committee on the death of the Rev. Mr. John Martin:

WHEREAS, In the Providence of Almighty God, since the last meeting of our Convention, our faithful and beloved brother, John Martin, has been removed from the pains and uncertainties of this mortal life to the joys and blessedness of Paradise; therefore,

Be it resolved, That we will ever keep before our minds, for our own improvement and advancement in the Christian life, the exalted character and godly example of him who served the church with unwearied diligence for fifty-nine years and this Diocese with the most faithful and untiring energy and earnestness for twenty-three years; and we can but realize that these constant and continuous labors were performed amid the ravages of disease and great weakness of body, and that his sublime faith in Him, whom to love and [illegible] in, as a constant and faithful friend and brother, was his most earnest and prayerful effort, and which enabled him to arise above the ravages and [illegible] of disease and continue to labor and struggle for the promotion and advancement of that holy name among men, which was so closely [illegible] around his heart in the strongest bands of love, and to continue those efforts and exertions until within a brief period, before he was called to see his constant and life-long Friend "face to face."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our faithful departed brother, expressing our sense of the great loss we have sustained as a Diocese and our sincerest sympathy with them.

The minutes were read and approved, and, after Prayer and the Benediction, the Convention adjourned sine die.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Easton:

Resolved, That Article 8 of the Constitution be amended by striking out the clause "No alteration, etc.," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "No alteration or addition shall be made in the Book of Common Prayer or other Offices of the Church, or the Articles of Religion, unless the same shall be first proposed in one General Convention, by the vote of a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to seats in the House of Bishops, and by the vote of a majority of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, and by a resolve of the General Convention made known to the Convention of every Diocese, and adopted at the subsequent General Convention in the same manner in which it was proposed."
so that the Article as thus amended shall read as follows:

ARTICLE 8.

A Book of Common Prayer, Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, Articles of Religion, and a Form and Manner of Making, Ordaining and Consecrating Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, when established by this or a future General Convention, shall be used in the Protestant Episcopal Church in those Dioceses which shall have adopted this Constitution. No alteration or addition shall be made in the Book of Common Prayer or other Offices of the Church, or the Articles of Religion, unless the same shall be first proposed in one General Convention, by the vote of a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to seats in the House of Bishops, and by the vote of a majority of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, and by a resolve of the General Convention made known to the Convention of every Diocese, and adopted at the subsequent General Convention in the same manner in which it was proposed; Provided, however, that the General Convention shall have power from time to time to amend the Lectionary; but no act for this purpose shall be valid, which is not voted for by a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to seats in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies.

Second.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 394, 395, 152)

Resolved, That the following changes be made in the Constitution and that the proposed changes be made known to the several Diocesan Conventions in order that they may be adopted in the ensuing General Convention, in accordance with provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution:

Strike out the words "Assistant Bishop" wherever they occur, and insert in their place the words "Bishop Coadjutor."

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have this day hereunto affixed my name.

The work of this parish has gone on quietly but steadily during the past year. The services have been frequent and well attended. A substantial and attractive rectory has been built on the lot purchased last year, and by the persevering zeal of the ladies most comfortably and tastefully furnished. The grounds belonging to the parish have been greatly improved, and a handsome carpet laid in the church.

The Guild, Mite Society and Sunday School, have done splendid work, not only in raising over $600 for the rectory fund, but in advancing the other interests of the parish. Rector and people are working together harmoniously, and everything betokens that prosperity which comes from faithful, earnest, united effort. Truly may we "thank God and take courage."

As I understand that the Delegate to Convention is detained away from home and may not get to the Convention, and the Alternate cannot go, I forward this rather imperfect report. Since the death of Rev. J. Martin last August we have had only an occasional service, most of these by the Rt. Rev. W. F. Adams. Rev. Thos. I. The Sunday School has met regularly every Sunday afternoon and the attendance has been good, considering we had no rector and no regular church services.

The parish clothes a child at the Home for Friendless Children, Easton. The Woman's Auxiliary continues its good work, aiding this year, as last, through the providing of a box, in the work carried on in the Diocesan field. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew has effected a permanent organization in the parish, and continues a valued helper to the rector. A long-time and beloved member of Trinity Church, Miss Jane H. Partridge, lately removed by death, has made provision by her will for Trinity Parish in the sum of $1,000, to become hereafter available; also, in the way of residuary legacy, for the General Clergy Relief Fund of the Church and for the Church Home in Baltimore. By the Partridge family was provided, previous to her decease, a new silver flagon of choice workmanship. Trinity Church has been newly carpeted in its main portion and the church property otherwise improved.

This parish, though one of the oldest in the State, is veritable mission territory. The misfortune of the location of old Trinity Church, the oldest in the diocese and State of Maryland, far away from any village or town, makes attendance upon services inconvenient, and in the village included in the parish we have no houses of worship. The other religious bodies have occupied all of these places, and in this way have secured large numbers of the people, who might have become members of our branch of Christ's Church on earth. In the past the condition of the parish was even worse than it is now, and yet the territory was never actually abandoned. In the same trust and faith the work, even now, becoming annually more encouraging, will be patiently and hopefully continued under every discouragement, in full reliance upon the blessing of Almighty God, never doubting that in his own good time he will signally revive his work and bless the venerable church in this ancient parish and all those who shall continue to worship as our fathers have done in years long gone by.

The membership connected with Grace Church, Taylor's Island, has been reduced in numbers by the death of older members, who were also liberal supporters of the church work. We have reason to hope that the young men taking the places of those who have been called home to their reward will grow up to be as earnest in this good work as were those who have left us. There is reason to hope that a gratifying addition to the number of church members will be secured by confirmation at the Bishop's visitation this fall.

Last year the first steps were taken toward the building of a church, the parish being without a place of worship, and, although the times have been hard and money very scarce, yet, through the blessing of God, we have succeeded in erecting a church of which none need be ashamed; it is in every respect a churchly edifice, with every appointment necessary to render the services of the church in the beauty of holiness. The building with its furnishings has cost $3,000.00; this does not include the chancel furniture which was made by the rector and presented to the parish; he also did the greater part of the painting.

The material of which it is constructed is the best of its kind, and we are greatly indebted to Mr. R. H. Stevens, of the building committee, who as a practical builder spared no pains to procure the best material and the lowest price, and gave his time and advice freely to secure the best results. The

I took charge of this parish the 15th of July last, at which time I received a most hearty welcome from the congregation. The rectory previous to my coming had been put in thorough order and many improvements made, so that it is now a most desirable home. In addition to this good work the ladies of the congregation furnished the rectory throughout and put a great many provisions in the storeroom, all of which added greatly to the comfort of my family. I am indebted to the Rev. Jas. L. Bryan, M. D., for much valuable assistance given gratuitously and cheerfully to the parish and myself.

B. W. Goldsborough, M. D. and P. L. Goldsborough, Lay Readers, have rendered valuable assistance. The Sunday Schools and all the organizations of the parish are in excellent condition and there is a spirit, life and progress throughout the parish, so that the field is an inspiring one and one in which it is a great privilege to work.

Evidences of the long and faithful pastorate of the Rev. T. P. Barber, D. D., abound on all sides. His works do indeed follow him. It is a privilege to take up the labors of such a man and to reap where he has been so constantly sowing. May his memory grow greener and his example all the brighter as the days go by.

As at our last report we are still without a rector, we have had the pleasure and benefit of one visit and service by Rev. Mr. Page, of Cambridge, and our old and much esteemed friend Rev. Doctor Bryan, has also given us service on several occasions.

Our faithful Bishop has been ever mindful of us, and has given us morning and afternoon Sunday service, with communion a number of times, baptizing two children, and baptizing and confirming one adult. The Sunday School has a regular attendance, with increasing interest; and the ladies of the Guild, with some of the male members, are faithful and alive to the work and doing what they can. The new church, the foundation and corner stone of which was then laid, has been raised, enclosed and a small amount of inside work done. About $1,000 will be necessary to complete and furnish it; we would then have a right handsome and comfortable church, sufficiently large for congregation and place, but with our continued financial depression we cannot see the way to this happy consummation.

It is worthy of mention, that these children have contributed in money and in a box to Domestic Missions. St. Paul's Guild continues its organization with work and influence among men. As showing the state of our indebtedness on the church building, I submit the report of the treasurer of the building committee.

"Our Easter offering for 1894, amounted to $409.76, which includes fifty dollars donated by the Sunday School. During the past year the Ladies' Church Aid Society has contributed to the building fund $71.27, and I have collected $55 on account of subscriptions not heretofore reported. Of this amount, $300 were paid on the church building debt, thereby reducing it to $2,300. To my credit in bank $24.75; unpaid pledges $30. A stained glass window was needed, and added at a cost of $29.75. The remainder of the fund has been expended in paying interest on the debt and such incidentals as the building committee were compelled to assume."

Since the last report, two beautiful memorial windows have been placed in the chancel of St. Stephen's Church, Fairmount—one in memory of the late Rev. John Crosdale, D. D., who for more than a quarter of a century was the faithful rector of this parish. The window, which is a costly one, has been erected by those who still hold his "memory dear." The other is in memory of the late Miss Mary E. Waters, who in life was very much interested in the welfare of St. Stephen's, and remembered the church after death. The children of the congregation have also put a very handsome stained glass window in the chancel.

A fine black walnut hymn board and altar service have also been given to St. Stephen's.

St. Paul's Church, Annamessex, has been entirely renovated; the interior of the church frescoed, painted, new pews, wainscoting and fine Cathedral glass windows put in. These improvements cost about nine hundred dollars ($900), and were met by the gentlemen of the congregation. A neat and pretty hymn board has also been given.

I regret to state that the congregation worshipping at St. John's (Memorial), Crisfield, is without the ministration of a resident clergyman, but an effort is being made to raise necessary funds to call a pastor. This is a promising field for missionary work, and under the ministration of a faithful, earnest and godly man the work would flourish and ere long become self-supporting. Valuable assistance towards church work has been given by the various auxiliaries of the parish.

On the 1st and 2d of April last twelve ladies were admitted as charter members and invested with the "Greek Cross Fleury," the badge of the order. On the occasion an appropriate and impressive service was held in the church, and a hearty welcome extended by the rector to his earnest band of co-workers. A handsome Bible was given by the Chapter and placed upon the Lectern on Easter morning.

The Crosdale Brotherhood has also been reorganized on church principles, and is evincing a laudable spirit of zeal and devotion, and the ladies of St. Mary's Guild are, as in years past, diligent in their excellent work for the spiritual and temporal prosperity of the parish. The above report covers only nine (9) months. Upon a call from the vestry, I took charge of the work at Tunis' Mills, Sept. 1st, 1893, in connection with my own parish of All Saints.

The parish church, St. John's, I regret to say, has been closed for over two years and still remains closed, some of the people who supported it having moved away and others going to church in Easton. I hope the vestry will soon make a decided effort to secure a rector for the parish, who can keep the church open as well as the chapel at Tunis' Mills. A neat prayer desk was placed in All Faith's Chapel on Good Friday in memory of Mrs C. T. Denroche, wife of the former rector of the parish.

The past year has been marked by several important events—liquidation of debt and consecration of the Cathedral; increase of endowment to about $1,000, mainly through the generosity of a lady who gave $800 for that purpose; introduction of a vested choir of boys and men; daily service and church always open for private devotion; Holy Eucharist weekly and on all the festivals. There remains much to be done, but the past gives hope for the future. The Woman's Guild, as usual, has done great things, raising during the year $727.47.

The Church Aid Society has lately added another to its many works for the improvement of the Church property; a substantial marble flooring for the vestibule of the Church, which makes a strong and attractive pathway over which the worshippers may pass to the "House of Prayer." Besides this, the Parish has received a beautiful walnut Litany Desk, the gift of Alexis G. Pascault in loving memory of his deceased wife, Bessie Trippe Pascault. The Rector and his people are grateful to those among them who have devised "liberal things" for the Church.

Church Property.—This church has a rectory valued at $2,500, insured for $2,000; St. Paul's Church, sittings 250, value $3,500, insured for $2,500; Holy Trinity Chapel, sittings 100, value $12,000, insured for $1,600. The parish owns five acres of land, assessed at $5,000.

The foregoing is for the period of one year: The present rector took charge of the parish the second week in September, 1893. Up to that date it had been vacant since the latter part of the previous May, with only occasional services. As no former note has been made of the fact to the diocese, it is proper to record here that St. Paul's Church, Trappe, has been remodeled and improved at a cost of about $500. Within the past twenty months earnest efforts have been made to restore and complete the stone church at Oxford, begun many years ago by the late Gen. Tench Tilghman and members of the Chamberlaine family. The work thus far, exclusive of what had been previously spent on the foundation and walls, has cost, in money and material, very nearly $4,000. A floating debt of $740 has been incurred, but efforts will be made to secure, on easy terms, a loan of $1,000, out of which, with the cash now in hand, it is proposed to cancel this indebtedness, and to put the church in condition to be opened during the present summer, it is hoped, for public worship. Grace Chapel has been moved to the lot on which the stone church stands, and the ground which it, the chapel, formerly occupied, sold, the proceeds of which have been applied to the work on the new church. The outlook of the church at Oxford seems encouraging, and it needs but a little fostering help to enable it, at no very distant day, with the Divine assistance, to become a separate congregation. In conclusion, record is here made of the zeal and courage of the former rector, the Rev. H. C. Collins, now missionary in China, in undertaking this work, although he was unable, by reason of his appointment to that field, to carry it on to completion.

Church Property.—This church has a rectory valued at $1,900; insured for $1,500. The parish owns eleven acres of land; its invested fund amounts to $250; church sittings 300; value $14,000; insured for $1,500.

During the past year a new rectory has been built, and the Rector and his family occupied it in December, 1893. The parish has suffered financially very severely, in many ways. The new rectory cost $1,900; about $900 was collected and paid for the building. There is now a mortgage on the property for $1,000, that with a debt of about $425 yet remaining on the church, is all that rests upon us now. With the burning of the rectory and the debt now upon us, in the present condition of money matters all over the country we have found it hard to meet engagements. I hope another year will find the people and the parish in a more prosperous condition.

The parish has three efficient societies actively engaged in work—the Parochial Aid, the St. Agnes' Guild and the Woman's Auxiliary. EDWIN J. DIRICKSON,
Registrar.

BERLIN, MD., June 4, 1894.

The present Rector took charge the third Sunday in Advent, Dec. 17.

I have to gratefully acknowledge the hearty co-operation of the vestry and people in the work for the past six months, and have every reason to believe that the parish is in a very healthy and prosperous condition.

I officiate twice a month at old St. Martin's. On Whit Sunday I administered the sacrament of Holy Baptism to ten persons.

In addition to the usual stated services at the parish church, I have been acting under the Bishop's authority, as missionary at Ocean City, holding a week day service every Thursday evening, and on the third Sunday in the month, since last January. Judging from the attendance and the interest in our services, there seems to be a favorable opening for our church at this point.

A BRIEF PASTORAL TO ACCOMPANY THE JOURNAL.

Be we careful to remember that all mortal men are subject to many sudden perils, diseases and sickness, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life.

To the intent that we may always be in readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call us, we must often receive the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ.

Moreover, every just man should be careful while he is in health to make his Will and to declare his Debts, what he oweth; and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience and the quietness of his executors. Such persons as are of ability should be liberal to the poor.

Legacies may be left to the various charities and religious undertakings of the Diocese by the names and designations given herewith.

1. "I give to the CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF EASTON," the sum of dollars to
   a. the uses and purposes of said Convention; or
   b. for the uses of the Clergy Relief Fund of said Convention; or
   c. for the use of the Episcopal Fund of said Diocese; or
   d. for the Missions of the Diocese; or for any other specific use.

2. "I give to TRINITY CATHEDRAL, EASTON,"
   a. for the purpose of building or repairs; or
   b. for the endowment thereof the annual profits only to be expended; or
   c. for charitable uses, to be expended by the Bishop of said Cathedral.

3. "I give to the HOME FOR THE FRIENDLESS CHILDREN OF THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND," dollars.

4. "I give to the VESTRY OF PARISH;" or else
   "I give to the CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF EASTON," as TRUSTEE for Parish, the sum of dollars, the annual proceeds thereof to be devoted to the support of the Rector, or in the repairs of the Church, or to any other object specified.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention reassembled at 8 o'clock P. M., and after Evening Prayer, read by the Rev. Messrs. Ockford and Hinkle, the Bishop read his Annual Address.

THE BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS.

My Dear Brethren:—At the end of another year we meet in Council, gratefully acknowledging God's gracious providence which has been over us and our labors, and prayerfully entreating His blessing upon our present work. The prospect was gloomy enough when the year set in, and the most sanguine could scarcely hope for more than simply the holding of our own. The product of our people's toil was—loss. This was the remuneration they received for their labor, and of course our parishes felt it very seriously. Still, I have the pleasure to record several very substantial improvements made in our parishes, and some addition to the property of the diocese.

The Rev. Mr. Schouler has succeeded in building a beautiful little Chapel six miles north of his parish church—St. Andrew's Goldsborough Memorial—at the cost of about two thousand dollars. I laid the corner stone Sept. 4, 1894. My Right Rev. Brother of Delaware and several of his clergy honored us with their presence and delivered addresses. The Rector gave an interesting account of the work from its beginning, and acknowledged the efficient and faithful service of his Lay Reader, Mr. Steele.

Pocomoke Parish has spent about eighteen hundred dollars upon its church and a neat little chapter house adjoining, greatly improving both.

Worcester—the church in which we are now assembled—has changed front and changed rear. It has built a recess chancel, finished the ceiling in wood instead of plaster, readjusted the pews so as to secure a broad centre alley. Moreover, what is worth noting in respect to these improvements, is the almost unprecedented fact that, after completing their work, instead of being in debt they had some money still in hand. This parish has done well. Its rector has much to encourage him. He has presented for confirmation 31 candidates in the last 16 months. His people have worked with him most earnestly and heartily.

What we can see, fair indeed as it is to the eye, is as nothing in comparison with what we cannot see. Something has been done here of infinitely more value than a recess chancel, fine ornaments and costly enrichments, tributes of generous and loving hearts to the glory and beauty of holiness.

It is due to the Rector to state that when, by the permission of the Vestry, I called him to take charge of this parish, I drew, nearly, if not quite, as dismal a picture of it as the facts warranted. I grounded the entire force of my appeal to him upon such a representation of its condition as would make a timid or self-indulgent man decline by telegraph. Yet, withal, I told him that God had in hand a blessing for him, who would fill this breach and seize this post of honor. I do not believe that there is any class of men, in the world, among whom to-day there is more of the spirit of chivalrous self-sacrifice and self-denial than is to be found in the priesthood of our church.

For the greater part of the year all of our parishes have been supplied with rectors. In March two became vacant—Salisbury and Augustine.

Three of our able and faithful leaders have been taken to their rest since we last met together—Bishop Howe of South Carolina, Bishop Knickerbacker of Indiana, Bishop Thomas of Kansas.

Convocations.

I have, upon the invitation of the Deans of our Convocations, attended as many of their meetings as lay in my power. The subjects discussed were always such as tended to the instruction, improvement and encouragement of both people and clergy. The sermons and addresses evinced conscientious care in their preparation. The congregations were good and increased in number from the beginning to the end of the sessions, showing very plainly the interest of the people. It is to be regretted, however, that, in the Middle Convocation, it is becoming the custom of some of the clergy to wait almost to the hour of their appointed time to speak, and then to leave as soon as they have spoken.

Woman's Auxiliary.

We have now about 19 Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in our diocese, and I would like the last night of the Convention to be given up, for the most part, to woman's work in the church. I think it quite probable that our clergy can use this organization with great profit in their relation to Diocesan Missions, of which more anon.

Children's Home.

I wish to bespeak, as usual, your continued interest in our Children's Home. It depends largely upon your help, and there has been a failure this year, I will not say of interest, but of aid, caused doubtless by the general distress that has limited our endeavors in other church work.

Diocesan Clergy Relief.

You have doubtless remembered that the time for our collection for the Clergy Relief Fund of the diocese has been lately fixed by canon to Whitsunday. I beg my brethren to pay particular attention to this collection, so that little by little we may increase this Fund and make it adequate to meet all the demands likely to be made upon it.

Church Affairs.

Suffer me too, to call your attention to an enterprise lately begun by the Rev. Mr. Sutton, the publication of a Diocesan paper, Church Affairs, and to recommend it to your prompt and liberal patronage. I think it will be a great help to our parishes, bringing them closer together, and making them acquainted with much of interest that is going on in the diocese. The price, twenty-five cents per annum, should insure it a welcome, when its worth is also taken into consideration.

Diocesan Missions.

I come now, my dear brethren of the Clergy and Laity, to treat of a subject which has been as a heavy burden upon my heart for many days. I know my clergy, I know their wants, their struggles with grinding and irritating pecuniary obligations, their discouragements and distractions, in the midst of their ministerial duties. These all come to me, and meet it is they should; and it is in my heart to hearken to them, to help to bear them, and to do all in my power to relieve them. I seek both the counsel and the aid of you who are gathered together here in the House and in the presence of God. You are doubtless aware that we have for some years been in the receipt of One Thousand Dollars per annum from the General Missionary Board in New York. You are further aware of the fact that there has been a deficiency of One Hundred Thousand Dollars in this Fund during the present year—so much are they behind in the amount appropriated. I have received notice that they will not make appropriations for the ensuing year until they find out whether this deficiency be made up. Six of our parishes have been depending upon this One Thousand Dollars. Seven more are receiving help from our own Board. Last year your Board appropriated $1,600, this added to $1,000 makes $2,600, paid to the missionary work of the diocese. The pledges of the diocese at our last Convention did not amount to $1,000. We had a balance in the Treasurer's hands of $917.00—a great part of which is doubtless gone to pay the appropriations of the year just past. In case we lose the sum received from New York, we shall have but about $1,000 to meet appropriations, the sum total of which is $2,600. You passed a resolution last year requesting me to keep the collections I made and use them as I deemed best for the interests of the diocese. They have not been much this year, as all our parishes have been filled, and while I have so used them, mainly for the help of my brethren, it is apparent that these collections cannot be spared any longer in the present state of our affairs, and I shall in the future turn them over for the most part into the common fund. It may be that we shall get our usual appropriation from the General Board; but until this is settled our Missionary Board cannot safely make appropriations for the present year. In case we fail to get it what is now divided among seven parishes must then be divided among all of them; and if this be done, I am not sure that the parishes will be able to make up the stipends of their clergy. That they will try I am quite sure. I have learned, too, that there will be an application made to the Board for help, from a parish that, so far, has been independent and self-supporting, and whose rector has stood by his work and his diocese, notwithstanding his frequent calls to other fields. Then there is Crisfield begging and entreating our aid. It is a flourishing town, too, having a population, I am told, of 5,000 people in and immediately around it. I have never met a people who seem more desirous and eager to have a rector live and work with them. I promised to bring the matter before the diocese, and to do all I could to gratify their praiseworthy and ardent wishes. I confidently believe that if we could

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell presented and read the

|---|---|
| Amount on hand per last report | $ 917.96 |
| Amount received during this year and 1894 | 1,075.27 |
| | $1,993.23 |
| Amount paid out | 1,472.67 |
| Balance | $ 520.56 |

It will thus be seen that the amount of $520.56 remains to meet the expenses of the Mission work of the Diocese for the next quarter. This statement, it will be found by comparing it with last year's report, shows a balance then $897.40 in excesss of the present balance; the last balance being $917.96. The Treasurer's report shows that we have felt the hard times of the past year in these contributions to our Mission work. The contributions have decreased, but the work has increased; and the demands are as urgent as ever. The same causes that have diminished the amount contributed to the Mission work of the Diocese has, in some instances, diminished the already small stipends of some of the clergy working in these parishes which are partly supported by the Mission fund. This, as well as the continued inability of some of our parishes to support their Ministers unaided, make this fund one of the most important to the welfare and increase of the Church in our Diocese. We are largely a mission work yet, and so we must continue until the tide of population turns, and contributes something towards our depleted rural parishes. We believe that the time will come when a new population will occupy our fair lands, and will afford the opportunity of increasing the number and the financial ability of our parishes. In the meantime we must strengthen the things that remain. We must be faithful to our trust, and await in patience the blessing which we expect from God.

We suppose that no moneys expended is bringing a more substantial return to the Diocese. It would be but repeating last year's report to enumerate the improvements and the evidences of progress in the parishes within which the Mission fund is expended. There are over 600 communicants in these parishes. In the Convention Journal of 1894 there are reported from these parishes 80 additions to the communion list, 11 adult baptisms, 56 infant, and 66 persons confirmed. This work speaks for itself. Can we afford to diminish aught of that which is contributed to the aid of those holding these places? And there are other parishes which are in need of aid. From all which it will appear there is urgent necessity for an effort for a more liberal offering for Diocesan Missions for the coming year. We may hope that with the promise of a more prosperous season the delegates present may have faith to pledge as much, and more than they felt able to pledge at last Convention. We close this report with the usual resolution:—

Resolved, That the Secretary call the roll of parishes, for pledges for the Diocesan work of the ensuing year.

All which is respectfully reported.

WM. FORBES ADAMS,
JAMES A. MITCHELL,
GILES B. COOKE,
O. H. MURPHY.

The Bishop called the attention of the Convention to the pressing needs of the Missionary work of the Diocese, and at his request the Rev. Mr. Rich addressed the Convention on the same subject.

On motion of the Rev. Albert Ware, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese was respectfully requested to address a letter to the several congregations setting forth the urgent need of the Missionary work of the Diocese.

A general discussion of the subject followed, and on motion of the Rev. Mr. Howard it was

Resolved, That the Clergy of the Diocese obtain a list of subscribers to the Mission Fund of the Diocese, and appoint in their several Parishes a Missionary Committee whose duty it shall be, from month to month, to collect the same.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Duncan the Secretary called the roll for Diocesan Missions for the year 1895-6, with the following result:

Pledges for Diocesan Missions.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

for the further consideration of the Amendments to the Vestry Act, the Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell in the chair.

The Committee of the Whole having risen, Mr. John S. Wirt moved that the Report of the Committee on Amendments to the Vestry Act, as passed upon by the Committee of the Whole, be adopted by the Convention.

Mr. John R. Purnell moved as an amendment that the Report before the house be made the order of the day for Thursday at 10 o'clock A. M.

The amendment was adopted and it was so ordered.

The Rev. Dr. Duncan presented the Report of the Committee on Parochial Assessments, and moved the adoption of the accompanying resolution. (See Appendix B—II.)

On motion the Report was accepted, and it was

Resolved, That the chairman of the committee on assessments be empowered to correspond with the Parishes in arrears, and make a final settlement with all, which may be willing to come to any reasonable terms.

The Rev. Albert Ware presented the Report of the Committee on the State of the Church, and moved the adoption of the accompanying recommendation.

Your Committee on the State of the Church beg leave to report as follows:

The number of parishes reporting is 26 out of a total of 37. Many of these reports are incomplete in all the data required by the Convention, and a thorough examination of the reports in hand show an apparent decrease in both the temporal and spiritual affairs of the Church.

The total number of baptisms reported, adults and infants, is 205 as against 341 of last year.

Confirmations 148 as against 219 of last year.

Contributions for the Church at large $1,164.77 as against $1,102.97.

Diocesan purposes $1,842.99 as against $2,900.44.

Parochial $20,337.87 as against $28,619.54.

There was reported last year for improvements on Church property $13,689.19.

The Parochial reports are imperfect in that they do not report such improvements as have been made during the Convention year, which makes the decrease in this item more apparent than real.

Your Committee would urge upon the clergy more care in the preparation of their reports. If we only had those from the eleven Parishes not reporting this year, we doubt not but that the spiritual and financial showing would be more satisfactory.

In a majority of cases the parochial reports show arrearages in the rector's salary. We trust this is entirely due to the general depression in agricultural interests.

Just as your committee had finished their labors another report was presented which modifies to some extent the figures given above —of baptisms 19, contributions for the Church at Large $107.42, Diocesan $382.03, Parochial $2862.27.

In closing your Committee would recommend that the fiscal year of this Convention should end with the first Monday in May of each year and that the parochial reports should conform thereto.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ALBERT WARE,
GEO. W. HINKLE,
J. B. GRAY,
Committee.

The Rev. Mr. Beaven moved to amend the recommendation of the Committee, by substituting for the words "the first Monday in May" the words "the first of June."

The recommendation as amended was adopted.

The hour of 5.30 o'clock having arrived the Convention adjourned.

WILLIAM SCHOULER,
W. S. WALKER,
Diocesan Commissioners.

The Rev. Mr. Schouler submitted the Report of the Committee on Clergy Relief.

The Committee to whom was referred at the last Diocesan Convention the matter of Clergy Relief, would respectfully report that the subject presents itself in three aspects. First, with reference to the care of the Aged Clergy, who have reached the close of an active ministry, and who are still far from being incapacitated for duty in some sort. Second, as regards those disabled before reaching advanced years, and in the midst of an active career of service. And third, as regards the matter of provision for the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen.

(1.) With reference to the care of the Aged Clergy, your Committee would suggest at the outset that provision be made for the employment as far as possible of these faithful servants of Christ and the Church, who, while unable to endure the strain of continuous parish duty, have yet the requisite strength for more or less frequent public ministrations. And they would emphasise the opportunities constantly recurring in such Parishes as have become vacant and before the settlement of a new Rector, for the doing of this very thing, and so for the accomplishing of a double good, in the keeping of the Churches open, and in the fulfilling of the Divine ordinance that "they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel." Is it not true that the duty of providing active and remunerative employment for ordained servants of God who have given their years and strength to the Master's work rests upon the Church everywhere, and at all times; and that Parishes not at the time charged with the duty of maintaining a Rector should, in lieu thereof, make provision for temporary services through the ministration of the older and retired Clergy whether from within or without the Diocese; giving these the preference as Veterans in the service. This aspect of the question of Clergy Relief is, it seems to your Committee, largely overlooked, and is entitled to serious consideration.

At the last Convention of the Diocese, the claims of the "Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society" were presented by its Agent and Representative. Your Committee would commend this Society as a most important agency looking toward the maintenance of the Clergy in their declining years. By the payment of twelve dollars annually, together with the initiation fee, any Clergyman of the Church in egular standing, and who has been a member of the Society for ve years, is entitled at the age of sixty to such Annuity as the income of funds in the hands of the Society will permit, the amount of nnuity varying according to the length of membership, the average nnual distribution to beneficiaries at the present time being reckond at about $40, and the entire Fund at somewhere in the neighborood of $100,000. It is apparent that with the increase of membership, augmented by contributions from various sources, the annuiants will receive a constantly increasing benefit. In case of the ailure on the part of any to meet dues, provision is made for restoraion to forfeited privileges on payment of arrearages. The attention f the Clergy, and especially of the younger Clergy, is called to the dvantages secured by membership in this Society, and to the modrate amount needed to obtain these advantages for the period of delining years. Where the limited support offered to a Rector should reclude payment by him of the annual dues, might it not be within he power of his people to secure the payment of the very moderate um of twelve dollars per annum; and would it not prove a good inestment for both the Parish and the Rector?

(II.) As regards provision for the "Disabled" Clergy, reference beng had here more especially to the case of those disabled in the midst of an active career, we have both the "Diocesan" and the "General" Clergy Relief Fund; this last providing for cases of need n the Missionary Jurisdictions, and supplementing the efforts of Dioceses in behalf of their own Clergy; sustaining in fact the same elation to these latter which the General Missionary Fund sustains o that collected by the Diocese for its own work. These funds, Genral and Diocesan, do likewise provide for the Aged Clergy, and also or the families of Deceased Clergymen. The "Retiring Fund," however, would seem to offer what is likely to prove in the long run the ost serviceable channel for provision as regards the Aged Clergy, here age is hard in view without regard to previously existing disaility. Yet, until such Fund shall have attained to much larger proortions than at present, the Church will still need to supplement its eneficent operation by regular and liberal offerings for the two Relief Funds already referred to.

The General Fund for this object is a recognized agency of the ational Church through its General Convention. As far back as 880 that body recommended the devoting of a certain portion of the ommunion Alms to this object, ten per cent. being suggested as the inimum. Possibly the Christmas Day offering in our Parishes night be regularly applied in this direction. The Diocese of Easton ppoints Whitsunday as the day of annual offering for its own lergy Relief Fund. Might it not be well, in view of the calls coming to the Parishes about this time in connection with the Convenion Fund Assessment and Diocesan Missionary collection, to have nvelopes distributed in our congregations for the receiving of the ffering for Clergy Relief; so that, in case of inability in any individal instances to respond on the day designated, the cause might ave the benefit of an offering later on, and within the few weeks ucceeding?

(III.) In connection with the matter of provision for the Widows nd Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, besides the foregoing recomendations in connection with the Diocesan and General Clergy elief Funds, available for this purpose as the occasion shall require, our Committee would call especial attention to the Corporation for he Relief of Widows and Orphans of the Clergy of the Church in he State of Maryland. By the payment of amounts varying from ive dollars to twenty dollars per annum, an Annuity proportioned to amount of yearly payments is secured to the Clergyman's family in the event of his decease; nor is the privilege forfeited by removal from the State. It is a question whether the fact of such opportunity being offered is fully realized by many of the Clergy of our Diocese. Might not the Parishes help their Rectors, if need be, to secure and maintain membership in the above-named Corporation, which offers its benefits not indeed for the Clergy in their declining years, but for those whom they shall leave behind, and cheers with the bright and hopeful prospect which it brings?

Your Committee have no special Resolution to offer, but would respectfully submit to the earnest and prayerful consideration of the Clergy and Laity the foregoing suggestions, and would ask to be discharged.

WILLIAM SCHOULER,
W. S. WALKER.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Roberts the Report was accepted and the Committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. John S. Wirt, it was

Resolved, That the Amendments to Sections 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 11, 15, 18, 19 and 27 of the Vestry Act, and the repeal of Sections 21, 23, 25, 26 and 29 of said Act, reported favorably by the Committee of the Whole, be and the same are hereby approved and adopted by this Convention;

That the Chancellor of the Diocese be requested to prepare the necessary bill or bills to secure the amendments so adopted, and that he be authorized to make such revision of the same as in his judgment may be necessary to effectively secure the changes proposed by said Amendments, and to make the same consistent with the other provisions of the Vestry Act;

That a committee of three laymen be appointed by the Bishop to present such bill or bills to the next session of the Legislature.

The Bishop appointed as the Committee called for Messrs. James A. Pearce, John S. Wirt and Oswald Tilghman.

On motion the Convention took a recess till 8 P. M.

It is a matter of thankfulness that there is an evidently increasing interest and growth in the Church life of the Parish, as is shown in many ways; possibly in the best way by the satisfactory financial condition of the Parish. In spite of the depression of the times we have more than met our necessary expenses and pledged obligations.

Divine Providence favoring us we shall build during the year a parish house which will complete our church building as originally designed.

In the eighteen months past the following memorials have been presented to Christ Church: A private communion service, silver, by Miss Fannie Robinson in memory of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Shepherd; a large Silver Flagon, by Mrs. T. C. Ross in memory of her mother, Mrs. Laura V. Reid; a brass Pulpit, by Mrs. Mattie Henry in memory of her husband, Daniel M. Henry, Jr.; a brass Lectern, by Mrs. Charlotte Goldsborough in memory of her husband, Judge Chas. F. Goldsborough and their six children; two hymn boards, by the Misses Lloyd in memory of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lloyd.

The Daughters of the King have helped the cause of adorning the Sanctuary by presenting some beautiful embroidered stoles.

The Ladies' Aid Society has made a very beautiful improvement to the churchyard by erecting on one side of it a nice iron fence, a portion of which fence was given by Mr. Wm. H. Barton, Jr.

I am indebted to the Vestry and congregation of Christ Church in addition to their many kindnesses, for the relief afforded me last summer when my health was impaired, by giving me a vacation of six weeks and putting the Rev. R. S. Coupland of the Diocese of Southern Virginia in my place. Mr. Coupland proved most acceptable and efficient.

To the Rev. Dr. Bryan I am indebted for much kind assistance in too many ways to mention. To his fostering has been given entirely the Chapels of St. John and St. James, which Chapels he has served with great zeal and fidelity to their great benefit.

For all favors, human and Divine, in the great work of the Church I take pleasure in recording my grateful acknowledgement.

The ceiling has been arched, raised four and a-half feet and finished in native pine. New Pews of antique oak have replaced the old ones. Three memorial windows have been given, and the remainder furnished with stained glass. A memorial Chancel Rail of walnut and brass, and a memorial Bishop's Chair and Priest's Chair have been presented; also a walnut Lectern. A handsome new carpet covers the whole floor.

The old School House has been enlarged and renovated, and made into a convenient Parish Building.

St. Mary's Guild, the Daughters of the King and the Crosdale Brotherhood have worked zealously in behalf of our building improvements and other excellent objects. The Children's Guild is a band of earnest little workers, to whom we are indebted for the new Lectern.

The Building Committee performed their duty with commendable ability and success. The result of their faithful efforts and of those who made the contributions, is highly satisfactory, and will, it is believed, promote the permanent prosperity of the Parish. To God be the glory.

Total, $2,208.16. Grand total, $2,329.95.

Church Property.—This Church has a Rectory valued at $2,500 and insured for $2,000; Parish Church, sittings 200, value $3,500, insured for $2,500; Holy Trinity Church, Oxford, sittings 250, value $10,000, insured for $1,500; Parish owns 5 acres of land, assessed at $4,000.

The Rector is happy to report that since last Convention, the debt on the Parish Church has been paid by the liberal aid of a generous friend. The new stone church at Oxford has been completed and was opened for Divine Worship on the 26th of August last. A furnace has been put in and paid for; old notes and bills have been cancelled, and the church neatly furnished. This work has been accomplished by the earnest energies of the congregation and by securing a loan of $1,000 on the property from the American Church Building Fund Commission; the first payment of which, amounting to $200 with interest, has already been made. Thus the debt of the whole Parish now amounts to only $800, which I earnestly hope will be paid in 2 years or 18 months. In addition, two handsome new memorial altars have been given—one of walnut to St. Paul's Church, Trappe, the other of oak to the new Church of the Holy Trinity, Oxford. The latter Church has also been the recipient of a memorial Eagle Lectern and a Font. Altogether we have great cause to thank God and take courage.

APPENDIX C—II.

THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN ON THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND.

JUNE, 1895.

We have nothing of special interest to record during the past year. The usual routine of work and study has been pursued with scarcely any interruption from sickness or other adverse circumstances. The children are noted as remarkably healthy and happy.

In August, one girl of nearly eighteen was placed at a home in Easton and another of twelve was sent to Wicomico county. In February, a girl of fifteen was placed at a home in Dorchester county, and one of five years was received into the Home from Cambridge, same county.

The present number of inmates is fourteen. We would gladly receive more when the cases come under the provisions of our Constitution.

During the summer the children were made glad by a trip to Ocean City, the funds being provided by the Managers. Friends from abroad have already given us means for a similar outing during the coming summer. At Christmas and Easter, kind friends at home and abroad contributed presents to make the seasons more enjoyable to them.

We would again mention the substantial help given by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Woman's Auxiliary of North Elk Parish, each one contributing a stated sum quarterly.

The Woman's Auxiliary of I. U. Parish sent a contribution of house linen which was most acceptable. From time to time donations from the town and neighborhood are received, which it would be tedious to enumerate.

Subjoined is a list of boxes received and of Parishes in which a child is clothed; also a list of donations that, by some oversight, were not reported last year.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOSIE P. DAWSON, Corresponding Secretary.

A. E. ADAMS, President.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled, and after offering prayers the Bishop read his annual address:

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

MY DEAR BRETHREN.

By the merciful providence of God we are spared to assemble once more in Convention, to render our several accounts one to another of things done and things endeavored for His great Name, to consult under Divine guidance concerning the welfare of His church in this Diocese and to take whatever action may seem fittest to secure it.

My own time during the past year has been spent pretty much as in years preceding. Besides my usual Fall and Spring visitations of the diocese, into which I have been accustomed to divide my annual work, I have made a second visitation to five parishes, and while not so engaged, I have given my Sundays, with few exceptions, to our vacant parishes; in which connection there are some things to deprecate and grieve over. It is not hard to bear up, when you see the vestry of a parish using all means in their power to fill a vacancy, and showing by their actions that they are sensible of the grave responsibilities they have assumed; but when you find them apparently indifferent whether their people shall ever possess the privileges of divine worship—this it is which lies heavy as lead upon the heart of one who would fain see the work of our blessed Lord go on and His people edified and sinners won to His dominion. It is hard to follow, even afar off, the wonderful patience of God.

The good and faithful work of my brethren of the clergy has made it possible, notwithstanding the vacancies of some of our important places, to report, in some respects, an advance upon the preceding year, when we had even more workers in the field. Our confirmations this year are more in number, though All Hallows and Snow Hill were vacant until January, at which time the Rev. Mr. Morgan entered upon his duties, and this Spring presented a class numbering 21, six of whom were old men. East New Market and Vienna have been vacant now for nearly a year. St. Luke's, Church Hill, is vacant and has been so since the resignation of the Rev'd. Mr. Batte, who removed to Wye in February, but I rejoice to say that this vestry has done and is still doing its duty as good and conscientious men. Whitemarsh Parish was also vacant for many months, owing to the sad affliction which fell upon our esteemed and worthy brother, the Rev. J. B. Gray. This vestry too, immediately set to work to fill his place, and I am glad to state that it is now in charge of the Rev. Mr. Gantt, of Baltimore. Denton became vacant by the removal of the Rev. Mr. Edson to Shrewsbury, filling a parish resigned by the Rev. Mr. Chambers. The vacancy of Denton however was soon ended. Prompt help was extended by the Rector and people of Holy Trinity, Greensborough. The Rev'd. Mr. Rich has been holding service every Sunday afternoon and one Sunday morning service a month. Somerset Parish was resigned by the Rev. Mr. Joralemon on the 11th ultimo.

The pretty little church in East New Market is finished, paid for and ready to be consecrated. An active young man is now sadly needed to do the work in this place, Vienna and Preston. In Vienna the new church is nearly finished, and if the people had some one to lead them they would very soon complete it. These good people long eagerly for some one to come to their help. The rector and congregation of Trinity, Elkton, lost their beautiful little church in January last; it was burnt down about the 12th of the month. They will soon however be worshipping once more on the same spot, their edifice rebuilt and enlarged. It is very pleasant to record a fact in relation to their loss; which we shall all most gratefully remem ber. Immediately upon hearing of it, the Methodist and Presbyterian ministers, together with some of their people, kindly and courteously offered us accommodation in their churches; but owing to the generous provision of one of the rector's own congregation he was not obliged to impose upon their kindness.

The vestry of Trinity were wise enough and faithful enough in their duty to the Church to haveit insured. In my travels through the diocese I find that some of our churches and church property have no insurance upon them at all, it has been allowed to run out and has not been renewed.

It is not necessary to speak here of the pressure and straitness of our people in money matters. Its rigor and severity you all know, and I mention it for this sole purpose: I have seen in many Parishes a disposition to lessen their expenses to a great extent by reducing the stipends given to their Rectors. I beg you, my dear brethren of the Laity, to take care what you are doing. You have now an exceptionally faithful and able body of Clergy, and as it is they are not getting rich. There is but one Rich among the lot. They are not here because they cannot find places elsewhere. Remember, "There is that scattereth and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty." All the Clergy ask is to be supported while they serve the people in doing their Lord's business. It is a misnomer and an abomination to call that support a salary or wages; it is not for that they work; money is not the motive of their working. He of whom this can justly be said is a disgrace to his order, and the choice of the profession in order to such an end, is if he be of any worth, a disgrace to his understanding. May God help you, my dear brethren, to take these words to heart before you go too far in this direction.

To the noble work done by our branch of the Woman's Auxiliary we propose to give Wednesday night the Convention permitting.

The Children's Home now has 18 little ones under its care. Since our last meeting its matron, Miss Mason, resigned, but the ladies of the Board of Managers were very soon enabled to secure the efficient and faithful services of Miss Dryden. There is no more beneficent work being done in our Diocese than by this institution. It merits and deserves your fostering care. Suffer not these good ladies, who give to it without grudging and complaint so much of their time, to think that we of the Clergy take no interest in its welfare. Every Parish in this Diocese should pay its tribute, if for nothing else, that it may share in the sure and high reward.

The work done in our Parishes on behalf of Diocesan and General Missions will be shown by the Secretary of our Board of Missions and by our parochial reports. It will be seen that some of our Parishes have done better than they promised, and others some have fallen very far behind their pledges. We must, however, take this into account, that, it sometimes happens, after pledges are made in good faith, misfortunes overtake the Parishes making them, and so prevent the redemption of their pledges. We may, however, receive at this Convention a considerable part of the balance pledged.

Your attention is respectfully called to certain proposed changes in the Constitution and the Book of Common Prayer, the latter a mere alteration of the Calendar. You will find these on the Secretary's table.

Let us turn now to other matters. In this Diocese, and generally throughout the land, the obstacles hitherto impeding our progress seem to be giving way. There is growing, doubtless under the Divine influence, a spirit more in accord with the Christian name and character; this, added to a wider and larger knowledge, has tempered the harsh and bitter speech of former times and has rendered less positive and dogmatic where it has not actually reversed, its former judgments. The loosened bond of charity has been drawn closer and extended to bind and encircle a larger number of the human family than merely those who are after our own manner and way of thinking. We have come, thanks be to God, to live in an epoch when even the children of this world demand that he who stands before them, claiming to speak in Christ's name, must speak somewhat in His spirit too; when vilification and calumny, foul abuse and ridicule of others bearing the Christian name and striving, in earnestness, after its character, is received with an indignation and impatience men take no pains either to conceal or to so press. Living in a Christian land and breathing a Christian atmosphere, they have come surely to know that he who claims to be sent of God and yet speaks with the poison of asps under his tongue, takes his commission and credentials whence he gets his venom. Besides these wholesome changes of mind and temper, of judgment and speech, the steady, and in many communities, rapid growth of the Church is bringing into favorable view what she is by showing men what she does. This is an argumentum ad hominem taken in the best sense. We read of our blessed Lord that "The multitude followed Him, because they saw His miracles which He did on them that were diseased." They saw them, no need was there that anybody should tell them. They could not but believe what their eyes beheld, and could not but approve what their hearts embraced. Here among men there is an invincible and attractive power in distributive goodness. "He went about doing good," with a zeal, too, that excited a suspicion of madness. He has blazoned out for the guidance of His Church in all ages a way direct to the hearts and minds of the multitude: to do good and to "keep ourselves unspotted from the world."

Men are the same now as of old. They are still in need and still crying out for help. Good deeds are still miracles—signs infallible of a Divine presence and gracious working, and whenever and wherever, in any of our parishes, such work is done, and such lives led, doubt we not that they shall meet with the same reward.

My dear Brethren of the Clergy, we meet in this place as servants of a common Master and Lord; as brothers of His one Family and Household of Faith, not only to report what we have done, but to consult concerning what we have yet to do; to enquire what hindrances be yet in our way and by what means they are to be removed. To this end I now, for my part, beg your attention, humbly entreating the Divine blessing upon my words, so far forth as they may deserve the Divine approval. We are at one, in a thorough belief in our own system of Christian training. We do not think that it stands in need of defence or apology. We believe that in all its marked characteristics it has come down to us from our blessed Lord and His Apostles; from the early martyrs and from those ages which were prolific in giving birth to missionaries who won whole nations to the dominion of Christ. Our hearts, our minds, our lives be with these worthies of old, as we breathe in fervent and loving devotion the very same prayers they uttered and the triumphant songs of praise they chanted, sometimes, too, amid devouring flames. But while our system of steady, well ordered and persistent training, from childhood onward, needs no defence, shall we say that it needs no explanation; that it needs not very much more explanation than we are wont to give to the many totally ignorant of it, and yet frequently waiting upon our ministry? Why are we so reserved? Something I know of the experience of my brethren, for I too have served, and once upon a time, when I was employed in this very task, I was in turn taken to task by one of my friends in the congregation. He began by saying something complimentary and concluded in these words, "but if you will pardon me for saying it, I do not like such sermons." I asked him to tell me frankly what kind of sermons he did like. He said, "I like Gospel sermons," and I replied that in this I fully agreed with him; that the very word Gospel signified good news, glad tidings; that to both of us, to the whole fallen race, it should be good news and glad tidings that we have, here and now, in our very midst, a Kingdom from Heaven, the Church of the Living God, whose Chief Shepherd and High Priest and crowned King is at the Right Hand of His Father; that this Church or Kingdom, call it by whatever name you will, is the very Instrument, in God's Hands, for conveying to each of us those many known and unknown blessings purchased for us upon the Cross of Calvary; that it, and it alone, of all institutions among men, wields the powers of the Divine Spirit; that although we may, and do, believe that God gives more than He promises, still the fact stands that, outside of and independent of His Church, He promises no pardon of sins, no life eternal; that He has joined pardon to a Birth from above, and a Birth from above to an entrance into this same Kingdom. Moreover, I said by way of catechism, tell me, was He not preaching the Gospel when Himself said, "Repent ye, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand"? Would you say in reply, "What has the Kingdom of Heaven to do with ntance? Why don't you preach repentance? That is the thing; that is Gospel preaching." But He here gives a motive en to repent. There is nothing in repentance itself that would ssarily secure our pardon. It is God's free gift, and re- ance fits us to receive it. He tells men to repent. He ns a motive. Pardon may be had for The Kingdom of Heav- at hand, through and by which He bestows pardon; whose the Covenant and the Promises, the Word, the Sacra- s, the Ministry. Ah, my friend, said I, if these be not el to you, they are to me, and pretty much all of it, too, hey are what, by God's help, I propose to stick to to my end. I suppose that we have all noticed the fact that e this emasculated, boneless, inorganic so-called Gospel is and is glorified," there is little progress made. The gy become acquainted often with something like this view g their lay friends; and I think it grows partly out of lest some member of the congregation or strangers from r congregations should be offended. The fear, I take it, t well grounded. I do not know just how others may nd judge concerning this matter, but speaking for myself, I believe for the great majority, too, I must say that, were esent in a congregation of worshippers whose belief differed so much from mine, and should reason be given me to ve that, the minister, on my account, either suppressed or hered in ambiguous generalities his sincere and honest ictions of Divine truth, for that man I should have no ect whatever. Let him preach boldly, freely and fearlessly he believes honestly, and although I may believe not in eaching, I shall believe in the man.

ie Laity of this Diocese have no cause to fear the sort of gy God has set over them, for I will tell you when offence ven and how. It is when the pulpit and the preacher's and holy calling are prostituted by biting and sarcastic ism of others; by holding up to derision and ridicule gs sacred in their eyes; by treading with cruel and unpro- d violence upon their most tender and cherished convic- . Just two things will, by God's help, evermore keep rom this: first, the remembrance that we are Chris- ; and second, that we are gentlemen. He who speaks the truth in love offends no man.

There is a certain great and stubborn hindrance to our work in this Diocese, which I think may be lessened by tireless and persistent endeavor. It is a widespread failure to appreciate, nay, even practically to acknowledge, the existence of any spiritual relation whatever between God and a child baptized in the Name of the Holy Trinity. To illustrate from actual life: Not many years ago, but in another Diocese, the Rector of the Parish, whose class I was there to confirm, told me that the class would have been much larger had not the parents of some of the young people withdrawn and sent them to a camp meeting to get religion before they were confirmed. Now mark you, these were no heathen who did this. They were good Christian people who had long before offered these same children to Christ in Holy Baptism; but who evidently believed that He had refused to receive them or have anything to do with them. How strange it is that this exceeding great parental love that is in our own breasts, a love which so often makes the greater and better part of life a willing sacrifice for our children, should yet not teach us to believe and trust rather than to ignore and practically deny the transcendently far greater love of the Father above, and His Whose Name the little ones do bear, and Whose in very deed and truth they are. Why should not the hearts of loving fathers and mothers give reverent heed and joyous credence to that high authoritative sentence, which no lapse of time can weaken, nor unbelief revoke, "Suffer the little children to COME UNTO ME and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." What have we here but the very VOICE OF GOD answering back in prompt response to the yearning cry of that same love which Himself put into these mothers' hearts. Why should we, heeding neither Him nor His gracious words, follow rather the example of the still untutored Apostles, yet in their minority and in the first days of their pupilage, learners now, not teachers, speaking in their own tongue, but not in the fiery tongues of Pentecost.

To me it seems the strangest of all strange things; to the whole life and teaching of our blessed Lord there is nothing, save sin, more repugnant and contradictory than this refusal to acknowledge, yea, this practical denial of a spiritual relation between a baptized child and its Redeemer. It is abhorrent to our warmest and most sacred affections. Nature and reason alike raise their indignant and impassioned voices to condemn and to denounce it. And still it exists in the belief and practice, too, of many good people, and doubtless because there is an implicit, if not explicit, unbelief in the possibility of even God being able to do any good or bestow any gift upon a child of immature age. It must, forsooth, eat first of the forbidden fruit and come to an experimental knowledge of evil, and suffer loss, and then God may be able to do somewhat for it, after the devil has led the way. But some may, and do say, "What can He give, and what can it receive, and how can ought be done to it or upon it?" Here, as elsewhere, the how of God's working is beyond our ken. It is an unfathomable sea, depths beneath depths immeasurable. And in spiritual life there is nothing a whit more recondite than there is in natural life. The beginnings of all life are shrouded in darkness impenetrable. All knowledge of every kind has its degrees—its more and its less. We always, in every direction to which we turn, come to some stopping place. There is a beyond, but we cannot reach it. But still there is some light thrown upon this subject, not indeed as to the how of His working nor the manner of their receiving. Our Lord took little children into His arms from the arms of their mothers and He blessed them. Dare we say that this act was a mere simulation or pretence? That nothing was given and nothing received? I want no better, no more adequate and incontestible evidence to prove their capacity as recipients than the Divine act of blessing; for He evermore gives really what He offers, throw we not sin in His way. What is more plainly taught in Holy Scripture and what, by all Christians, more generally and sincerely believed than the working of God's Holy Spirit in and upon our spirits? Do we not all believe that His Holy Spirit guides and teaches, comforts and rebukes, warns and threatens, cheers and consoles, and enables us both to will and to do? Yet do we at all understand how? Do we not know that His working is inscrutable? That He is buried down deep among the springs of action; hidden away among the germs of inchoate desires and affections, not yet kindled into life? That He moves with formative energy above the discrete elements of future purpose? The working of the Holy Spirit does not come at all into the region of human consciousness. He is not seen there. That mirror reflects alone and solely the phenomena of human life. And yet still we believe the Word of Revelation and cling to it. Mysteries are equal, so far as we are concerned, and if I must needs give up my belief in God's both will and power to give grace and a new nature, and a larger efficiency to do, to the little ones, who, in obedience to His own command, we place yet in His Arms, and all, too, because I cannot understand the manner of His working and of our receiving, then I find that this will be but a small part of the whole I must needs surrender upon the like ground.

But allowing and accepting this, what is to be done in consequence of such acceptance? What follows? Our whole system of instruction and training follow. That is to be done in your Parishes which you are now doing and which the Church of Christ has been doing ever since the days of the Apostles. But what is particularly offered here to the consideration of my brethren is the necessity of teaching that baptized children are Christians; that mere size and age are neither bars nor impediments to the name or the nature; that if indeed it be true that of such is the Kingdom of Heaven, then there is even in them a something we must imitate by growing back to a humility and reverence of mind which we may have long lost. If it be objected that, these same children do often grow up and fall into sin; granted, and so do we, now long grown up. But they must be converted; granted; so they must, and so must we, too, Christians though we be. Every act of repentance is a quasi conversion, for conversion is a turning, and turning is a change, and this word change is the radical meaning of repentance. The difference is not one of kind, but one of degree. Alas! do any of us ever grow so large as not to find now and again the need of this same repentance? They are an Apostle's words: "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us." He does not tell us, and need not, that though we may in this way deceive ourselves, we shall fail much in deceiving others. But the same Apostle tells us that, "If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and He is the propitiation for our sins." He does not tell us that we are clean dead spiritually and wholly alienate from God, nor are we to lay emphasis on the word man, and so construe the holy Apostle as to exclude our children from their part in the Advocate and the Propitiation.

I leave these words with you, my dear brethren of the Clergy, from whose loving kindness and gracious courtesy I am constantly receiving help and encouragement, and for whom in all my prayers I supplicate that succor we all so greatly need.

he Rev. Mr. Mitchell presented and read the

Report of the Board of Missions,

moved the adoption of the accompanying resolution:

entering upon another Convention to take counsel for the welof the Church in this Diocese, there is no department of our k more important than that of Missions within our Diocesan lers. We first consider our financial condition. There was ged at last Convention from the parishes $1260.00. Our Treasur-ports the receipt of $1369.20, and after payment of the stipends issionaries, a balance in bank of $757.04. Received at this Con-ion $232.83, making $1602.03, and the balance on hand $989.87.
e feel thankful in being able to say that this showing is better we anticipated when we met together to arrange for the pay-
; of the clergy for the twelve months preceding this Convention.
condition of the finances of the General Board of Missions made xtremely uncertain whether the amount allowed the Diocese the general fund could be continued beyond the first quarter, if we were thrown upon our own mission fund entirely, it would been inadequate to help all the parishes relying upon this fund ep their churches open. But the deficit was made up, and the d continued its allowance throughout the year. The Board has l 14 parishes during the year: but this did not meet, either as to ber, or as to needs, the calls for help. We wish to bring before Convention the fact, that our so-called Diocesan Mission fund is onfined strictly to Mission station work, that of opening new , but from the peculiar condition of affairs in this Diocese, in aining already existing, and in some cases, once independent hes. Without the aid furnished by this means there are once endent parishes which would be unable to pay the stipend of rector, and meet the expenses of keeping open the church for people. It will at once be perceived how very important this

ON THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

SECTION 1.—For the purpose of administering the Episcopal Fund, a Board of Trustees, to consist of the Bishop for the time being, and six Lay members of the Church, shall be appointed as hereinafter provided.

SECTION 2.—The Convention shall, immediately after the adoption of this Canon and at every succeeding Diocesan Convention, proceed to ballot for six Lay members of said Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and the persons having the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

SECTION 3.—The six Trustees to be elected as aforesaid shall, immediately after their election, be distributed by arrangement amongst themselves into two classes. The first class shall serve until the adjournment of the next annual meeting of this Convention. The second class shall serve until the adjournment of the second annual meeting of the Convention hereafter, and such classification shall, as soon as made, be reported by the said Trustees to the Secretary of this Convention. For the continuance of this Board of Trustees the Convention, at its next and at each succeeding annual meeting, shall elect by ballot Trustees in the place of those whose terms shall have expired, and the Trustees so to be elected shall serve until the adjournment of the second annual meeting of the Convention after their election.

SECTION 4.—Any vacancy occurring in said Board of Trustees, by death, resignation, refusal to serve, removal out of the Diocese, or otherwise, may be filled by said Board, and the person so chosen shall serve until the adjournment of the next annual meeting of the Convention, which shall elect a person to serve during the residue of the term of the person in whose stead he shall be elected.

SECTION 5.—The Bishop shall be ex officio President of the said Board of Trustees; and the Board shall, at its first meeting, and annually thereafter, appoint one of its own members to act as Treasurer, who will continue in office until removed by the Board, or until the expiration of his term as Trustee. The Treasurer shall have the custody of all moneys and securities belonging to the Episcopal Fund, subject to such order as the Board of Trustees may take from time to time in relation thereto; and he shall keep an accurate account of all his receipts and disbursements, and shall lay the same before the Convention at each annual meeting.

SECTION 6.—The Board shall meet on some day during the month next preceding the annual meeting of the Convention, and at such other times and at such place as the Board shall direct; or upon the requisition of the Bishop or of any two Trustees, and a majority of the Board shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 7.—The Treasurer, under the direction of the Board, shall pay to the Bishop out of the interest or income arising from said Episcopal Fund, if sufficient for the purpose, such annual salary and traveling expenses as the Bishop shall from time to time receive under the action of this Convention; and if the income shall be more than sufficient for the payment of such salary and traveling expenses such surplus revenue shall be invested in augmentation of the Episcopal Fund until the further order of the Convention.

SECTION 8.—All investments shall be made in the name of the Treasurer for the time being of said Trustees as Treasurer; but no such investment shall be transferred, assigned or released but by writing under seal of the Treasurer of said Trustees, at the time of such transfer, assignment or release; and of the Bishop of the Diocese; or in his absence, or in the event of a vacancy in the office of Bishop, of two other members of said Board of Trustees.

SECTION 9.—The Board of Trustees shall appoint a Secretary, (who may also be the Treasurer,) and shall keep a journal of its proceedings in which shall be entered the attendance of the members, and the acts and resolutions of the Board in regard to the administration of the fund, and on every question moved and decided the ayes and noes shall be entered if required by any member; and this Journal shall be produced to and laid before the Convention at any annual meeting, if called for by any member of the Convention.

SECTION 10.—The Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund shall give bond in such penalty and with such conditions as shall be prescribed by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, to be approved by a majority of said Trustees. He shall keep books and accounts of all official transactions, which shall be the property of the Convention, and which with the vouchers thereof shall be submitted to the Convention at each annual session thereof, and he shall report to the Convention annually the condition of the said Trust, and all receipts and disbursements and what investments are productive and what, if any, are unproductive.

SECTION 11.—No investment by way of lien upon real property shall be made hereunder, until a favorable report shall have been made and filed with the Trustees, by some attorney designated by them, as to the title and security of the property offered, and no such investment shall be made but at a regular meeting of said Trustees, or a special meeting called for the purpose.

SECTION 12.—Upon the death, disqualification, resignation or removal of such Treasurer, all books, accounts and evidences of investments connected with the Episcopal Fund and held by him shall be turned over to his successor.

The original report of the Committee did not contain the paragraphs in reference to the bonding of the several Treasurers, and the report having been read, the Rev. Dr. Sutton moved to amend each of the proposed Canons by adding a proviso requiring each Treasurer to give bond. The amendment was accepted, and the Report of the Committee on Canons, as amended, and as printed above, was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Schouler, the vote for the adoption of the Report of the Committee on Canons was reconsidered, and the Convention proceeded to act upon the proposed amendments separately.

The Amendment to Canon XIV. was adopted.

OF
THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Easton:

In compliance with the requirements of Article 9 of the Constitution, I would hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed; to wit, those comprised in the resolutions subjoined, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, held in the city of Minneapolis, Minnesota, in October, A. D. 1895, to wit:

First.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 30, 31, 222.)

Resolved, That the following amendment be made to the Constitution, and that the proposed amendment be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be finally agreed to and ratified in the next General Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution:

Strike out the Title and insert in place thereof the following:

"Constitutions and Canons for the Government of that Portion of the Catholic Church known in Law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America;" adding thereto the subtitle, "Constitutions."

Second.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 142, 143, 144, 325, 326, 327)

Resolved, That the following amendment be made to the Constitution, and that the proposed amendment be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be finally agreed to and ratified in the next General Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution:

Insert in place of Articles 1, 2, and 3, of the Constitution the following.

CONSTITUTIONS.

I.

SECTION 1. There shall be a General Convention of this Church, consisting of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, which Houses shall sit and deliberate separately, and in all deliberations freedom of debate shall be allowed. Either House may originate and propose legislation, but every act of the General Convention must be adopted by both Houses, and be certified by the signatures of the Presiding Officer and of the Secretary of each House.

SEC. 2. Every Bishop of this Church, having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, and every Bishop whose resignation of jurisdiction shall have been accepted, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops, entitled to vote, exclusive of those who have resigned their jurisdictions, and those who are Bishops in foreign lands, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SEC. 3. The Senior Bishop of this Church in the order of consecration, having jurisdiction within the United States, shall be the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitutions and Canons of the General Convention, or, for its own needs by the House of Bishops, and shall hold office for life, unless he resign or be relieved from that office by a vote of a majority of the Bishops entitled to a vote in the House of Bishops.

SEC. 4. The Church in each Diocese which shall have been admitted to the General Convention shall be entitled to be represented in the House of Deputies by not more than four Presbyters, canonically resident in the Diocese, and by not more than four Laymen, communicants of this Church, and having domicile in the Diocese. Each Diocese shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

A majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation shall be represented by Clerical Deputies, and also a majority of the Dioceses so entitled shall be represented by Lay Deputies, to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The absence of a majority of the Deputies of either Order of any Diocese shall not invalidate the representation of such Diocese, so long as there be present one or more Deputies of either Order. If any Diocese be not represented, or be represented in one Order only, such Diocese shall nevertheless be bound by the acts of the General Convention.

On any question the vote of the majority of the Deputies present shall suffice, unless otherwise ordered by these Constitutions, or unless the Clerical or Lay representation from any Diocese require that the vote be taken by Orders; and in all cases of a vote by Orders, the two Orders shall vote separately; each Diocese having one vote for its Clerical and one for its Lay representation, if present; and the concurrence of the votes of the two Orders, by not less than a majority in each Order of all the Dioceses represented in that Order at the time of the vote, shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the House; Provided, however, that if it shall appear that a constitutional quorum of the House has not voted, the Presiding Officer shall declare that there has been no vote of the House; and in such a case the question may be again put to the House when a quorum shall be present, at any time before the final adjournment of the Convention then in session.

SEC. 5. In either House any number less than a quorum may adjourn from day to day. Neither House during the session of the General Convention shall adjourn without the consent of the other for more than three days, nor to any place other than that in which the Conventiou shall be sitting.

SEC. 6. One Clerical and one Lay Delegate chosen by each Missionary District of this Church, or by a convocation of the American Churches in Foreign Lands, convened by proper Ecclesiastical authority, shall have seats in the House of Deputies, subject to all the qualifications and with all the rights of Deputies except the right to vote.

SEC. 7. The General Convention shall meet in every third year on the first Wednesday in October, unless a different day be appointed by the preceding Convention, and at such place as shall have been determined on by the Convention; and if there shall appear to the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops sufficient cause for changing the place so appointed, he may appoint another place for such meeting. Special meetings may be called in accordance with canonical provisions of the Convention.

Third.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 87, 88, 138, 146, 305, 306, 319, 327, 328, 332)

Resolved, That the following amendment be made to the Constitution, and that the proposed amendment be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be finally agreed to and ratified in the next General Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution.

In the ninth line of Articie 5 strike out the words "any other Diocese" and insert the words "any Missionary District, nor by the junction of any two or more Missionary Districts or parts of Districts, or any existing Diocese"; and in thirteenth line strike out the words "as well as," and insert after the word "Concerned" the words "and, in the case of a Missionary District or Districts, of the Bishop and Convocation of each, and in no case without the consent" so that it shall read as follows:

"No new diocese shall be formed or erected within the limits of any Missionary District. nor by the junction of any two or more Missionary Districts or parts of Districts, or any existing Diocese, nor shall any Diocese be formed by the junction of two or more Dioceses or parts of Dioceses or Districts, unless with the consent of the Bishop and Convention of each of the Dioceses concerned, and, in the case of a Missionary District or Districts, of the Bishop and

No such new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain less than six Parishes, or less than six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation, and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain less than twelve Parishes, or less than twelve Presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above mentioned: Provided, that no city shall form more than one Diocese.

In case one Diocese shall be divided into two or more Dioceses, the Diocesan of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he shall be attached, and shall thereupon become the Diocesan thereof: and the Bishop Coadjutor if there be one, may elect the one to which he shall be attached; and if it be not the one elected by the Bishop, he shall be the Diocesan thereof.

Whenever the division of a Diocese into two or more Dioceses shall be ratified by the General Convention, each of the Dioceses shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese so divided, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same may be altered in either Diocese by the Convention thereof. And whenever a Diocese shall be formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, the new Diocese shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses to which the greater number of Clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, until the same may be altered by the Convention of the new Diocese.

The General Convention may accept a cession of a part of the territorial jurisdiction of a Diocese when the Bishop and Convention of such Diocese shall propose such cession, and three-fourths of the Parishes in the ceded territory, and also the same proportion of the Parishes within the remaining territory, shall consent thereto.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have this day hereunto affixed my name.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

the Convention of the Diocese of Easton:

In compliance with the requirements of Article 8 of the Constitution, I would hereby make known that the following alteration in the Book of Common Prayer was proposed in the General Convention of 1895, and is to be acted upon at the General Convention of 1898; to wit, that contained in the subjoined resolution:—

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Book of Common Prayer, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention:

and that in the fifth line of page xxv., the figures "1899" be changed to "2199."

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have this day hereunto affixed my name.

CHAS. L. HUTCHINS,
Secretary of the House of Deputies.

Concord, Massachusetts, March 10, A. D. 1896.

The Rev. Dr. Sutton presented and read the

(See Appendix, C—I.)

The Rev. W. Y. Beaven, chairman, read the Report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

The Committee on the State of the Church beg leave to submit their Report, based mainly upon a comparison of the statistics of Convention of 1895 and the parochial reports handed to us at this Convention. We have had reports from 31 out of 36 parishes. Below we give a comparison of statistics between the years 1895 and 1896:

|---|---|---|
| Baptisms | 287 | 270 |
| Confirmations | 148 | 194 |
| Communicants | 3240 | 2619 |
| Contributions—Grand Total | $24,583.50 | $29,756.19 |

Your Committee consider it to be their duty to call the attention of the clergy to the desirability for greater accuracy in all the details in preparing their reports. We have now a most excellent form, thanks to the Secretary of the Convention, and it ought to be carefully filled up. We note in one instance no mention of salary of rector at all, and in five others the amount promised is left out, and in several the totals of contributions are not mentioned. This renders statistics inaccurate and defeats the very object for which the Committee on the State of the Church is named. It would greatly facilitate business if the reports were handed to the Secretary at the first session of the Convention.

It is with regret that we notice long vacancies in the rectorate of some parishes, and in one instance the parish church, built of stone, has been allowed to fall into a shameful state of decay and neglect. Nothing is reported as given in that parish. We see no necessity for this as the members of that parish, if they properly bestirred themselves, could keep the church and chapel open at regular intervals.

Indeed your committee would recommend that in the case of parishes which remain for a long series of years deprived of public services, some measures ought to be devised by which they be placed under the Missionary supervision of the Diocese. If a vestry will not keep the church open the Convention ought to take the matter in hand.

We are happy to note improvements in many parishes. At Pocomoke an iron fence has been put up and a new organ purchased for the Sunday School.

Two parishes have been visited by fire, but the people are going bravely forward under their faithful rectors.

The church in Cambridge has had two memorials given—a brass alms basin and a brass credence.

It is very gratifying to note marked improvement in Grace Church, Wicomico Parish. May they long keep their hard-working rector.

The rector of Spring Hill reports that a third more is raised by the envelope system than under the old pledge. We believe like results would be reported if the system were properly worked in other parishes.

It is much to be thankful for that the Diocese has not only kept pace with the amount of contributions usually reported, but has exceeded that of last year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. Y. BEAVEN,
A. BATTE,
FRANKLIN B. ADKINS.

The Hon. the Chancellor of the Diocese made a verbal statement as to the causes of the failure of the passage of the Amendments to the Vestry Act.

Dr. Mackall offered the following Preamble and Resolution:

WHEREAS, The Convention of the Diocese of Easton of 1895, applied to the General Assembly of Maryland of 1896, in a bill prepared for that purpose, for certain Amendments to the Vestry Act of 1798, as applicable to the nine Counties of the State embraced in this Diocese, and the bill so prepared and presented to the Legislature by the Chancellor of the Diocese of Easton, failed to become a law on account of the unwarranted interference of certain prominent Churchmen of the Diocese of Maryland and by the Standing Committee of the new Diocese of Washington. Therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention affirm the action of the Convention of 1995, adopting the proposed amendments to the Vestry Law of 1798, and continuing the Committee to present and urge the passage of the bill before the next General Assembly of Maryland.

Pending the discussion of this paper, the hour of the day was called for, and the Convention went into the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

The following nominations were made: The Rev. J. A. Mitchell, the Rev. S. C. Roberts, D. D., the Rev. W. Y. Beaven, the Rev. O. H. Murphy, the Rev. A. Batte, the Rev. L. B. Baldwin, the Rev. David Howard, the Rev. Dr. Sutton, the Rev. T. C. Page and the Rev. Wm. Schouler.

The Rev. Mr. Schouler withdrew his name.

The Chair appointed as Tellers for the Clerical Vote the Rev. Wm. G. Woolford and the Rev A. J. Vanderbogart, and for the Lay Vote Mr. Wm. Goldsborough and Mr. E. W. Hepbron.

The vote was taken, and the Tellers retired to count the ballots.

The Rev. Mr. Baldwin read the Report of the Committee on the Episcopal Fund.

The Committee on the Episcopal Fund beg leave to report that they have carefully read the report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and also examined the appended report of the Treasurer of the same, which report gives an itemized list of the securities in which the Episcopal Fund is invested at this date. Balances and vouchers for expenditures are correct so far as we can judge.

L. B. BALDWIN,
R. C. MACKALL,
C. CARROLL TILGHMAN.

The Rev. Giles B. Cooke offered the Report of the Committee on Parochial Contributions and Assessments, and moved the adoption of the accompanying resolution. The Report was accepted and the resolution adopted. (See Appendix B—II.)

On motion of the Rev. W. Y. Beaven it was

Resolved, That the day, All Saints', as now provided by resolution of the Convention as the day for taking up the collection for the General Clergy Relief Fund, be and is hereby changed to Quinquagesima Sunday in conformity to the action of the General Convention of 1895.

Mr. Henry S. Coudon presented the

and moved that the Report of the Treasurer of the Clergy Relief Fund be referred back to the Treasurer for correction of clerical error. It was so ordered.

Your Committee on Accounts beg to report that we have found the reports of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, the Treasurer of the Home for Friendless Children, the Treasurer of the Episcopal Building Fund and the Treasurer of the Convention Fund correct, but that in the report of the Treasurer of the Clergy Relief Fund there is a clerical error of Fifty dollars against the Convention.

HY. S. COUDON,
Z. POTTER LUSBY,
ROBT. J. SHOWELL.

On motion the Report of the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions was re-referred to the Committee on Accounts.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Schouler it was

Resolved, That Mr. Richard T. Martin, our former Treasurer of Diocesan Missions, be respectfully requested to deliver to his successor in office his book of record, and should there be no such book in his possession belonging to the Diocese, then to give him from his private book such information as will enable him to give credits to the parishes which before his entry upon the work paid certain sums to this fund.

The Rev. L. B. Baldwin offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Convention hears with deep regret that E. L. F. Hardcastle, Esq., Treasurer of the Clergy Relief Fund, finds himself compelled to withdraw from that position on account of failing health. An efficient, capable and judicious financier, it is pleasant to record the honorable and scrupulous care with which from its inception he has managed a most useful trust.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to Genl. Hardcastle for his faithful services as Treasurer of the Diocesan Relief Fund.

Resolved, That this Convention extends to Genl. Hardcastle assurances of its sympathy.

The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

On motion of the Hon. L. L. Waters it was ordered that immediately after the report of the Tellers of the vote for the Standing Committee, the Convention proceed to the election of the Trustees of the several Diocesan Funds.

The Tellers of the vote for the Standing Committee reported the election of the following gentlemen:

The Rev. James A. Mitchell, The Rev. S. C. Roberts, D. D.,
" " Algernon Batte, " " W. Y. Beaven, and a tie vote for the Rev. O. H. Murphy and the Rev. L. B. Baldwin. Another vote was taken for the remaining member of the Standing Committee, which resulted in no election. A third vote was ordered, and pending the result, the Rev. Mr. Mitchell offered the following:

Resolved, That this Convention has heard with regret and sorrow of the death of Thos. Hughlett, the honored Treasurer of this Convention from the time of the organization of this Diocese to the time of his death. He has administered his trust ever with fidelity and courtesy, and we feel deeply indebted to him for his long and faithful labors. We extend our sympathy to his family, and request the Secretary to send them a copy of this resolution.

The resolution was adopted by a rising vote.

The Rev. Mr. Schouler offered the following resolutions, which were adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the hearty sympathy of this Convention be tendered to the Rev. John B. Gray, in view of the physical disability which prevents his attendance upon our sessions, and has, for the time, interrupted his useful and valued labors in the Diocese.

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to him by the Secretary.

Mr. S. E. Whitman offered the following preamble and resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The articles of incorporation of Trinity Cathedral provide that "it shall be competent for the said Convention, with the consent of the Bishop, to enact by canon from time to time such statutes and to create such offices as may be found expedient for the best interests of the corporation."

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of taking such action as is thus provided for; and if so to draft a suitable canon and present the same to the next Convention for consideration and adoption. Said committee to consist of the Bishop, the Dean of the Cathedral and the Chancellor of the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Sutton the following gentlemen were elected Trustees of Trinity Cathedral: Mr. Charles S. Seymour, Mr. C. B. Flowers, Dr. J. E. M. Chamberlaine, Mr. S. E. Whitman, Mr. Wilfred Bateman and Mr. W. H. Higgins.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Spencer it was

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Convention be hereby tendered to the Rector, Vestry and Members of this Congregration, and to other citizens of Chestertown for the delightful manner in which the Delegates to this Convention have been entertained.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the members of the Choir of Emmanuel Church for their excellent rendering of the music during the Sessions of the Convention.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the various Railroads for their courtesy in reducing fares to the Delegates and others attending the Convention.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Convention pay Ten Dollars to the Sexton of this Church.

Mr. Pearce, from the Committee on Canons, offered a Canon on the Election of Deputies to the General Convention, which, after amendment, was adopted as follows:

CANON XXVII.

ON THE ELECTION OF DEPUTIES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

At every annual Convention next preceding the meeting of the General Convention four clerical and four lay deputies shall be chosen by ballot to represent this Diocese, as provided in Article 2, of the Constitution of the Church. Immediately after the election of such deputies the Convention shall choose in the same manner four clerical and four lay alternate deputies. In case of any vacancy occurring among said deputies (by reason of death, illness, or refusal or inability to attend) before or during the session of the General Convention, such vacancy shall be filled, if among the clerical deputies, by the clerical alternate chosen by the highest number of votes, and if any among the lay deputies by the lay alternate chosen by the highest number of votes, and should more than one such vacancy occur in either order, it shall be filled in like manner by the alternate of the same order having the next highest vote. In case of a tie vote between two clergymen or two laymen chosen as alternate deputies, precedence shall be given to the clergyman or layman longest in canonical or actual residence in the Diocese, as the case may be.

The Secretary read the following communication from the executors of the late Thos. Hughlett, Treasurer of the Convention:

TO THE CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF EASTON.

Gentlemen:—The Executors of the late Thomas Hughlett, Treasurer of the Convention, beg leave to report that since the last Convention your Treasurer has died, and we herewith submit a statement of the Convention Funds received by him, the best we can from the entries we find on his books in our possession, which entries are both meagre and imperfect. They disclose only in a few instances the sources from which he received revenue. We are satisfied that he had another or other books in which he kept a more particular account, but such book or books we have as yet been unable to find. If it can be ascertained that any payments have been made with which the late Treasurer has not charged himself, his Executors will cheerfully make them good. These Executors further report that the late Treasurer borrowed from The Workingmen's Permanent Building and Loan Association of Talbot County the sum of Three Hundred Dollars, and gave therefor his individual note endorsed by two of his personal friends, to raise the money necessary to pay the expenses of the Delegates to the General Convention, which money was so applied and the note is still outstanding and overdue.

Under the head of charities it should be noted that relief is given to the needy in our community or largely so, through a common fund, administered by a Board of Chairities in which Trinity Church is represented. It has been a sad year in Trinity Parish, in view of the loss by death of long-time parishioners, representing families identified with the history of Trinity Church in earlier and later years; and of the destructive fire occurring on the 12th day of January, which has deprived Trinity congregation of its House of Prayer for nearly five months. Through the kind provision of Dr. C. M. Ellis, of Elkton, the Odd Fellows' Hall has served our temporary need. The work of restoration is going forward, and we hope to occupy the Church within a few weeks time.

The parish is, I believe, in a very satisfactory condition. Our financial obligations have been met, and the needs of others beyond the parish boundaries have not been forgotten. The various parish organizations have been active and efficient, the Sunday School of Christ Church especially so. The school has grown steadily in numbers, and the record of work is better than ever. It has been a disappointment to all of us that the Parish House which we contemplated building has not yet been erected, as the Sunday School needs a home and better accommodations than it now enjoys. We firmly expect, however, to build during the coming summer. As this building will complete the church with which the name of my predecessor, Rev. T. P. Barber, D. D., is so intimately associated, the Vestry has decided to make the parish house a memorial to him and it will be known as the Barber memorial.

During the past year two more memorials have been presented to Christ Church, the first a handsome Alms basin made of brass and presented by the Rt. Rev. Geo. W. Peterkin, D. D., Bishop of West Virginia. It bears the following inscription. "In loving memory of Rebekah Dulany Peterkin, born in Berryville, Va., Sept. 24, 1849. Entered into rest, Cambridge, Md., July 26, 1891."

The other memorial is a beautiful brass Credence table, presented by Mrs. Charlotte A. P. Goldsborough and has this inscription: "In Love and Honor to God and in loving memory of my parents, John Campbell Henry, 1787—1857; Mary Nevett Henry, 1789—1873; Charlotte A. P. Goldsborough, Sept. 1895.

We take pleasure also in mentioning some beautiful, handsomely embroidered stoles given by the Daughters of the King. They have given for the Rector's use a beretta also. The care of the Chapels has been with the Rev. Jas. L. Bryan, M. D., who has done faithful and efficient service. He has also been a great help to me in the work at Christ Church.

The Rector has continued his labors, with few interruptions due to inclement weather, for the entire Convention year. The services at Trinity Church were closed in the fall and an attempt made to continue them in the school honse at Church Creek, but as the School Board passed a general order forbidding such use of the school, hence these services closed from necessity.

At Grace Chapel, Taylor's Island, there has been no serious interruption.

The parishoners and Rector mourn the loss of Henry Carroll, who died in May after a short illness. He had been a faithful member of the vestry for many years.

During the past year extensive and much needed repairs have been made upon the church building through the efforts of the several organizations of the parish, led by the Mite Society. This noble band of workers assumed the cost of beautifying the interior. The old walls were entirely torn out and replaced with new ones, crowned by an arched ceiling. All the interior wood-work, which was previously painted a dark color, has been stained in oak and given a hard oil finish. With funds raised by the Guild the church has been covered with a new roof of first-class material. This, together with a fresh coat of paint on the weather boarding, contributed by the Altar Chapter, gives the building a very new and neat appearance. To complete the improvements, which were made at a cost of about $300, a small chandelier for the chancel was very kindly presented by Miss Rose Smullen, of Crisfield.

On May 26th I officiated at a marriage in Somerset Parish.

The very fact that so much loving service is given proves that there might be, and ought to be, enough more to meet every demand that is made.

I have laboured under many discouragements with very few apparent results, almost a wornout parish, purely missionary, with no salary promised and scarcely any received; but I am labouring faithfully and hopefully, trusting in Him who has promised to look after the results if we toilers in His vineyard will do His work. I receive a stipend of $200 from the Board of Diocesan Missions for my work in this and Spring Hill Parish, officiating in two parish churches, two chapels and in a hall, preaching at two places in Stepney and three in Spring Hill Parishes three times each alternate Sunday in the month.

We have about $50 in hand toward further repairs on the old Green Hill (St. Bartholomew's) Church, builded in the year of our Lord 1733. I preach in this old building—which had been given up for years to decay, but now restored—twice each month, and frequently offer the Holy Memorial upon its altar. I also officiate a like number of times in St. Mary's Chapel. Under the blessing of God, and through our united and undiscouraged labours of faith and love, we hope to see this old parish revive and go forward.

When I became Rector of Spring Hill Parish—the second time—in the year of our Lord 1894, there was a mortgage of $400 on the chapel held by the Church Building Fund Commission, with only a small amount of the above named sum paid on the mortgage. Since then the interest has been paid up, and almost the entire amount of the mortgage. We expect to cancel the debt by the beginning of next September, when the mortgage will be due. This money has been raised through the untiring and faithful efforts of the good women of the parish—the Woman's Auxiliary to the Rector. When this debt is paid we hope to make some necessary repairs upon the Rectory and surroundings.

We hope to make, in the Providence of God, a much better showing next year.

The parish societies are entitled to all honor for their continuance in good works. The ladies Aid society the oldest in the parish, though few in numbers has rendered good service. Last spring they furnished lamps for the Chapel at Ocean City; also trees for the rectory lawn. They have a small sum in hand which will be expended in building a summer kitchen at the rectory. In the future they have agreed to devote their efforts entirely to assisting in necessities and comforts pertaining to the rectory.

The Industrial Guild has not been weary in well doing. Under their efficient president, they have raised $105,91. They furnished the material and made the cassocks and cottas for thirty choristers and assisted in other church work.

The parochial branch of the Woman's Auxiliary assures us that the needs of our missionaries and their families shall not be forgotten. They have contributed during the past year $29.48, and also sent a box to an Indian catechist in South Dakota valued at $15.

St. Paul's Guild has raised $11.13. Three ladies of the parish have undertaken the arduous task of raising money to pay for the new two manual pipe organ, which we hope will be erected in the church about the first of August.

A vested choir of thirty voices was introduced on the third Sunday in Advent, fifteen of which were confirmed by the Bishop at his visitation in March.

The parish feels, and will, I fear, for some time to come, the effects of the fire which visited our town on the 4th of August and caused much destitution and suffering.

The amount still due on the Bishop's Residence is thirteen hundren dollars It is very desirable that this claim should be extinguished as soon as possible. A debt hanging over a Diocese for some time, although small, is very discouraging, and often defeats important undertakings which would otherwise be entered into with a vim, insuring their accomplishment.

APPENDIX A—IV—1.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 31, 1896.

For the information of the Convention at its annual session, the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund herewith submit the accompanying report of its Treasurer for the past year.

The report gives a correct and itemized list of the securities in which the Episcopal Fund is invested to this date, and the sum total of its entire assets at the par value of its several items, as shown by a recent examination of them by the Finance Committee of the Board, the Bishop of the Diocese presiding over the meeting of said Committee.

The property referred to in the report of the Trustees May 31, 1895, as having been sold at public sale and bought in for the Fund, is still held subject to litigation, and there has been very little income from it, while the taxes and expenses incident to protecting the Fund's interest in it had to be met. This fact, together with inability to collect interest on two other pieces of property, must account for the decrease in the receipts of the Fund for the year ending May 31, 1896.

We recommend a continuance of the Parochial Assessment of 1891 to meet necessary expenses incurred.

GEO. R. GOLDSBOROUGH,

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN ON THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND.

JUNE, 1896.

In presenting our twenty-sixth annual report to this Convention we find that while we have had reverses, we have also had many mercies vouchsafed us.

The children have been blessed with good health and are as fine a set of little ones as can be found anywhere. We have received two from Kent county, two from Queen Anne's and two from Dorchester. One girl has been placed at a home in Talbot county, and another was sent to a lady in Wicomico county. The present number of inmates is eighteen. One child, who was lame when she came to us, is now under treatment at the Church Home and Infirmary in Baltimore. In August, through the kindness of a lady in Pocomoke City, the children were given a trip to Ocean City.

In October the "Home" met with an irreparable loss in the death of the Vice President, Mrs. D. C. Dawson. She had been identified with the work from its inception, being one of the incorporators and of the original Board of Managers. She had always the best interests of the "Home" and was untiring in energy, fearless in defense of right and willing to spend and be spent in the Master's service.

In January the Matron, Miss Mason, resigned to take a similar position elsewhere, and Miss Katherine Dryden was appointed to fill her place.

A new range has been put in the kitchen and hot water carried into the bathroom. Also matting was provided for the floors of the schoolroom, the two dormitories and the two front halls. These improvements will add much to the comfort of the inmates.

We would again mention the kindness of those who, at Christmas and Easter, remember our little ones and do so much for their pleasure. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Woman's Auxiliary of North Elk Parish have not wearied in well doing, in supporting a child; while the Diocese at large responded with the usual liberality to the Thanksgiving appeal. We especially note the timely donation from the Needlework Guild of North Sassafras Parish.

Attention should be drawn to the fact that owing to the resignation of Miss Dawson as Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. G. E. Haddaway has been elected to that office, and all communications should be addressed accordingly.

Subjoined is a list of donations received and of Parishes in which a child is clothed.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. E. ADAMS, President.

JOSIE P. DAWSON, Retiring Corresponding Secretary.

A petition to the Convention of the Diocese of Easton, meeting in Cambridge, Md., in the month of June, 1897, from the Vestry of East New Market Parish in regard to the Parochial Assessments:

In view of the fact that the amount at which this parish is at present assessed was fixed when the parish was more prosperous than now, and in view of the fact that the parish is now in a somewhat depressed condition, owing to deaths and removals, and because of the financial depression of the times;

We, the Vestry of the East New Market Parish, do hereby respectfully petition the Convention of the Diocese of Easton that the amount at which our parish is assessed for Convention expenses be reduced from $20 to $10. This will make a reduction in our Parochial Assessments from $35 to $25.

WM. P. BECKWITH,
ISAAC H. WRIGHT,
FRED. WRIGHT.

On motion, the Petition was referred to the Committee on Parochial Assessments.

The Rev. William Schouler offered the following Preamble and Resolutions:

WHEREAS, The pernicious evil of Race Track Gambling has, within recent date, obtained a foothold within the bounds of the State of Maryland, and of our own Diocese of Easton; with the result of steady demoralization to the community and neighborhood that has become the scene of its operations, and the fostering of the gambling spirit within and beyond the borders of our State; therefore be it.

Reselved, That, as the Church's Representative Body in the Diocese of Easton, we do hereby record our emphatic condemnation of the sin and evil which so seriously menaces the progress of Christ's Kingdom among us.

Resolved, further, That we urge upon the members of our Church throughout the Diocese to let their influence and efforts tell to the utmost in the directing of public sentiment against the evil that seeks to establish itself upon our soil, and in the prompt securing of such effective legislation as will render its continuance impossible.

The Rev. Mr. Batte moved to lay the whole matter upon the table, which motion was lost. After considerable discussion the Preamble and Resolutions were adopted.

The Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell invited the Convention to hold its next Annual Session in St. Paul's Church, Centreville, and on motion the invitation was accepted.

The hour of 5.30 having arrived, the Convention took a recess till 8 o'clock.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1ST, 8 O'CLOCK P. M.

The Bishop of the Diocese having opened the session with Prayer, read his Annual Address.

ADDRESS OF THE BISHOP.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:—

Meeting here, in this parish and Church, after the passage of nine years, it is not possible to forget the presence of one, who for an ordinary life time served it so well and served it so faithfully. The Rev. Dr. Barber was then among us, strong and well, sound in judgment, able and wise in counsel, an efficient help to us, in all of our deliberations and plans. He carried the hopeful and enthusiastic spirit of youth into old age, and lent its power to the encouragement of every churchly endeavor; nor yet is it possible to fail in giving thanks to God for His divine aid and guidance in so well providing for the continuance of a work so nobly planned, and so laboriously prosecuted, through a long tract of years. I do not say—to fill his place. None of us can instantly and at once fill the places of the faithful dead. The memory of countless tender ministries to the poor and needy, to the weeping and disconsolate, to the burdened and heavy laden, these are the slow and steady growth of years and service, and cannot be transmitted to a successor. They constitute the accumulated riches of a good man's life, which he cannot by devise, or testament of any kind, bequeath to those who come after; for by a Divine decree they are predestined to follow him.

These thoughts are near of kin to the duties, the purposes, and the privileges of this hour. They bind us closer together, and to the inspiring doctrine of a chief article of our creed, the Communion of Saints. They offer to our contemplation a noble example, and the stimulus of a rich reward. They force upon our minds the thought of giving an account—of a final report, which shall embrace, not only what we have done, but also what we have left undone.

Since your arrival in this parish you have all doubtless heard that Great Choptank has added, by the zeal and devotion of rector and people, a handsome and useful addition to its already fine property, a Parish House, suitable for a Sunday school and other work.

I am not aware of any other considerable changes of this kind which have been made in our churches during the past year, excepting the purchase of a fine organ by Worcester parish. Dorchester, Old Church Creek building, was thought to be in danger of falling down, and the fact having been announced by the Rev. Dr. Bryan, I received a check for one hundred and fifty dollars from Mrs. Wm. F. Cochran, of New York. This I thankfully acknowledged and endorsed over to Dr. Bryan.

In this connection, I desire also to put on record, the receipt of forty dollars, from a lady in Washington, whose name I am not permitted to give; it is known and written elsewhere. She wrote to me that it was for the Eastern Shore, and for the Diocese, and to be used, as I deemed best; that it was the hard savings of two long years. The spirit of self sacrifice is not dead yet. I gave five dollars to a parish, towards paying a debt twenty to the Board of Missions of the Diocese; fifteen to one of my brethren of the clergy, to pay for a bad swap, for an old horse.

We have lost from the working staff of our clergy, the Rev. Mr. Ockford, transferred to Connecticut, and the Rev. Mr. Vandyne from Pocomoke, not yet transferred. The Rev. Mr. Scott, although cononically has not been actually resident for some years, he has been transferred since our last convention. We have received the Rev. Mr. Kimball, now rector of St. Luke's, Church Hill; the Rev. Mr. Benedict, Somerset Parish, and the Rev. Mr. Rich, St. James, Port Deposit. The good people of Port Deposit are now fully resolved to have a place and habitation for their young rector. It will be a very important addition to their work, and a decided improvement upon the renting system; moreover it tends to secure a permanent rectorship of the right sort.

I found the congregation of St. James very much encouraged, and hopetul of the future under the zealous labors o. the Rev. Mr. Rich.

The same may be said of St. Luke's. Church Hill, in which parish I confirmed sixteen candidates. Somerset, semper eadem—steady, well drilled and in marching order, leaves little for its new and able rector, either to revive or to reform.

There is reason to believe that, we shall soon be able to fill the parishes still vacant—Pocomoke, St. Michaels, East New Market, Vienna. Several of them have recently extended calls.

I attended an interesting Benediction Service in our restored church in Elkton on the 10th of November last. The Rector, the Rev. Mr. Schouler, had quite a number of clergy present, and the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, son of a former Rector, preached an able and interesting sermon, reviewing somewhat the history of the parish.

The Rev. Mr. Schouler has, as you all know, a growing work, six miles north of Elkton—St. Andrews Memorial—in which he informs me, he receives very inportant help from Mr. Geo. A. Steele, and the Rev. Mr. Sawyer of Newark, Del.

My time during the past year has been spent—pretty much all of it—in giving services to our vacant parishes. The only interruption has been while I was on visitations of the diocese, and the couple of weeks I gave to the diocese of our Presiding Bishop. I have been in Easton but two Sundays—one while confirming in the churches, and one nursing a cold.

Our confirmations have fallen short in numbers during the last year. Vacant parishes will, to some extent, account for this. We may also add, large classes last year in several of our parishes. Few of them receive an increase of population from year to year, and from many of them there is a steady loss by removal. The fact is too apparent to escape the most casual observation, that while we are steadily increasing the numbers of our membership, and adding to the strength of the Church, they are with an almost equal pace going away from us. We are working against and not with the tide. But if the gain does not appear here it does elsewhere. Our work and ministry is not merely for temporal regions and localities, it is upon immortal spirits, for the ages to come, for another and unchanging world. Let us not then, dear brethren, be discouraged by this apparently unpropitious condition. Some must needs do this work. Some fill this place. Let it be ours to make the very best of the situation in which we are placed; exercising the same energy, activity and living devotion, in our holy calling, as we see continually practiced by men in the business walks of life. When there are life, and spirit and enthusiasm in the leader, they will inevitably kindle the same spirit in the people. When a congregation sees its minister alive to every favorable opportunity, looking out for and seizing it as soon as it emerges into sight, they too will be vigilant to watch and prompt to act with and for him; but lassitude, dejection and the whispered mutterings of a half-concealed despair are a very millstone around the neck of a parish. If so be we should become at any time discouraged, and who does not, let us keep it to ourselves. Make God only our confidant and next Friend—Who is alone, in trials so many, our only efficient help and stay.

I would like to consult my brethren of the Clergy and Laity in regard to the propriety of a change in the canon constituting the Missionary Board of the Diocese. Business of importance frequently arises, during the year, which renders necessary some action of the Board. There is no provision made for paying their travelling and other expenses. Some of them live about as far from Easton as they well can, to be in the diocese at all. I have hesitated to call them together, knowing how ill they are able to stand the expense. My custom has been, there-e, to write to them, as fully as possible, asking their consent, judgment, as the case might be. But these collected individ- l judgments do not really constitute a judgment of the Board. is a bad way of attending to business. The Board, as you ow, is made up of the Deans of our Convocations, and two ymen elected annually by this Convention. It has occurred me to consult with you in regard to the propriety of electing nually the whole Board, clerical as well as lay, and choosing e clerical members, or a majority of them, from parishes near ston, so that I may without much expense, or inconvenience them, secure a meeting.

I am sure that my brethren, the Deans of Convocations, will t for a moment think that this suggestion is made because of y dissatisfaction with them. We have always worked togeth- , too amicably for such a thought to arise.

In respect to the pledges that are made by parishes for the pport of our missions, my brethren will, I am sure, appreciate e difficulty, to put it mildly, in which the Board is placed, hen they, by canon, order them to pay quarterly, while they emselves, in many notable instances, reserve the right of pay- g annually. To make quarterly payments the Board must eds have quarterly receipts.

Your attention has been called already to a plan proposed by e Missionary Council of the Church, holden in Pittsburgh— etty much our own plan—acting upon dioceses, as our's upon rishes. We are asked to consider it at this session of our nvention. It is business-like, and if adopted and held to, l, I confidently believe, enable the General Board to escape ny serious and humiliating embarrassments, such as it has fered in past years.

CONVOCATIONS.

am informed by the Deans of our Convocations that their vices have been well attended, and the interest of the congre- ions has apparently increased from the beginning to the end heir meetings. In many instances, I can personally vouch for s fact inasmuch as it is my custom to attend, as many of them possible. It is the only opportunity given me to hear the rgy of the Diocese. The plan recently adopted by the Middle nvocation at East New Market will probably commend itself to others. The clergy wisely divided their forces, taking in Vienna, at the same time with East New Market, and so giving two congregations the benefit of their ministrations. Instead of some of our brethren waiting the very day and hour of their addresses, they might assemble at the time appointed for all to meet, and give to some adjacent parish the benefit of their services. By this means we should easily double the usefulness of our Convocations. I am told that, in former years, your custom was to give each speaker, 15 minutes, when a number of addresses were expected, and the time having expired, a bell was rung. I would suggest, with all due respect, that the custom be revived. It would be most grateful to those of the clergy who are appointed to make the closing addresses, to say nothing of the congregations.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

The gentlemen who are brought in contact with our General Assembly, inform me that, there is an increasing disinclination to make appropriations toward the support of charitable Institutions. In times of ease and comfort prudent men look out and prepare for an ill turn in the wheel of fortune. The question is forced upon us, what should we do provided State aid were withdrawn from the support of the Children's Home? What we are now doing, to help the ladies of the Board, is a question easily answered; but it is not difficult to determine the proportion it bears to the legitimate and necessary expenses of the Institution. The help received from the Diocese, in money and in provisions does not reach to one third of the outlay.

These facts are not now presented mainly and primarily for the purpose of urging you to give more; but they are presented for the purpose of begging you to prepare the way for what many believe to be a probable emergency, by making the people acquainted with the Home, with the necessity of it—with what it has done in the past, and with what it is now doing. I am asked questions all over the Diocese about its condition and working, which show that something is yet wanting, which we, of the Clergy, must supply, ere we become ready to lend the help, that may be required. We must make it known to our people, and endeaver to enlist their interest. I trust my brethren of the clergy will kindly consider the importance of this subject,

It affords me unspeakable satisfaction to be able to inform you that a movement is already begun, and with most flattering prospect of complete success, to unite, by consolidation into one Cathedral organization, our whole church people and church work in the town of Easton. The Church in Easton is strong in numbers, in character and in influence. It has an inherited and traditional strength. It has an able, faithful and efficient ministry, a responsive, zealous and intelligent laity to support and encourage them; but what, most apparently, it has not, is the ability to collect and concentrate its strength and influence in one cordial undivided effort in support of any conceivable measure, or the attainment of any conceivable result. For now, approaching ten years, to my certain knowledge, it has been like a strong man working in irons. It has worked indeed, and worked well, but not in any fair proportion to its inherent and unimpaired power. The reason is apparent. The existence of two distinct and independent organizations of the Church, in a little town of three or four thousand inhabitants, cannot be maintained without causing perpetual and painful friction. As human nature now is, after making the best of it, the consequence seems inevitable and unavoidable. It is what the Church in Easton has realized to the full, from year to year. I have seen and keenly felt the evil for a long time. No one subject connected with the interest and welfare of the Diocese has engaged so much of my thought; from none have I derived so little satisfaction, and until now I have said and done nothing. I am sure my brethren will appreciate both my silence and my inaction. Grieving in secret, and upon my knees, over a Divine Instrument chained and riveted to weakness, to comparative incompetency, to a dissevered but still bleeding bond, I yet shrunk instinctively from word or act, which should seem constructively to challenge the wisdom of the Rector and gentlemen of Christ Church Vestry in consenting, the wisdom of this able body in legislating, and the wisdom of my revered predecessor in asking, for the erection of a separate organization in the town of Easton. In a word, I was loath to lay a rude, obliterating hand upon the footprints of the dead, or ever so little shake the foundations of the living.

It at last came to my mind that the evils which so distressed and weakened us might be removed, still maintaining, unimpaired, our reverence and high regard for those who have preceeded us. I called immediately on my brother, the Rector of Christ Church, laid the condition of the church before him and proposed the means of remedying it. I found him in full accord with me in regard to its present unsatisfactory state, and favorably inclined to the proposition I made. Our next thought was, how the subject should be brought forward; and after some consideration I asked him to call a full meeting of his vestry, and I would lay the matter before them. This he did, and introduced the subject in an able, clear and feeling address. I then, as briefly as possible, sketched the deplorable disabilities by which we were weakened because of our division and the utter hopelessness of looking for any improvement until our people were again one in heart and mind, having but one interest to conserve and to transmit. As earnestly, and as forcibly as I could, I gave them to understand that upon them and upon the trustees of Trinity Cathedral depended, under God—not simply and merely the temporal, but also the spiritual welfare, the peace, the happiness and the future growth of the Church in Easton. The Clergy, ever so faithful, can do nothing alone—the Convention can do nothing alone, it was for them to say whether we shall forever struggle against remediable evils or, removing them, shall enter upon a new, happier and more hopeful life. It was not needful than I should speak to these gentlemen concerning the state at present existing; they realized and deplored it. I told them that I had no personal interest in the matter, that all I wanted was one organization under one and the same clerical and lay government; that, so far as I was concerned, my time and service would be, by necessity, as much detached from it as they are now from Trinity Cathedral. To this appeal, that we should again be thoroughly and utterly one, there was not one dissenting voice. Never have I witnessed a more kindly, christian spirit among men. They seemed to realize the responsibility that rested upon them, and they met it promptly and nobly. And if this plan is carried out, of which I have no doubt, not only the church in Easton, but the whole Diocese will owe a debt of lasting gratitude to the Rector and gentlemen of Christ Church, Easton.

Having received the consent of the Rector and Vestry of Christ Church to one Cathedral organization in St. Peter's Parish, embracing our whole work, I requested the Rev. Dr. Sutton to call a meeting of the Trustees of the Cathedral. They met and I laid the proposition before them. The Rev. Dr. Sutton, in some pertinent remarks, gave it his emphatic and unqualified approval. The gentlemen of the Board, after fully understanding it, not only gave their consent, but expressed the opinion that it would result in great blessing to our work in Easton. Neither were they backward in bearing testimony to the christian spirit exhibited by the Rector and Vestry of Christ Church.

The principle upon which our ecclesiastical legislation is founded, commits the temporalities of the Church mainly to the laity: the spiritualities to the clergy. But it not unfrequently occurs that emergencies arise involving both interests, and the spiritual interest depends, under God, wholly and entirely upon the action of our christian laymen. We have one such at present, and the appeal, which has been made to them, has not been made in vain. He whose guiding providence placed them in the responsible position which they occupy, has not left them to bear it alone.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

Since our last meeting together in Convention, two of our clergy have been transferred. The Rev. Robert Scott, who though canonically resident, had not been actually so for more than a year, was transferred to Albany. The Rev. Thos. S. Ockford was transferred to Connecticut.

CLERGY RECEIVED.

We have received into the Diocese during the past year the Rev. W. W. Kimball. The Rev. Edward Benedict and the Rev. Alex. M. Rich. The first by Letters Dimissory from the Diocese of Georgia, dated July 25, 1896. The second Letters Dimissory from North Carolina, dated November 13, 1896. The third by Letters Dimissory from Washington, D. C., dated February 18th, 1897.

I am sorry to inform you that the Rev. Charles H. Vandyne, one of our most faithful and able priests, has been obliged, because of failing health, to resign Pocomoke Parish. His removal is a great loss both to the Parish and the Diocese.

The Bishop having concluded his address, the Secretary read the Report of the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions, after which the Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell presented the

and moved the accompanying resolution.

The Board of Diocesan Missions would respectfully report: At the last meeting of our Convention the sum of $1,100 was pledged by twenty two parishes, with fourteen parishes unpledged to be heard from. In the course of the year just passed there was received by the Treasurer, $2,282.77. With this sum, and $1,000 received from the Board of General Missions, your Board has provided for the wants of some fourteen parishes. There remains in hand a balance of $[illegible] 31

The importance of this Mission fund cannot be too strongly emphasized. And we may do well to remember that upon it depends the ability of all these parishes aided thereby to support their Rectors and provide the privileges of the Church for their people. In connection with it might be well to consider means or methods of securing for a number of years, indeed since the organization of [illegible] the Diocese, most of our parishes have secured contributions by pledges or subscriptions collected quarterly by envelope [illegible] the Diocesan Treasurer. Year before last the Bishop [illegible] his address to the Convention the appointment of [illegible] ladies to secure and collect monthly contributions issions; the idea being that a contribution paid in small monthly stalments was more easily paid, and enabled a greater number to ›come contributors to Missions. The suggestion was acted upon ƒ several rectors, and the result was satisfactory.

One rector, during the past year, has adopted a plan which com-ends itself for its simplicity. He issued cards upon which pledges ere made for Missions, inclusive of General and Diocesan. Upon ›ceipt of these pledges he sent 12 envelopes to the subscribers to be ut upon the plate every second Sunday in the month. The result, › far as past offerings in his parish were concerned, was an increase ı their contributions to both General and Diocesan Missions. The ıerit of this plan is its simplicity—securing by one pledge offerings o meet the claims of the General Church, as well as those of our wn Diocese. It is possible that other clergymen present can report nethods equally worthy of mention. The purpose of your Board is o suggest in these methods what may be of value to others. For ve do not insist that any one method is equally adapted to every ıarish; nor will one plan which may have succeeded for a time, be-ause good, continue to be successful always. The suggestion of ›ur Bishop two years ago, and these new methods which are tried, s an indication that the old methods, however good, do not con-inue to bring the best results; and therefore the necessity of some ıew way of enlisting the interest of our people in this important work. It is true of any place, that very much depends upon the interest and effort of the Rector of the Parish. But that is especial-ly of practical value which brings into play the active participation of our laymen and women in the work of securing as well as giving to the mission fund. If we can get the laymen of the Church to re-alize the value of this personal activity in securing funds as well as giving to meet the wants of the Church, we have done much towards our missionary work. There is often a very heavy burden laid upon the parochial clergy in securing the money needed for the various funds which become due at the meeting of the Annual Convention. We are often compelled, as it were, to serve tables, when we should give ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the Word.

Your Board would also urge upon the Convention the importance of the parishes pledging specific amounts for Missions. We have al-ready stated that while there were twenty-two parishes which made pledges for the year at last Convention, there were fourteen which for various reasons were unprepared to say what they could give. Now, the purpose in asking for these pledges is to know upon what we can depend for the ensuing year, and while the unpledged parish may give just as much as some of those that have stated what they can give, the Board, in meeting after Convention, must depend upon what has been pledged as its working basis. Thus, if, as at last Convention, only $1100 are pledged for the year, this is all we can safely depend upon in pledging ourselves to pay the stipends of the clergy in the parishes aided by this fund. As a matter of fact, o apportionment of these stipends has been regulated always by t amounts pledged at the Convention, and in the past year we ha felt obliged to confine our apportionment to the $1100 pledged. W would also add that the balance remaining over each year is used pay the stipends of the clergy for the first quarter of the twel months succeeding the Convention. We would therefore urge aga the great importance of these pledges, and would offer the fol resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary call the roll of the parishes and a for pledges for the ensuing twelve months.

We know that members of the present Board are of this opinion and are willing and anxious to retire in favor of ladies resident in the other counties. There is another inconvenience inherent in the present system, to wit, lack of information as to the suitability of children applying for admission to the Home, and of persons seeking to obtain children from the Home. This would be remedied by the distribution of the Board over the whole Diocese. Of course it is necessary that a sufficient number of the members of the Board should be resident in Easton to form an executive committee for the transaction of routine business, and with such a provision we see no inconvenience in the remoteness of the other members, inasmuch as they would not need to meet very frequently, and at their meetings would lay out plans of operation to be carried into effect by the executive committee and the matron. There are many other reasons which recommend this plan to your Committee, but they are unwilling to weary the Convention by a recital of them, and content themselves with offering the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in electing the Board of Managers of the Home for Friendless Children on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the Convention distribute the membership as follows: 5 for the town of Easton, 2 for Caroline county, 1 for Cecil county, 1 for Dorchester county, 1 for Kent county, 2 for Queen Anne's county, 1 for Somerset county, 2 for Talbot county, outside of Easton, 1 for Wicomico county, 1 for Worcester county; 17 in all.

Resolved, That the Clergy from each county nominate to the Convention the member or members for their respective counties.

STEPHEN J. MORGAN.

The Rev. Albert Ware presented the Report of the Committee on the Request of the Missionary Council, and moved the adoption of the resolutions appended thereto.

The Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address treating of the recommendation of the Missionary Council to the several churches, urging a voluntary assessment of each Diocese for the maintenance of the work of the General Missionary Board of the Church, beg leave to report that, after examination, they feel safe in recommending that, as a minimum, the Diocese should pledge the amount of $750; therefore,

Resolved, That the Diocese of Easton pledge $750.00 per annum for the support of the General Missionary work of the Church, and

Resolved, further, That the parochial collections in this behalf be all forwarded to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Mission Fund, and transmitted thence to the General Board.

ALBERT WARE,
SAMUEL EDSON,
A. J. VANDERBOGART.

The Rev. Mr. Schouler moved to re-commit the Report, with instructions to the Committee to change the phraseology of the first resolution.

Resolved, That the General Board of Missions may reasonably rely upon the Diocese of Easton for the amount of eight hundred dollars for the support of General Missions.

The amendment was accepted by the committee, who withdrew the second or concluding resolution, and the report of the committee, as amended, was adopted.

The following telegram was read by the Secretary, and he was instructed to send a suitable reply:

DOVER, DEL., June 2, '97.

To the Rt. Rev. W. F. Adams, D, D.: The Convention of the Diocese of Delaware send affectionate greetings of good will to the Diocese of Easton.

The Rev. T. C. Page offered the following:

It being a matter of importance, in the estimation of this Convention, that the children of the Church in this Diocese should be taught what their Diocese is, in its territory, history, organization and relation, not only to the individual parish, but to the Church at large, and that they should be led to take an active interest in their Diocese, and its peculiar work, and to assume more and more, with increasing age, their responsibilities as members of the Diocese; and since further, the children have it in their power, by systematic offerings, to relieve in a great measure the burdens of the Board of Diocesan Missions, be it

Resolved, By this Convention assembled in Cambridge, June, 1897, That it recommends to the Rectors and Sunday School Superintendents of this Diocese, the Advent Season as an appropriate time for instructing the pupils of the Sunday Schools in all diocesan matters as far as practicable, especially in the missionary work of the Dio-

Report of the Committee on Canons:

e Committee on Canons, to whom were referred certain proposıendments to Canon XIII. beg leave to report that, in their nent, such change would be inexpedient; for the reason that resent designation of the presiding officer of each Convocation e from objection, bearing some correspondence to that of Rural in the Mother Church; that, indeed, it would seem to accord aptly with the limited functions exercised by our Diocesan als than that of Archdeacon, pointing to certain powers of sup-ion or visitation, for which our Canons make no provision.

ey would also suggest the inquiry whether the designation of ırchdeaconries according to locality might not invoke compli-n, in view of variations in the relative strength and importance ırishes that might, not unlikely, occur from time to time.

the whole, it appears to your Committee that no substantial

This year has brought to a happy completion the parish house so much needed and desired. This building completes the church almost as originally designed, and has been made as a memorial to the late Rector, Rev. T. P. Barber, D. D., through whose labors the church was built. The library of Dr. Barber has been presented to the parish by his widow, and now has a place in the parish house, where all, especially the Sunday. School teachers, have access to many valuable helps.

For the use of the Christ Church Sunday School, there has been presented a brass altar cross by Mrs. Senator Joseph H. Johnson as a memorial to an infant son. The cross bears the following inscription: "Manning Johnson. Born August 11, 1891, died July 11, 1892."

I take pleasure in saying that all the organizations of the parish, the Ladies' Aid, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Daughters of the King and the Sunday School, have made handsome contributions to the Barber memorial, that of the Sunday School alone is noted in the financial report.

The care of St. James Chapel has been with Rev. Jas. L. Bryan, M. D., who has succeeded remarkably well with his ministrations there. He has given much valuable assistance in Christ Church.

DORCHESTER PARISH, CHURCH CREEK.

RECTOR—The Rev. Jas. L. Bryan, M. D.
WARDENS—H. P. Spilman, George S. Martin.
VESTRYMEN—N. M. Bosley, W. Edward Edmondson, Thos. K. Carroll, M. D., Charles Carroll, Geo. S. Martin, Washington A. Smith, M. D., S. C. Travers.

Trinity Church, sittings 100, value $1000; Grace Church, sittings 150, value $2500, insured for $1000.

During the past year, there have been no services at Trinity Church, Church Creek, on account of the dangerous condition of the north wall. At Grace Church, Taylor's Island, there has been no interruption of the regular service.

This report of the present condition of the Parish, once self supporting, is not due to neglect on the part of the community or the Clergy. It is owing, in great measure, to the altered condition of the people residing within its bounds. Thirty five years ago, the communicants and other members and friends of the church were in easy circumstances, able to support a resident minister and contribute to the work of the Church beyond its own limits. It is not so now. The losses sustained in consequence of the civil war, have changed the condition of the entire population, hence it happens, that the services of the Church cannot be conducted as formerly and the absence of a resident Clergyman is shown in the small results of work done gladly, but almost hopelessly by the Rector. There is however some improvement this year and if it should continue, encouraging results may follow.

The closing of old Trinity Church, near Church Creek was owing to the dangerous condition of the north wall. That we have been able to restore the wall to its old time strength, is due to the efforts of our beloved Diocesan. Without his assistance, the work could not have been done and the oldest Church in Maryland is thus saved again for continued service to the glory of God and in the saving of souls.

EAST NEW MARKET PARISH, EAST NEW MARKET.

Church Property.—St. Stephen's Church, sittings 120, value $2,000; insured for $1,500.

We have been without a Rector since June, 1895. During the interval we have called several clergymen suited to the work, but unfortunately they have rejected our invitation. Our church is ready for consecration. The Parish Society deserves much credit for their continuance in good works under very trying and discouraging conditions and circumstances, for during the year they have gathered an Organ Fund of $107 in addition to a reserve fund for necessary expenses. The Sunday School has very much increased and improved, and under the care of a judicious Rector would far surpass our fondest expectations. Now is the opportunity for the P. E. Church to make her influence felt in this field; the time is ripe, and with a suitable Rector who will undertake the work, (of course salary is small,) success, we think, will follow his efforts and labors.

WM. P. BECKWITH, Registrar.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Junior Auxiliary have been doing a good work for the interest of the Diocese and the Church at large, and the Mite Society, Dorcas Society, Friendly and Girl's Friendly Society have been working faithfully and systematically for the improvement of the Parish Church, and accomplishing a most important work in relieving the necessities and elevating those within the range of their influence in the Parish. The Rector's salary is dependent upon the revenue from the Church farms and not upon the people. Unfortunately for us the revenue fell short about $500 in 1896, from what it war in 1895. The work on the island is purely missionary work, but I am glad to say it presents a more healthy growth now than it has for a long time.

At the time of my last report I had been in charge only for a short time, so adopted the number of communicants given by my predecessor. Since then I have made a thorough canvass of the parish and could find but forty-two.

The vestry continue their interest in and faithful service to the parish, which is a great comfort to the Rector.

The Daughters of the King, the only parish organization, make up in zeal for what is lacking in opportunity for more enlarged usefulness.

Some of the possibilities mentioned in my last have been realized.

The old and historic Church of Whitemarsh was destroyed by fire on January 12th. Nothing but bare walls remain. The last service was held in this Church in August last. We have kept the grounds cleaned, and have a small fund, only $14.00, to repair this waste place. Surely, the friends of the departed who rest there will respond to our appeal. We would mark this site, repair the records now but faintly discernible on the slabs above sacred dust. We rejoice in having paid all but $270 of the debt on the Church at Oxford. Two good working societies, increased offerings and attendance upon the services. A larger communion list and brotherly love have been our grateful experienc during the year. We contemplate building a parish house at Trappe, and opening a parish library. The extra service on Sunday nights at Trappe has strengthened us.

A new Lecturn, Bible, and a complete outfit of new Prayer Books and Hymnals have been supplied.

The Rector desires to put on record his profound gratitude to Almighty God for the complete restoration of his health, and also his appreciation of the sympathy and forbearance of the people during his illness. He regrets that the danger of a return of the malady will necessitate his removal farther away from the coast.

During the year the parish has sustained a great loss in the death of one of its most devout and devoted workers. Mrs. J. J. Hurlock was called away to her heavenly rest, after several months of patient suffering. The Lord's will be done.

The Treasurer begs to report to the Convention that the Trust Funds in his hands consists of $504.55 held in Trust for St. John's Parish, and $100 known as the Bailey Trust.

The first sum was invested by the predecessor of the present Treasurer in a mortgage of the property of George C. Shehan situated in the town of Easton, Talbot county, and which mortgage has not yet matured. The other sum was invested by the former Treasurer in a note, which note was paid March 6th, 1897, with interest amounting to $8.00. This sum is now deposited in the Savings Bank department of the Workingmen's Permanent Building & Loan Association of Talbot Co., and draws interest from the first of June at 3 per cent. Not having been able to find a satisfactory investment for so small a sum, the treasurer thought it best to deposit it temporarily at a low rate of interest until some good investment could be found.

WM. H. ADKINS, Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

TO THE CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF EASTON.—GENTLEMEN:—Your Treasurer in making his first report as Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund begs to submit that he received from his predecessor the sum of Forty Thousand, Eight Hundred and Fifteen Dollars ($40815.00), being the corpus of the fund, invested as follows:

In mortgages, (the Minnick property being valued at $3000), Twenty-Three Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars ($23500); stocks and bonds, Fifteen Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifteen Dollars ($15215.00); notes, Twenty-One Hundred Dollars ($2100.00). He also received the sum of Fifty-Seven Dollars and Sixty-Nine Cents ($57.69) on account of interest paid in and not disbursed by former Treasurer.

During the year the Bell mortgage, on which no interest had been paid for two years, has been foreclosed and the Convention compelled to buy the property, which is much to be regretted. Your Treasurer, however, has strong hope that he may sell this property in the near future for an amount sufficient to pay the original loan with the accumulated interest. It would be well for the Convention to pass a resolution authorizing the sale of this property, as also the Minnick property, so that no objection could be raised by a purchaser as to the authority to sell.

One mortgage and one note each for One Thousand Dollars have been paid off, and one bond for same sum, which was asked to be funded at a low rate of interest, sold for a premium, which has increased the corpus of the fund a small amount, and the moneys arising therefrom re-invested by the Treasurer, by authority of the Trustees.

The investments now stand, in mortgages, Twenty-One Thousand and Four Hundred Dollars ($21400.00); stocks and bonds, Fourteen Thousand, Two Hundred and Fifteen Dollars ($14215.00); note, One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00); Minnick property, Three Thousand Dollars ($3000.00); Bell farm, One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00); cash in Bank for investment, Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), making total of Forty Thousand, Nine Hundred and Fifteen Dollars ($40,915.00), an increase of One Hundred Dollars. Of this fund the Bell farm and Minnick property are almost unproductive and the Easton Gas and Electric Light stock entirely so, and no market value, so that a sale of it is impossible.

Your Treasurer has collected, including the amount received from him from former Treasurer, Fifty-Seven Dollars and Sixty-Nine Cents ($57.69), the sum of Two Thousand, Eight Hundred and Ei[illegible] Dollars and Twenty-Eight Cents ($2808.28), and has disbursed same as per itemized account below.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund on the 29th day of May inst. met and examined and approved the accounts herewith submitted, and personally inspected the securities herein reported to be held by your Treasurer.

APPENDIX C—I.

TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN ON THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND.

EASTON, MD., June 1, 1897.

We herewith submit to the Diocesan Convention the Twenty-Seventh Annual Report of the Board of Managers of the Home for Friendless Children on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Since the last Annual Report seven children have been received into the Home. Of these, two came from Cambridge, two from Snow Hill, two from Perryville, Cecil county, and one from Talbot county.

One girl, seventeen years old, has been placed in a home in Talbot county. One nine years old has been sent to the Maryland Asylum and Training School for the Feeble-Minded at Owing's Mills, Md. In the last report (June 1896) it is stated: "One child who was lame when she came to us, is now under treatment at the Church Home and infirmary, Baltimore." This child has been removed from the Church Home and sent to her father, as her treatment there was of no benefit, and she became more helpless as she grew older. The present number of inmates is twenty-two.

The health of the children has been excellent during the year.

The continued kindness of the many friends of the institution has enabled the Board of Managers to make the Home more home-like and comfortable. The Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary at Port Deposit has undertaken to clothe a child, and the Daughters of the King, Cambridge, who have already been clothing one child, have undertaken to clothe another. One day during the past summer the children of the Home had an outing to the seashore at Synepuxent Beach.

The Report of the Treasurer will show in detail the receipts and expenditures of the Home for the current year.

Acknowledgement is made, and a list is appended hereunto, of the various donations made to the Home by individuals, Parishes and from other sources.

ANNIE R. HADDAWAY, Corresponding Secretary.

A BRIEF PASTORAL TO ACCOMPANY THE JOURNAL.

Be we careful to remember that all mortal men are subject to many sudden perils, diseases and sickness, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life.

To the intent that we may always be in readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call us, we must often receive the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ.

Moreover, every just man should be careful while he is in health to make his Will and to declare his Debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience and the quietness of his executors. Such persons as are of ability should be liberal to the poor.

Legacies may be left to the various charities and religious undertakings of the Diocese by the names and designations given herewith.

1. "I give to the CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF EASTON," the sum of dollars for

5. In case of the absense of the Bishop, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, the person who called the Convention to order shall announce that there is a quorum present. The Convention shall then proceed to elect a President, according to the seventh Article of the Constitution; who shall, so soon as his election is completed, take the chair and declare that the Convention is organized and ready for business.

Every act which divides a Parish or in any way affects Parish boundaries, shall distinctly set out the new boundaries which it is intended to establish. The Convention will not act upon proposed Resolutions, Acts or Canons which are not conformed to the provisions of this rule.

21. All elections shall be by ballot, unless otherwise ordered; the votes of the Clergy and Laity shall be received and counted separately, but the vote shall be regarded as a joint one; and the election shall be decided by a majority of the whole number of votes taken together, unless a vote by Orders shall have been required, agreeable to the fifth Article of the Constitution.

The Rev. L. B. Baldwin read the

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Easton.

The Registrar respectfully reports that he has received the usual number of Journals of Diocesan Conventions and placed the same on file, also that he has received from the Secretary of this Convention four duplicate copies of Journals of the General Convention for the years 1811, 1814, 1821, and 1826.

By the courtesy of the publisher of "Church Affairs," Mr. Wilson M. Tylor, Miss M. Eugenia Nicols kindly supplying a few missing links, a complete file of the Diocesan paper, "Church Affairs," from its first issue down to the time of its present editorial management, has been secured for the Registrar's Collections.

The Registrar renews his request for assistance in completing our set of the Journals of the mother Diocese of Maryland. To continue the series in unbroken order to the present time, there is wanted a copy of the Journal for 1877, and for each year since 1883. The Registrar would consider himself officially culpable if he did not try to correct the interrupted sequence in this chain of historical documents.

Respectfully submitted,

LEONIDAS B. BALDWIN,
Registrar.

The following Reports were read and referred to the Committee on Accounts:

The Report of the Treasurer of the Clergy Relief Fund. (See Appendix A—V.)

Report of the Treasurer of the Home for Friendless Children. See Appendix B—II.

The Secretary read the Report of the Managers of the Home for Friendless Children, (Appendix B—I.) and the Report of the Trustees of Trinity Cathedral. (See Parochial Reports.)

The Rev. J. G. Gantt was appointed by the chair to receive, for the Treasurer, all money intended for Diocesan Missions.

Whitman be appointed to consider and report to this Convention a plan by which the Diocesan Paper, known as "Church Affairs," may be supported and its publication continued.

The Rev. Dr. Murphy presented the following papers, which were, on his motion, referred to the Committee on the Admission of New Parishes:

WHEREAS the Congregation of St. John's Church, of Coventry Parish, feel that the time has come, in the providence of God, when they should assume parochial responsibility and secure a resident clergyman for themselves, and after due deliberation and consultation being assembled in public meeting this fifth day of April, 1898, we hereby make application to the Rector and Vestry of Coventry Parish for a separation of the said St. John's Church, with a view to the organization of a separate Parish within such bounds as the Vestry and the Bishop of the Diocese may determine, subject to the consent and approval of the Bishop and the Convention.

TUESDAY, 8 P. M.

The Convention re-assembled. The Bishop said the Creed and offered Prayer. Hymn No. 253 was sung, and the Bishop of the Diocese read his Annual Address.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

It is a pleasure, My Dear Brethren, to meet with you once again in our annual Council; to review with you the work of the past year; to offer to God our grateful thanks for that preserving Providence, which has been so graciously extended to us, and for all those manifold blessings which have accompanied it; forgetting not earnestly to invoke the guidance of His Holy Spirit, in our present work.

Ours is a strictly agricultural diocese. We have here no great and populous cities, no stupendous fortunes, no large factories, none of the eager rush and mad turmoil of the world's traffic and insane race for wealth, for pleasure and for power. A quiet home life is ours, in the midst of fields, of woods, and of glad abounding waters. No foul and sodden smoke, vomiting from countless chimneys, dims the splendor of our rising sun, nor hides the mild effulgent glory of his going down. The Divine bounty is unstinted in the largeness of blessing vouchsafed to our people: the elements of a contented, happy and useful life are here among us. May God grant us the eyes to see, the will to use, and the grace to thankfully acknowledge them.

For many years our farmers have labored to little profit, but during the past year many sections of our country have met with much encouragement. The smiles of heaven have rested upon our fertile fields; the harvest has been exceptionally abundant, the price remunerative. The widespread blight of other lands has not come near to hurt us. Enough we have had for ourselves, and enough to fill the hungry hands of another and remote hemisphere. I need not say that the Church has felt the influence of the relief afforded our people—not, perhaps, so much as if their estates had been unincumbered; but still, withal, much has been given and much done by the Church in the diocese during the past year. Old and venerable debts have been paid; debts on our churches and debts on our rectories. Valuable improvements also have been made in many of our parishes. St. Andrew's, Princess Anne, has been so greatly changed both within and without, from its original appearance and outline of structure that, it became a question whether it should or should not be consecrated. The debt on the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Cordova, parish of All Saints, has been paid and the chapel consecrated. All debts upon the new church at East New Market have been paid, and it is now ready for consecration.

I am just in receipt of a communication from the gentlemen in Oxford, informing me that, they have made their last payment and are now free from debt—another church ready for consecration. The good people of this congregation have worked, for some years, with an unfailing zeal and devotion, to finish one of the most beautiful churches in the diocese. They have accomplished their purpose. They deserve both the congratulations and the thanks of this Convention. It was begun under the daring and almost defiant enthusiasm of the Rev. Mr. Collins—the predictions of failure fell upon his ears from all sides when he began the work, but once begun and persisted in, and with his own hands wrought for, his people became his allies and helpers. He was called away to China before completing the work, but he left a resolute and determined people behind him, and the Rev. Mr. Gray, succeeding, filled promptly, and fully filled, his place, so that there was not the least intermission either of work or of interest. The Rev. Mr. Gray, having been obliged to resign, by reason of that affliction, which made sad all who esteem and love him, the Rev. Mr. Gantt succeeded, and to him, after his own ardent labors, has fallen the happy lot to say, "it is finished."

Just before resigning the parish of Snow Hill, the Rev. Mr. Morgan informed me that he had succeeded in paying their last debt.

The parish of Whitechapel, Denton, purchased a rectory some years ago, and the Rev. Mr. Fitzhugh has written to me that the last payment is made, and it is now their own. No parish is complete without a rectory.

This parish, St. Paul's, Centreville, has, by the bounteous liberality of some of its members, freed itself from all outstanding obligations, and is now able to enjoy its handsome and costly improvements, without the apprehension of future embarrassment.

Christ Church, Easton, which has been preparing for years to erect a parish house has lately received from the munificence of some of its members, aid sufficient to encourage them to at once begin to build. Their Rector informs me that he expects to be in it by the coming Fall. It will be a great and valuable accession to the parish and an ornament to the town.

Very recently the ladies of North Elk parish, informed me, that, they also had begun, in Perryville, the erection of a parish house for Sunday school and other services. It will be a very great help to them and an encouragement to their zealous and rejuvenated Rector.

I was about to write that these constitute many of the material works of the past year, but remembering that, giving to God's service, or to man, for God's sake, is as much one of the Pentecostal gifts, as the gift of tongues,—I feared so to disparage and defame the work that has been done, by using an adjective that seems to ignore the workings of that same Life-giving Spirit.

My Brethren of the Clergy, thanks be to God and the people, too, have all remained with us during this year; not one has left the diocese; and this is an extraordinary record. The kindly and endearing relations, which have always existed between us here, in a small area where we meet often, and see much of one another, make separation and parting especially painful. The vestries and congregations are also to be thanked, for the permanency of the pastorate depends largely upon them.

Not long ago I had the pleasure of listening to an address by a thoroughly well equiped layman, whose subject was "The vestryman, as he is and as he ought to be." After a very bright and amusing introduction of the subject he very soon came down, or rather up, to serious work, and touching the last clause, or division of the topic, "What the vestryman ought to be," he gave it, as his experience that, for the maintenance of the honor and good name of the parish, for a stable and efficient rectorship, for a progressive and prosperous parish growth, he found nothing more essential than the prompt and punctual discharge of the monetary obligations of the vestry to their rector.

Since our last meeting, in Cambridge, Whitechapel (Denton), East New Market and Vienna, Holy Trinity (Greensboro), St. Michael's, and Augustine parishes have been supplied with Rectors, most acceptable to the parishes and a valuable accession to the diocese. We have now but one vacant parish, All Hallows', Snow Hill. We have 39 Clergy on our roll, 34 in constant service, and one, the Rev. Mr. Greene, always ready to do all that his advanced age and failing strength will permit.

I am especially desirous to call your attention to a work recently begun in Coventry parish, and to invoke your sympathy and aid in its behalf. The Rev. Dr. Murphy, anticipating the prospective importance of Crisfield, undertook, some years ago, what many believed the hopeless task of building a church. By arduous and persevering work, both at home and abroad, but chiefly abroad, he succeeded, and St. John's Memorial, free and unincumbered by debt, tells the result of his endeavors. This town is at the extreme end of Coventry parish and twenty miles from the residence of the rector. The Rev. Dr. Murphy has three churches exclusive of St. John's, one of them nine miles from his residence and the other fifteen, so it has been imposible for him to give much of his time to Crisfield. At his urgent request the Missionary Board of the diocese assisted him in placing a settled minister in the town. Two experiments were made, and they failed to meet the expectation of the Board. I visited the people, and spent about five days among them; going from house to house and calling upon the men in their places of business. I then called them together and heard, from their own lips, what they wanted. There was such an eager and earnest spirit among them I felt assured that, should we succeed in securing the services of the right man, the people would very soon assume his entire support. In fact they told me that, should such a man be sent to them, they would not require help after the first year. Some emphasis was laid upon getting a young man, and an unmarried man, whose expenses would be adapted to their means. It seemed to me, that it would be unwise to experiment any further than we had already done, and instead of looking out for a man, who would be adapted to their purse we should rather look for one adapted to the work. I found the Rev. Mr. Morgan desirious of moving from Snow Hill, and at my earnest entreaty he consented to visit Crisfield, and consider the proposition I made him, in respect to entering upon service there. His visit resulted in their earnest entreaty that he should remain, and begin his residence on the first of May. We have, therefore, given them of our very best. I have in this, and it is the only instance, anticipated the favorable action of my brethern of the Missionary Board, and I have reckoned on the additional support of my brethren of the Clergy throughout the diocese. The situation was this:—The congregation of Crisfield promised $400 per annum. I told Mr. Morgan to go, take it, and we would stand by him, but he should, if possible induce the people to give house rent free, in addition to the $400, and in case he should accept, do so, to begin on the first of July. He went, the people gave house rent free, and assisted liberally in furnishing the house. They moreover insisted upon his immediate acceptance; in fact they took everything into their own hands. I trust all this will meet with your approbation, and that this new demand upon our resources will be met by your increased efforts in behalf of the fund.

GENERAL MISSIONS OF THE CHURCH.

At our last meeting I laid before you a resolution, passed in a then recent Missionary Council, recommending the dioceses of the Church to pledge, annually, to the General Board a certain definite sum, so that, in making their appropriations, they should know just how much they had in hand to give. You acted favorably upon this recommendation, and pledged $850. I beg leave to ask the Committee upon the State of the Church, to inform us in their report, whether or not we have met our pledge; I would also ask the Convention to continue it. The collections of the Sunday Schools, made in Lent, for General Missions, will of course be included in our pledge; the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, for the missionaries of the Church will not be. I should very much like to have all the parishes of the diocese adopt the custom of giving the Lenten offerings of their Sunday Schools, to the General Missions of the Church, and their Advent offerings to Diocesan Missions.

CONVOCATIONS.

I have attended a number of these interesting meetings of my brethren during the past year. The Deans are to to be congratulated upon the practical character of the topics chosen; the members of the convocations, upon the interesting and instructive manner in which they have been treated. That these meetings have been helpful to the Rectors and to the congregations of the parishes, in which they have been holden, there can be no manner of doubt, if we can accept their own testimony. They have done good also to us of the Clergy; for besides the pleasure arising from the meeting together of "brethren that dwell together in unity," there is an unconscious expression of both Christian and ministerial experience, which finds utterance in the application of the great practical truths of our Holy Religion, and so alike are we one to another, and so alike the vicissitudes of our common life, its trials, its hopes, its fears, its consolations and encouragements, that he who speaks close home to his own life speaks to a large company; and never speaks in vain. Thus are we enriched by contact. We reap while we sow. Contemporaneous here are seed time and harvest.

CLERGY RELIEF.

A resolution passed in the last General Convention appointed Quinquagesima Sunday, as the time for us to call for the offerings of our people in support of this cause. Whitsunday is the day you have appointed for your own fund. I know not yet how far my brethren have responded to the call. The increase of the General fund is now most earnestly advocated by Mr Neely, a brother of our Bishop Neely, and I have promised him to urge upon my brethren of the Clergy an unfailing compliance with the will of the Church as expressed in the said resolution. It is not, however, to be thought strange, that I should rather seek to enlist the interest of my brethren, and their congregations, in the increase of our own fund. Nearly every diocese in the land seems to have abandoned whatever of hope it once had, of the church at large, seriously undertaking to discharge this most sacred obligation, and so they have begun to take care for their own. Something of increase appears year by year, in our fund. The growth is, indeed, slow, and the interest wholly incommensurate with the sacredness and the weight of the obligation. I have sometimes thought that, the Clergy hesitate to urge this duty upon the people, because it has the appearance of pleading their own cause. It is a gentlemanly instinct, with which one cannot fail to sympathize, but should we not bear in mind that we are bound, in conscience and in law, both? The laity form a part, and an essential part, of our diocesan legislation. It is their command, too, that we obey. And shall we not bear in mind our duty to our brethren, whose failing strength needs and demands our loving aid, and the families of those, who all their life long, depended, day by day, upon the scant stipend that ceased when he, both husband and father, was taken to his final rest? When one considers the strict justice of the demand, the imperative need of those who make it, the delicate and refined sensibilities that suffer them not to expose their daily struggles and give them utterance, it sounds somewhat strangely to the ear to hear, and only hear, the formal announcement: "Next Sunday will be Whitsunday, and the offerings will be appropriated to the Clergy Relief Fund of the Diocese."

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

There are now about 22 Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in the diocese, including the Juniors, an increase, I learn, of 4 Branches during the year last past. Its growth and its labors afford great satisfaction and reason for thanks to God, because of the good it is doing, both abroad and at home. For although its tender Christian ministries are extended, rather to the Clergy and their families, in other dioceses, the spirit that is kindled, in the workers themselves, turns to intenser and larger work at home. An enlarged Christian sympathy that takes into view the whole Church, feels its need and works to supply it, instead of impoverishing a self-supporting parish, by diminishing its resources, really enriches and increases them. For what does it signify but more and more of life; therefore more of vigor, of zeal, of devotion and self-sacrifice for Him, Who sacrificed Himself for us. Let a parish shut itself up to the mere supply of its own wants, to a regard only for what it conceives to be its own interests, and it will be sure, ere long, to find, that there is not only a shutting up, but a shutting out; that a starving process is going on, which little by little is reducing its spiritual vitality and making it, increasingly difficult to live upon itself. The wholesome tendency of this organization therefore is to break down the barriers of hard and selfish parochialism. The value, as we count value, of their contributions to the Clergy and their families during the year is over $700. What has been the blessing to their parishes, let their Rectors tell.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

The Ladies of the Board of Managers have been again fortunate in securing aid from the State in furtherance of their charitable work. The diocese, too, has contributed, I am informed, to an increased extent toward its support. Large gifts poured in upon the Home, upon Thanksgiving Day, Harvest Home and Christmas, from parishes far and near. There are now twenty children in the Home. Their health has been this year, as indeed in all years past, wonderfully good. They seem a happy and contented lot, and are being carefully trained for the duties that lie before them, and furnished with such knowledge as contributes both to their temporal and eternal interests. The Home is now immediately under the conscientious and efficient matronage of Miss Dryden, assisted by Miss Kirby. The work is worthy of our continued and increased maintenance.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

The Rev. Dr. Sutton resigned his position in Trinity Cathedral July 10th and accepted a call at Pocomoke parish. The Rev. E. R. Rich resigned Holy Trinity, Greensboro, and removed to his present work in Trinity Cathedral. The Rev. Mr. Morgan resigned All Hallows', Snow Hill, and on the first of May removed to Crisfield, in Coventry parish. None of our Clergy have been transferred during the present year.

Second Day.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1898.

After Morning Prayer, said by the Rev. Samuel Edson and the Rev. Thos. Duncan, D. D., the Bishop of the Diocese reading the absolution and pronouncing the Benediction, the Convention was called to order, at 10 o'clock, the Bishop in the chair.

The Secretary called the roll of the Rev. Clergy and of the Lay Delegates, and read the minutes of yesterday's session. The minutes were approved.

On motion of the Rev. S. J. Morgan it was Resolved to suspend Rule of Order 23, calling for the election of officers at 12 o'clock, sufficiently long to allow the Convention to engage in Noonday prayers for Missions.

The Hon. L. L. Waters, was appointed by the chair to fill the vacancy in the Committee on Canons occasioned by the absence of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Rev. Dr. Duncan presented the Report of the Committee on Combining Weak Parishes, and moved the adoption of the Resolutions contained therein.

The committee appointed at the last Diocesan Convention of Easton, to enquire into the expediency of so combining weak parishes under one rector, as to secure the result of an adequate support of the clergy, beg leave to present their report.

They would call attention first to the facts of the case.

On examination of the parochial reports with reference to salaries paid by the parishes to their rectors, not including amounts received from the Mission Societies, shows that there are but few self-supporting parishes in the Diocese.

If we may regard $700 as a minimum salary on which a minister and his family may subsist, then we have in this Diocese very few parishes which may be called self-supporting. The others are aided by the Diocesan Missions society as far as its means will permit. The society now commands, with the aid which it receives from the General Mission Society, about $2.200. It would require a much larger sum to put all the parishes on the meagre living basis of $700.

Your committee in considering the questions before them, cannot think that the evil will be cured by accessions to our population, for the element that swells the ranks of the Episcopal Church is diminishing rather than increasing in our rural districts.

Some other remedy for the evil must therefore be sought. We believe it is to be found only in the union of the weak parishes until they become strong enough to support rectors. While this may not be the case in some instances, it is one pursued in very many.

We believe this because the plan has worked well in the three Dioceses of Michigan, as reported by the Bishops; and also because in former years it was successful in the case of a number of parishes, in this Diocese, which are now separate and weak, and which may in the course of time unite again and be self-sustained.

Your committee having been appointed simply to collect facts and enquire into the expediency of the plan and present the subject to the convention, have not felt authorized to proceed further, in the way of presenting the subject to the parishes concerned, but they would urge that the attempt to use this plan should be made.

They believe that various considerations press it upon us.

They would urge it first on account of the ministers concerned.

How can a minister give his whole heart and soul to his work, when his mind is harrassed with debt; or if he will not go into debt is obliged to turn every day into a Friday of fasting. And how can he continue on earth if he always fast?

Remember too that a minister must feed his flock, and how can he feed them if he have no granary of thoughts to draw from, and how can he fill his study with such food, without the money to buy books.

But to turn from the minister's side of the question to that of the congregations.

The little weak congregation must be taxed to the utmost to support a clergyman. The last minister left because the support was not sufficient, so the amount must be increased. Why call another minister and take up this greater burden? The question remains unanswered. The flock becomes scattered. And the parish oftentimes remains a long time vacant.

But this is not all. The condition of things referred to often prevents the congregation from contributing to outside objects. The proper support of the Bishops, the support of the Diocesan institutions, contributions to Missions, foreign and domestic, must be passed by, because every nerve has to be strained in order to give, shall we say a support? to the minister.

Further, this state of things necessitating application for aid from the Missionary Societies, destroys the independance of the congrega-

And we must add, that all these facts dark and sad, throw a gloom over the churches which hinder accession and growth.

While your committee do not believe it right to interfere with the Clergy of parishes or people, they do believe in the good sense, and religious character of the members of our churches, and that it would be a reflection on both, to think, or to say, that to present this subject would give offence, and that it would be regarded with indignation as an interference with the vestries. A vestry or congregation that would be angered because the convention loves it, and seeks its welfare could not deserve the name of Christian.

Resolved, By the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Easton in convention assembled.

1st. That, whenever a parish too weak to give an adequate support to a rector, becomes vacant, it is recommended to apply to the dean of the convocation to which it belongs, who under the advice and consent of the Bishop, and with his assistance when practicable, and with every influence which he may be able to secure, shall seek to arrange a union with some contiguous parish, so as to have the services of its minister, and assist to bear the burden of his support.

Resolved, 2d. That the Deans of the convocations be and are here by directed to bring this action of the convention to the notice of the various parishes, and when the opportunity occurs, with the consent and advice of the Bishop, to press the importance of this arrangement upon the vestries and congregations of the Diocese interested.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOS. DUNCAN,
J. GIBSON GANTT,
DAVID HOWARD,
ZADOK P. HENRY, JR.,
WM. COLLINS,
JAS. C. CALHOUN.

The Rev. Mr. Schouler moved that the Report be referred to the Committee on Canons, which motion was lost.

On motion the Resolutions were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Sutton presented the Report of the Committee on New Parishes,

and on motion the accompanying Resolutions were adopted.

Your Committee on the Admission of New Parishes beg leave to report that they have had before them the application of sundry persons in Coventry Parish, together with extracts from the proceedings of the Vestry of said Parish, asking this Convention to set off a portion of said Parish, make it an independent Parish and receive it into union with the Convention. We have examined the documents and made enquiries, and find that the requirements of the law have been complied with, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:—

Resolved, That the portion of Coventry Parish lying within Crisfield and Asbury Election districts, and having the following metes and bounds, to-wit: Commencing at the mouth of Apis Hole Creek, thence to a bridge, thence to Mariner's Methodist Protestant church, from there by county road to James Ward's store, thence by the line of Crisfield and Lawson's districts to Annamessex River and to Tangier Sound, thence by said Water line to Pocomoke Sound, thence to the place of beginning; be and is hereby constituted a separate and independent Parish, with all the rights and privileges of any other Parish, under the name and title of St. Bartholomew's Parish.

Resolved, That said St. Bartholomew's Parish be and is hereby received into union with this Convention.

George W. Bowne to the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America; if in the godly judgment of the Bishop of the Diocese of Easton it be deemed advisable.

The Committee begs leave to offer the following:

WHERRAS, The papers of the Standing Committee have accumulated greatly, and the Secretary has no way or place of preserving them, therefore

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to place the said papers in the hands of the Registrar of the Diocese for safe keeping.

S. C. ROBERTS, D. D.,
W. Y. BEAVEN,
A. BATTE,
OLIVER H. MURPHY, D. D.,
Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell presented the Report of the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Mr. Baldwin asked that the Report be withdrawn temporarily, and that the Committee be requested to add a new section to Canon XIV in reference to the filling of vacancies that may occur in the Committee during the recess of the Convention.

The Report was so amended and on motion the recommendations contained in the Report were adopted.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred a resolution adding to Sec. 1 of Canon XIV., certain additions would make the following change, the whole of Sec. 1, reading as follows:

Canon XIV., Sec. 1. To conduct the Missionary operations of the Diocese, and dispense the contributions in their behalf, there is hereby constituted a Board of Missions, to consist of the Bishop, (who shall be President ex-officio), three Presbyters, and two Laymen, chosen by the Annual Convention and elected by ballot, of whom one shall be the Treasurer of the Board. Provided that no clergyman whose parish or parochial charge receives aid from the Board shall be eligible for membership on the same.

The Committee recommends the adoption of an additional Section to Canon XIV, to be called Sec. 8.

Section 8.—Any vacancy occuring in said Board of Missions by death, resignation, refusal to serve, removal out of the Diocese, or otherwise, may be filled by said Board, and the person so chosen shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

(Signed) JAMES A. MITCHELL,
STEPHEN C. ROBERTS,
LEVIN L. WATERS.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived the Bishop bid the Convention to prayer.

Business being resumed, the Rev. Mr. Gantt offered the

and moved that the consideration of it be made the order of the day at 4 o'clock this P. M.

It was so ordered.

The Committee to whom was assigned the following resolution, offered by the Rev. Edw. R. Rich, "That the Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell, the Rev. S. C. Roberts, D. D., the Rev. J. G. Gantt, the Rev. S. J. Morgan, and Messrs. R. C. Mackall, M. D., and S. E. Whitman, be appointed to consider and report to this Convention a plan by which the Diocesan paper, known as 'Church Affairs,' may be supported and its publication continued," would respectfully report, that it is with great pleasure and much gratefulness that they are conscious of the great influence for good "Church Affairs" has in the life and happiness of this Diocese. Under the admirable editorship of the Rev. Mr. Mitchell and the Rev. Mr. Rich, the paper has enlarged its pages for original matter, and has extended its circulation among several thousand readers in and out of our Diocese; that the paper has 700 names on its list of subscribers; that according to the statement of a practical business editor, "it is doubtless the best list for the general advertisers of any paper published on the Eastern Shore," convinces this committee, in view of the facts, that the paper is not only not self-supported but has nearly $100 indebtedness, which must be paid, to make the following recommendations to this Convention:

1st. That the Editors be authorized to charge for all new subscribers 50 cents, instead of 25 cents; and that the same sum of 50 cents be charged against present subscribers when their limit of time has expired.

2nd. That this Convention urge upon its members here assembled their consideration of the importance of sustaining the paper, by offering for their parishes such practical help in matters of advertising in this paper and soliciting subscriptions.

3rd. That the Editors of this paper be authorized to give 10 per cent. to any responsible agent for each cash subscription received.

The committee finally would ask for this Convention to give a portion of its time towards the consideration of the question.

The Rev. Mr. Ware presented the Report of the Committee on Unfinished Business.

The Commitee on Unfinished Business beg leave to report that they have examined the Journals and find but two subjects not disposed of, to wit:—

The Rev. A. Batte presented the

Report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

The Committee on the State of the Church beg leave to report that they have examined the papers given it by the secretary of the convention, and submit the following:

For the first time in the history of the Diocese every Parish presented a report. This fact speaks well for the clergy, and is a source of much gratification to your committee.

At the last Convention a pledge of $850.00 was made to the General Board of Missions. This pledge has not been fully redeemed, the offerings of the Parishes amounting to but $701.20.

We find the sum of all the offerings to be $36,245.67. This is $1,590.45 less than that of last year. But this is no cause of discouragement. Last year two of the Parishes spent exceptionally large sums in repairing and beautifying. These sums represent the accumulations of several years, therefore can not be considered as annual contributions, hence they may fairly be deducted, leaving the average offerings of the Parishes larger this year than last.

In nearly every Parish your Committee finds signs of progress, spiritual and temporal. The Diocese seems alive. Aggression is the watch word.

We regret not being able, on account of the limited time at our disposal, to speak of what is going on in every Parish. We can only call attention to two facts. Coventry Parish has grown too large for the work of one man, and the Rector and Vestry have consented to the erection of a new one in the Southern part of it, with Crisfield as the dividing centre.

The improvements at Princess Anne have been expensive and long needed. We beg to congratulate the people there upon the successful ending of their self-denying labors.

We note with pleasure the payment of the debt incurred by the congregation of St. Pauls Parish, Centreville, in beautifying and enlarging their church building.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. BATTE, CHAIRMAN,
FRANKLIN B. ADKINS,
T. CARTER PAGE.
DR. G. W. GOLDSBOROUGH.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell read the

and on motion the Recommendation therein contained was accepted.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the new form of parochial report for consideration, recommend, that the report be printed in sufficient numbers and sent to the rectors of the Diocese for their consideration before final adoption; action to be taken at the next Convention, believing that only in this way can we obtain a satisfactory and permanent report.

JAMES A. MITCHELL,
S. C. ROBERTS.

Mr. Henry S. Coudon presented the Report of the Committee on Accounts.

Your Committee on Accounts beg to make the following report:

We have examined the reports of the Episcopal Residence Fund, the Home for Friendless Children, and the report of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Trust Fund, and the Diocesan Convention Fund, together with vouchers, and find the same correct.

We have also examined the report of the Clergy Relief Fund, together with vouchers and find the same correct, except an error of One Dollar, making assets that amount less than reported.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY S. COUDON,
W. H. GIBSON,
B. F. E. DENNY.

One of the most useful of the parish organizations and the one which promises most for the future of the parish is the Ministering Children's League. During the year it has sent a box to the "Home," and has contributed the well earned amount of $32.16 to the above named "Total for Parochial Objects." The Sunday School by its faithfully-earned Easter offering has been instrumental in procuring a handsome chalice and paten, and a thank-offering has been made of a handsome vestment, veil and burse for the altar. The Parish is under a debt of gratitude to the N. Y. Bible and Prayer Book Society for grants of Prayer Books and Bibles, to the Bishop White Parish Library Association of Philadelphia for a grant of twenty-five volumes for the "Rector's Library," and to the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament for a grant of money toward the chalice. The Rector desires to express here his personal gratitude to the parishioners for their warm welcome to him on his coming, their cordial support of all his plans, and their generosity and thoughtfulness in keeping the Rectory larder so well supplied.

On the occasion of the Bishop's visitation last fall, there was a service, well attended, in Trinity church, Church Creek. All present were gratified to know that the north wall of the venerable building was secured from funds received from New York by the Bishop of the Diocese. As the Windows are not secured, and with no possible oversight of the church, due to its location outside of Church Creek, there seems little little hope of reviving the old time services in Old Trinity. The time may come though when the descendants of the old time communicants may return to the church of their ancestors, and the same services again be rendered where they were first heard in this county, over two hundred years ago. At Grace Church, Taylor's Island, the services have been almost uninterrupted during the year; on two or three occasions, there were failures in consequence of the bad weather and wretched condition of the roads. The Church has been thoroughly repainted, during the past year, from funds mainly contributed in Baltimore.

This report extends over the time when the present Rector assumed charge on the 20th of November. The statistics of Families, Baptized Members, Communicants, and Parishioners are only approximately correct. There are many persons in this parish who have been in times past friendly to the church and also many communicants who have lost love for and interest in her prosperity, on account of the misfortunes of various sorts which have betided the work here. The people assure the present incumbent that there is a decided change for the better, and that the signs of new interest are encouraging. They have welcomed me most cordially into their homes and have extended to me and my family most generous friendship and hospitality. I can but feel that the blessing of the great Head of the Church is attending our efforts here. The zeal and devotion of the ladies to their church ought to be mentioned and commended in any report from this parish. They are working to raise funds for the purchase of a Rectory, and we feel sure that we will be able to fill the blank space next year by reporting a rectory purchase.

The work at Preston is encouraging too, we hold services Monthly in the public school house of the town and our congregations are increasing. St.Stephen's church is now ready for consecration, and at the annual meeting of the Southern Convocation we expect to meet here and have our Bishop with us to perform that rite.

The present incumbent took charge of this Parish, in connection with that of East New Market on the 20th of November last. This report extends then over the six months of my rectorship. Our Church is now nearly completed but a debt of considerable amount has accumulated against it, but we are hopeful that within a reasonable time we will clear off this indebtedness and present the building for consecration. A handsome carved oak altar and solid brass cross has been put into the chancel as a Memorial of Bishop Lay. The people seem to be much encouraged by the increased attendance at public services and are hopeful of substantial growth. The ladies of this Parish have been laboring with commendable zeal in every branch of church work here and have put a new carpet on the floor and in many ways have already added to the comfort and adornment of their church. There has been no report from the Parish for several years, and the statistics of baptized members, families, parishioners and communicants is only approximately correct.

I gratefully report the entire liquidation of our indebtedness. In accomplishing this gratifying result, there have been generous gifts, and the entire congregation united in like liberal spirit. Our Easter offering for this purpose amounted to $1,800, the Sunday School adding to it $70.00.

Last Summer Mrs. Marianna Robinson and her children put a handsome window in the church as a memorial to the Hon. John Mitchell Robinson.

Among the improvements we record the painting of the rectory, and a set of handsome hangings for the altar.

The year will be remembered for the loss by death of many of our most prominent members. In the face of sorrow and financial distress the above reported good works have been done: for all which we give God thanks.

Last August, at the earnest request of St. John's congregation, Crisfield, I began to hold regular services, which I am pleased to say has awakened an increased interest in spiritual things at that point and to a wish on the part of the congregation to assume parochial responsibilities. They will ask the consent of the Convention to form a new parish, which is a move in the right direction. The proposed parish will embrace within its bounds the important town of Crisfield and the populous district of Asbury, a population of from 5000 to 7000 people. Here is a grand field for Missionary work. The Rev. Stephen J. Morgan has been called and entered upon his duties May 1st, 1898. He has much to encourage him in his new field of labor. Our people, though few, are wide awake, enterprising and disposed to help themselves all they can. The material now at hand, is perhaps the best we have ever had. Through the able, wise and judicious ministration of Mr. Morgan, we may expect in a year or so a large and self supporting parish; for this work must become more and more important as the years go by. On all sides there are evident tokens of God's blessing upon this work and abundant signs of encouragement for the future.

For Diocesan Uses.—Diocesan Clergy Relief, $28.12; Diocesan Missions, $25.50; Home for Friendless Children, $18.00. Total, $71.62.

For Parochial Uses.—Rector's Salary, Amount Promised, $750.00: Amount Paid $750.00; Current Expenses, $250.00; Improvements and Repairs, $30.00; Communion Alms (other than amounts reported under other headings,) and other Charities for the Poor, $13.40; Payment of Sundry debts, by contributions of the congregation, Ladies Aid Society, and Daughters of the King, $397.00. Total, $1,440.40. Grand Total, $1.582.02.

Church Property.—This Church has a Rectory, Valued at $1500 and Insured for $1000. All Hallows Church, Sittings 300, Value $8000 Insured for $3000; Holy Cross Chapel, Sittings 100 Value $100. Its Invested Fund amounts to $4,300.00.

During the past year the entire indebtedness of All Hallows' has been paid by subscriptions of the congregation, and the Parish is free from debt of any kind at the present time.

All Hallows Parish is at present without a Rector, the Rev. S. J. Morgan having at the request of the Bishop taken charge of the church at Crisfield for the purpose of establishing a parish at that place. During the two and a half years of Mr. Morgan's ministrations in this Parish he succeeded in bringing into the church a larger number of persons than had been accomplished by any previous minister for a great many years. The vacancy created by Mr. Morgan's resignation will be difficult to fill. His unceasing energy in the face of many difficulties; his rendering of the church services, and above all his sermons, which gave evidence of close and painstaking study, and which were delivered with such an oratorical and forcible manner, will be missed by all who were so fortunate as to be privileged to hear them. The people of Crisfield are to be congratulated in securing the services of so able and eloquent a Rector as Mr. Morgan.

Personal Reports.

To The Rt. Rev., The Bishop of the Diocese of Easton.

I would now report to you, that since the last Convention I have preached in various parishes, twenty-four times, generally reading the service too and assisting in it at other times. I have made two addresses at a meeting of the Middle Convocation. I have administered the Holy Communion four times and assisted in it once. I have also officiated at a marriage, at the burial of an infant, and the baptism of another.

Very Respectfully,

WM. WALLACE GREENE.

The Rev. Norman H. Burnham respectfully reports that during the Conventional year, he has, from time to time, officiated, in the Borough of Brooklyn, New York City, and in the Parishes of Trinity Church, Bristol, and St. John's Church, East Hartford, Connecticut.

The first sum was invested by the predecessor of the present Treasurer in a mortgage of the property of George C. Shehan, situated in the town of Easton, and which mortgage has not yet matured. The Bailey Fund is deposited in the Savings Bank department of the Workingmen's Permanent Building & Loan Association of Talbot County, and draws interest at the rate of 3 per cent. ### Report of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund.

EASTON, MD., June 1st, 1898.

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Easton.

GENTLEMEN: Your Treasurer, in making his second report as Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund, begs to submit that the corpus of the Fund is the same as stated in his first report, that is, the sum of Forty Thousand, Nine Hundred and Fifteen Dollars ($40,915.00).

There has been very little change in the investments during the past year. The Fund is now invested in mortgages, Twenty One Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars (21,400.00); in stocks and bonds, Fourteen Thousand and Two Hundred and fifteen Dollars ($14,215.00) in individual notes, Eleven Hundred Dollars ($1100.00); in unpaid purchase money for Bell farm, One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00); in Minnick property Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00); cash in Bank for investment Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

Your Treasurer is gratified to report that he has the Minnick property now rented for a sum sufficient to make the moneys invested in it yield a fair return, and that if it continues to be rented, as there is every reason to believe it will be, we shall be able in the future to realize at least Six per cent, on our money as well as to reimburse the fund for outlay incurred in putting the property in such repairs as to make it habitable.

Your Treasurer has collected Twenty Eight Hundred and Seven Dollars and One Cent ($2,807.01) and has disbursed same as per itemized account below.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund on the 31st ult. met, examined and approved the accounts herewith submitted and personally inspected the securities herein reported to be held by your Treasurer.

A Brief Pastoral to Accompany the Journal.

Be we careful to remember that all mortal men are subject to many sudden perils, disease and sickness, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life.

To the intent that we may always be in readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call us, we must often receive the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ.

Moreover, every just man should be careful while he is in health to make his Will and to declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience and the quietness of his executors. Such persons as are of ability should be liberal to the poor.

Legacies may be left to the various charities and religious undertakings of the Diocese by the names and designations given herewith.

1. "I give to the CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF EASTON," the sum of dollars for
   - a. the uses and purposes of said Convention; or
   - b. for the uses of the Clergy Relief Fund of said Convention; or
   - c. for the use of the Episcopal Fund of said Diocese; or
   - d. for the Missions of the Diocese; or for any other specific use.
2. "I give to TRINITY CATHEDRAL, EASTON,"
   - a. for the purpose of building or repairs; or
   - b. for the endowment thereof, the annual profits only to be expended; or
   - c. for charitable uses, to be expended by the Bishop of said Cathedral.
3. "I give to the HOME FOR THE FRIENDLESS CHILDREN OF THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND," dollars.
4. "I give to the VESTRY OF PARISH;" or else "I give to the CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF EASTON," as trustees for Parish, the sum of dollars, the annual proceeds thereof to be devoted to the support of the Rector, or to the repairs of the Church, or to any other object specified.

ject to the action of the Convention. Every act which divides a Parish or in any way affects Parish boundaries, shall distinctly set out the new boundaries which it is intended to establish. The Convention will not act upon proposed Resolutions, Acts or Canons which are not conformed to the provisions of this rule.

21. All elections shall be by ballot, unless otherwise ordered; the votes of the Clergy and Laity shall be received and counted separately, but the vote shall be regarded as a joint one; and the election shall be decided by a majority of the whole number of votes taken together, unless a vote by Orders shall have been required, agreeable to the fifth Article of the Constitution.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

Once more, my dear brethren, we are by God's kind providence permitted to meet together in council, directly to report the work we have done during the past year, and indirectly the work we have left undone; to consult under the Divine guidance and blessing concerning our future endeavors in His service; to draw nearer one to another in loving aid and sympathy, and all to God, the inexhaustible source of our strength and the author of every good and fruitful work. Before entering, however, upon our own especial affairs, it is becoming to take notice of the loss suffered by the Church at large in the recent death of our beloved and revered Presiding Bishop. Beautiful and tender tributes have been already paid to his memory, especially one by the Bishop of Albany, who by reason of long and endearing intimacy was every way qualified to speak. Those who knew him best have testified to the accuracy of his scholarship, the amplitude of his learning, and with something of not unreasonable wonder, they take note of his severe application and industry, even in his last days. It is one great blessing of the dead who die in the Lord, that they rest from their labors; it is another that their works do follow them. This Bishop's life in all its treasured fullness was chiefly spent in making workers, whose work is now being right well wrought over all this land from sea to sea. They bear, as they are able, the deep impress of his own strong character; from his teaching and example they have taken a firm hold of the great and enduring articles of the Catholic Creeds—scorning all mental reservations, all disingenuous evasions and all novel and sceptical interpretations; yea, and from him, too, they have learned the all important lesson, deeply to realize the great end and purpose of their sacred calling. So sent he them forth, not only with minds enriched and lives devoted, but with minds well poised and balanced, averse from extremes and repugnant unto whatsoever squareth not with the word of God and the ancient Faith, the Apostolic order and the written law of our own branch of the Catholic Church. These be his works, and they and their works insure to him an abundant and ever increasing blessing, whither he himself hath gone.

Coming now to our own diocese. At one time during the present year All Hallows, Snow Hill; Worcester, Berlin; Pocomoke, Pocomoke City, and Coventry parishes were vacant; subsequently Trappe and Oxford, after the removal of the Rev. Mr. Gantt to Berlin.

We have lost three good men from our staff of clergy. The Rev. Dr. Murphy, after a faithful and most acceptable service of sixteen years, resigned Coventry parish and removed to Oregon. The Rev. Dr. Sutton did good work in Pocomoke, but his stay was too brief to accomplish much for the Church. The Rev. Mr. Howard's rectorate in Worcester parish was a conspicuous success. For what, under God's blessing, he accomplished, the diocese and the parish owe him grateful thanks. It was with sorrow and deep regret his people parted from him. I fully sympathized with them. He gave us five years of his life, and this life was in his Master's work, and he has left the fruits of it with us. The Rev. Mr. Gantt has succeeded him; it is much to wish, but still we dare trust that he will continue to succeed him, and that it may be long before we have occasion to write the obituary of his present rectorship. He, too, left very much to the regret of his people, for he was very much beloved by all. Snow Hill has been filled and well filled by the Rev. Mr. Butler, Pocomoke by the Rev. Mr. Frankel. We welcome these, our brethren, into our diocese, and trust that their stay shall be as long as our welcome is sincere. Whitemarsh parish and Holy Trinity, Oxford, and Coventry are still vacant.

It gives me pleasure to announce that so far your hope of Crisfield, under the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Morgan, has been none to sanguine, and that your liberal support of the work has met with no mean measure of reward. One thing, however, it has done at once, which I both hoped and looked for at some future time, but not quite so soon: it has inclined the congregation of St. Paul's, in Coventry parish, to petition this Convention to be permitted to annex itself to Crisfield. St. Paul's congregation will take away nearly, if not quite the half, of the financial ability of Coventry parish,—but it will make Crisfield independent of the Board. St. Paul lies about four miles from Crisfield and fifteen from Upper Fairmount, so that it is almost impossible for a Rector living in Fairmount to give adequate care to these people. It leaves an embarassing situation. Coventry has been receiving $200 per annum from the Board of Missions. It now still desires a rector of its own, and this is natural. It is not easy to see how this can be accomplished. The Rev. Mr. Woolford, Rector of Grace Church, Wicomico parish, has expressed his willingness to take both under his charge. Grace Church, Wicomico, also receives $200, and last year the Rector reported the sum of $159.00 given to him from this parish. Both parishes united do not offer a support for one man.

More than half the parishes of the diocese are, at this present time, on the Missionary Board, and instead of a generous emulation as to which shall get off first, and stay off longer, it seems to be all the other way. The general condition of the diocese is, I am thankful to say, good. The clergy are doing good and faithful work, in all of our parishes, and in nearly all instances, receiving the steady support of their congregations. For the most part their only discouragement is one to which they have now become accustomed—the removal of their young people, who marry and go off, and go off to marry. The financial condition of the diocese will be shown by the Reports of your Treasurers.

In regard to your Diocesan Missionary Fund, I again beg to call the attention of my brethren of the clergy to the importance of more frequent remittances. Some, and these among the largest contributors, pay no attention whatever to their own legislation upon this subject. They rule for a quarterly payment, and they pay by the year. They pay, honorably, all that they pledge, but it does not come into the hands of their treasurer in time to enable him to meet the quarterly payments, to which they have obliged their Board. Were it not for the balance, we have always carefully kept, these quarterly payments would have to be discontinued.

The Treasurer of the Convention informs me that, owing to some unusual expense, in the past year, we have gotten in debt. This will doubtless render necessary a slight increase of assessment upon the parishes, for at least the coming year. There is one expenditure, annually met by the Treasurer of the diocese, which I think might be lessened, if not wholly removed. You borrowed eleven hundred dollars to finish paying for the Episcopal Residence. You pay for this sum sixty-six dollars a year. You have a lot of ground you have been holding for years which, if increasing in value at all, does scarcely so much increase as the interest you are paying, and this alone would justify you in holding it. I would like my brethren of the laity to take into consideration the propriety of appointing a committee of laymen, residents of Easton, instructed and empowered to sell.

GENERAL MISSIONS.

Some weeks ago I received a circular letter from Bishops Doane and Dudley, informing me that certain ones of the Clergy had been appointed by the Board to visit the Conventions of the Dioceses, in order to urge renewed interest and effort in the cause of Missions both Home and Foreign. They asked my consent to a visitation of this Diocese. This I gave, both on my own and on your behalf. Our visitor will be the Rev. Dr. Smith, of Baltimore. I have written, promising him a right hearty welcome. He may ask for something more. Last year, in my address, I mentioned the fact of our Diocese having pledged to the General Board a certain amount, in accordance with a resolution passed in a Missionary Council holden in Pittsburg. I think the pledge was $850. I requested the Committee on the State of the Church to report the result to the Convention. They reported a failure. They did their best; but by reason of the reports of the Parishes, which were not in hand, their report was incorrect. The Diocese gave nearly, if not quite, one hundred dollars more than it pledged. I very much favor every Parish in the Diocese that is able to do it, giving the Lenten Offerings of their Sunday School to the cause of General Missions. I say every Parish that is able, because a Parish that receives $100 or $200 a year from the Missionary Board and yet responds to every call of the Church at large, appears to me very much like a man who spends his money to pay the family expenses of his neighbors, and looks to some generous man to keep the wolf from his own door. There is a show and pretence of independence without the reality. It seems to be giving what in very deed and truth other Parishes of the Diocese are paying.

CONVOCATIONS.

Our Convocations constitute an organized aid to the Missionary work of the Diocese. We have, as the ministers of Christ, a very poor and mean estimate of our consecration and high calling, when we deem ourselves to be under no obligation to any soul of man who is not resident within the boundary lines of our own Parishes. Let us not think that a call to a particular field of labor shuts out all the world besides; and especially let us show some Christian sympathy towards the work of our brethren, and some willingness to help them. There are stars for your crowns, beloved brethren in Christ, which shine beyond the shadows of your own Altars. Let us make our Convocation work a work of prayer and painful preparation, painful to ourselves, not to our hearers.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

The Managers of the Children's Home tender through me their grateful thanks for the many kind donations you have made them during the year. It is again fervently commended to your fostering care and loving remembrance. This is but to put yourselves under the divine Beatitude, "Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy!" "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." Sow mercy and you shall reap mercy—withhold it and it shall be withholden.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

Three new Branches have been added to the Diocese during the year. The help it affords the work in our Dioceses is now so well and generally known and appreciated that to commend it has become a superfluous task;—it commends itself. I have always thought that there was something as prophetic as touching, in that group of women that alone stood at the foot of the cross. All the world is against Him—constant still, they who loved, when the cry of the multitude was "Hail, King of the Jews", more constant now, when the blood thirsty multitude mock His dying agonies. It was a fearless love, that braved the rage and hate of the frantic mob and the cold deliberate malice of the rulers of the people. They stand there yet. Last year I asked the Ladies of the Board to help us in the Crisfield work. They promised $50; they have paid more than $60. This year I am encouraged to ask their help for Coventry, as Crisfield is about to steal half of it.

I beg to lay on the table of your Secretary, a copy of proposed changes of the Constitution, submitted to the Diocese by order of Canon I, Section III, Title 3, of the Digest.

I received a letter from one of my brethren of the Clergy, about the time I was preparing to begin my address, suggesting the propriety of appointing an hour during the present session, to discuss the best means of advancing the interests of our church in the Diocese. The suggestion was very grateful to me; not that I have found my brethren to be so absorbed in their parochial interests and obligations, as to be unmindful of the duty they owe to the Diocese. I have had the sympathy and ready help of my brethren all along—no Bishop could receive more, or ask for more. I am sure that none could be more grateful.

To carry on the work our Lord began, to extend His divine kingdom among men, to convert sinners, and to edify the righteous, fashioning them more and more in the likeness and image of Him in Whom they are created anew—even this, is the end, as we read it, in His Revealed Word. And as the end is revealed, so also is the means to the end, both revealed and prescribed—a faithful ministry of the Word and Sacraments.

Every means or instrument is in order to some end; from thence it derives its value and the reason of its being. To lose confidence in the means is scarcely less fatal, than to lose sight of the end. To be what God would have us be, and to do what we are called and sent to do—the end must be kept ever in view and unshaken faith preserved in the divine efficacy of the means, which He has Himself ordained. In the Word, whereof we read that, it shall not return void to Him that sent it; that in it, there slumbers the occult and mighty power of God, working the salvation of men; the Word, that in the parable of the Sower is likened to seed—having life in itself.

The Sacraments, ordained by our Blessed Lord Himself, the outer and visible parts promising, pledging and after a sort exhibiting the inner and spiritual grace. These are by some ignored, and by some disparaged, and yet it seems a proposition, which stands in no need of argument to prove—that every mean, or instrument, appointed of God, to work a certain end, imposes equal obligation upon us; and that the temper of mind, which presumes to sit in judgment upon one mean, ignoring, disparaging, or condemning it, might with equal propriety, yea and equal piety, too, elect any other, or for that matter, all others.

It is easy to understand how one extreme should beget another; how a doctrine exaggerated beyond bounds and to the detriment of other truths, should arouse for a time such an undistinguishing hostility as would oppose itself to truth and falsehood with equal fervor. But it is not so easy to understand that sort of mind, that sets in actual battle array, one against another, those means of grace, which have for their Author the self same divine original.

Just what is the cause of our sometimes wavering faith in the sufficiency of these means?

In the moments of our deeper religious life, when we make nearer approaches to God, then have we a full and patient trust, in the issue of a faithful use of them;—but there are times of discouragement. We look for results and see none, and are apt to conclude that there are none. Our people seem listless and apathetic. No feeling, no interest manifested if felt; congregations failing in numbers: some, once regular in attendance, now regular in absence. What does it all mean, and what is to be done? Some turn to unusual means and mere human devices, to increase the interest and arouse the life of their people. This may succeed for a time, like an unwholesome stimulant, but it is doomed to failure in the end; it is of the earth earthy, it is daubing with untempered mortar, it has no promise tied to it. Moreover it is not a mere failure—there is mischief in the memory and mischief in the work it has done.

Some, in their despondency fall into nearly the same state as their people, for this disease is contagious. They strive to be content with that which causes their discontent, but thank God few are they whose misfortune it is to succeed. Some begin to institute a severe inquest of their own lives and ministry, laying the fault upon themselves and not upon others. "Behold," say they, "the leanness of the flock, what is it but the warning and the chastisement of the Chief Shepherd." And, indeed, however unjust the charge, which these bring against themselves in times of discouragement, it is of extreme importance that we should at all times hold ourselves to a severe account—for it is not just a ministry, but a faithful ministry, to which we are bound; and it is not from a ministry of any sort—a careless, cold hearted, perfunctory discharge of certain public functions, that we are to hope for results, but from a faithful ministry. One cannot fail to observe how frequently the word diligent occurs in the office for ordination of Priests, as if the godly authors of the rite had in mind the persistent temptation to neglect, indifference and sloth, and the great danger of yielding to it. Diligent in prayer and reading of Holy Scripture. Diligent in so guarding every member of our flock, rich and poor, known and obscure, so that no one shall take any hurt by reason of our negligence. Diligent to frame and fashion our lives according to the Doctrine of Christ, that we may be wholesome examples to the flock. Finally, my dear brethren, although some of you see more removals from your parishes in one year than you add in two, it cannot be said that you have ever so lost your faith in the divinely appointed means of advancing the Kingdom of our Blessed Lord, as to resort to mere human devices and questionable methods. Adhere strictly, as you have ever for the most part adhered, to those means which have God for their author—the quickening power and presence of His Holy Spirit for warrant and assurance; the sanction and success of past ages for example and encouragement. Let it not be ours to forsake the old land marks, for the cozening enticements of a so-called "applied Christianity", which seems to embrace within the letter of our divine commission, and the charter of our powers and duties, a discussion of the "burning questions" of the day, the scandals and panics of society, and everything, in short, but the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ—the conversion of sinners and the building up of His people in righteousness and true holiness.

The Address being ended, the Bishop called upon the Deans of Convocation to make their Annual Report. In response, the Rev. Giles B. Cooke, of the Northern Convocation, and the Rev. S. J. Morgan, of the Southern, made verbal reports, and the Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell, of the Middle Convocation, presented the following report:—

The members of the Middle Convocation immediately after the adjournment of Convention agreed upon the following places as points of work for the ensuing year: Oxford, Centreville and Sudlersville.

In pursuance of this arrangement, the Convocation assembled last September in Holy Trinity Church, Oxford, Rev. J. Gibson Gantt, Rector. It being the fall of the year, the opening service was a Harvest Home, and the addresses of the officiating members were on topics suitable to the occasion. The Church was appropriately decorated with fruits and vegetables and fall verdure; after service, many of the Church members remained with the Rector to a late hour to assist in packing the fruit and vegetables to be sent by early morning train as a donation to the Home of the Friendless, Easton. At the second evening service of this meeting, the Sunday School of Holy Trinity was present in force. The addresses were partly to the Children and partly of a Missionary character. It is here suggested the question, Why we should not, at our Convocations, make this more frequently a feature of our work? To have the children of the Church present, and for them to realize that the Clergy as a body, other than their regular Pastor, are interested in their spiritual welfare, it seems to me, were itself an inspiration. We are, moreover, laying the foundation, not only of future interest among our young people in Convocation work, but especially cultivating that growing interest which may culminate in more active work among the future lay element in the Diocese. Where can we sow the seed of interest in Diocesan as well as Foreign Missions so surely as in the hearts of the children? Besides, we are thus giving our commendation to our Sunday School work, which among some of our congregations needs such stimulating efforts. We know at this time how much the children throughout the length and breadth of our land are doing in the way of contributing to the General Missions of the Church. The efforts in that direction by the Board of General Missions have met with wonderful success. And there is no reason why the children should not feel that interest in our home work, so largely in our Diocese of a Missionary character. The Bishop has made some effort to awaken such interest among our children for Diocesan Missions during the Advent season. As yet little has come of it. I therefore suggest at our fall meeting a special service and instruction for the children, which shall be in some respect preparatory to the Advent season. The concluding service at this Convocation in its instruction touched on Church work and support. The Convocation adjourned feeling that the meeting had been a profitable one to the Rector and people, the former by his admirable arrangements, and the latter by large congregations and attention, seconding our efforts.

On November 28th, the Convocation met in St. Paul's, Centreville. The attendance of Clergy was remarkably good, and the addresses, on all the evenings, were in preparation and interest, all that could be asked. At the conclusion of this meeting the congregation of St. Paul's felt that they had received a literary and spiritual treat; and will gladly welcome the Convocation whenever it may deem it well to meet in Centreville again. The Convocation unfortunately struck upon that remarkable storm period which was the forerunner of our unusually severe winter. But our misfortune was our inspiration; for although the snow lay deep upon the ground, and was driven by heavy winds into deep drifts, every man who could possibly reach the place of meeting was on hand. It was simply impossible for some who had to come over the roads to be present. Our brother of All Saints was actually stalled in drift after driving two-thirds of the way, and after being helped out was forced to return. And our brother from Kent Island was met by barriers impassable before he was off the island. It was an inspiration to the congregation to know that the Clergy had contended with such difficulties to give their labors to the Convocation.

It was with much regret to the Rector of St. Luke's that the contemplated meeting in the Spring at Sudlersville could not be held. The congregation there is very small, and the Convocation was beyond their ability to entertain. This meeting was therefore for the present abandoned. Just here the question occurs, Whether in these smaller places we are altogether to omit these services? If they are stimulating to our larger parishes, who can afford to have the Convocation in force, why should they not be especially so in Churches who so seldom have any services beyond the regular ministrations of the Rector, except that of the Bishop's visitation? As it is impossible for the whole Convocation to meet, it were probably better for the Dean and two appointed clergymen, or three elected by ballot at a business meeting, to conduct the three days' services in such Parishes. This would be a recognition of what is supposed to be one prime object of the Convocation, viz., Mission work.

It is proper here to mention the great assistance and interest which the Convocation receives from the Bishop's presence and addresses, whenever it is possible for him to be with us. To know the Bishop is to take part is to assure us of success in anticipation.

The Dean of the Middle Convocation owes it to the Clergy to thank them for their uniform courtesy and co-operation in our common work. He has only to announce place and time of meeting and topic, to receive a letter accepting the duties imposed. Absence most commonly means a brother's inability to be present. This compliance with the Canon on Convocations as a work asked of us by and for the interests of the Diocese, has made our Convocation a success. May we ever feel that the interests of the Diocese are ours as well as the interests of our respective Parishes, and thus willingly co-operate with our beloved and hard-working Bishop, in promoting the progress and welfare of the Church in the Diocese of Easton.

After the singing of a Hymn, and Prayer by the Bishop, the Convention adjourned.

Second Day.

Report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

The Committee on the State of the Church begs leave to offer the following report:

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

After referring to the loss to the Church in general and to his Diocese in particular, of our great primate and metropolitan, he calls attention to the necessity of more frequent remittances, on the part of the clergy, of their pledged contributions to Diocesan Missions, so as to meet all quarterly payments of stipends, in advance.

He recommends that a committee be appointed to look into the advisability of selling the lot we own, to pay $1100.00 borrowed to liquidate the debt on the Episcopal residence, and save paying interest on money borrowed, as the property does not advance in value proportionate to the interest we pay on the above amount, borrowed.

He also recommends that all Sunday Schools, in parishes which are able, give their Lenten offerings to General Missions.

He again commends the Home of the Friendless to the fostering care of the Diocese. Speaks in eloquent terms of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, and compares them to the faithful three who stood by the cross—"and still stand there."

He dwells on the diligence impressed upon and required of every priest, upon his entrance into his Holy Office, and how often the word diligent occurs in the Ordinal.

He reports 5 clergymen transferred, and 4 received into the Diocese. 2 parishes—Whitemarsh and Coventry—and 1 congregation, without a rector. He has ordered one deacon, and ordained one priest. There are two candidates for Holy Orders. Confirmations in the Diocese 201, an increase over the past year. He has consecrated 2 churches, and laid 1 cornerstone.

TRINITY CATHEDRAL.

The Chapel of the Holy Cross, at Easton Point, has been reopened, after many years of disuse, and regular services are held by members of the Cathedral Chapter of the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew, under the direction and assistance of the Dean of the Cathedral;—a Brotherhood whose praise is in all the churches, and is a pledge of faithful, hopeful, and loving work.

Another fact worth noting—and tell it in Gath—that this congregation has paid more than it promised to its faithful and zealous Dean.

PARISHES IN THE DIOCESE.

Most of the parishes report an increase in number of baptisms and confirmations, as will appear in the next Convention Journal. Several report losses from removal and death; some, as our Rt. Rev. Father has so well put it, "marry and go off; and go off to marry."

The parishes in general compare favorably with reports of preceding years, and some are far in advance.

Many parishes have received memorial gifts—as Holy Trinity, Greensboro, a pair of candlesticks; Trinity, Elkton, a font cover of oak; North Elk, a prayer book; St. Paul's, Centreville, a brass lecturn, in memory of Wm. McKenney, sometime warden and vestryman; Wye, Daughters of the King, altar hangings.

IMPROVEMENTS.

St. John's Parish, Hillsboro, through the Guild, has added an iron fence and other improvements, in front of and around the church. St. Stephen's Church, East New Market, has had its altar and courts consecrated to the service of Almighty God. This parish has also endowed a bed in the Home. Holy Trinity, Oxford, has made improvements to the extent of $85.00, and added an organ at a cost of $170.00. St. Michael's young and zealous rector, ably supported by societies of faithful men and women, has built a parish hall at Claiborne, and made improvements in chapels and rectory. Great Choptank Parish, Cambridge, paid two-thirds more in debts and offerings. Salisbury Parish has paid off a mortgage on Rectory of $1,000.00, and its parochial debt has been reduced to $290.00. Many misfortunes have befallen this parish financially; among them several fires; but Phœnix-like, she will arise again, and Sarum's tower shall become a a pillar of beauty and strength among the pillars of the Diocese.

ST. PETER'S PARISH, EASTON.

In this church, where the first Convention of the Diocese met, and within whose granite walls we are now convened, there is much we could report, but you can see for yourselves. Loving hands tenderly care for what loving hearts, no longer beating with us in the flesh, once devoted to the Glory of God and in loving memory of their sainted dead. Most prominent among these is the Sunday School room or Parish Building. It has long been needed and every member of the parish has desired it. Little children have vied with their elders in doing all they could to build. When, after earnest efforts, they were within one-third of the amount required, God placed the necessary means in their hands; and had there not have been an accident in the casting of the tablet, its bronze face would have told us that, like its granite walls, erected to God and dedicated in faith, hope, and love, to our sainted ones, it will stand on perpetual record, that our folded lambs and shepherded sheep, in the enclosure of the great Bishop's and Shepherd's arms, shall never, never, never die.

With this report of the general condition of the work, and with the final statement that the Rev. W. Y. Beaven has been doing good missionary work in Tunis, with an appreciation therefor, from and by the congregation; and that the Rev. S. J. Morgan is doing a hard and hopeful and zealous work in Crisfield and adjacent parts, we ask that it be received and your committee discharged.

(Signed) FRANKLIN B. ADKINS, Chairman.
A. BATTE,
T. CARTER PAGE,
S. E. WHITMAN,
GEORGE D. WALTER.

The Rev. W. W. Kimball offered the following:

Resolved, 2nd, That these words be printed on the Lay Delegate's certificate: "No parish shall be allowed lay representation in this Convention until it shall have paid its assessment to the Treasurer of the Diocese. Amount of assessment, $———. Amount of assessment paid, $———."

And moved its reference to the Committee on Canons. It was so referred.

young girls of the congregation, $50. In addition to this, and through the efforts of the Guild, the Deanery has been greatly improved and made more comfortable, and the salary of the Dean augmented. The Chapel of the Holy Cross, at Easton Point, has been re-opened after years of disuse, and regular services are held on Sunday afternoons by members of the Cathedral Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, under the direction and with the assistance of the Dean of the Cathedral. The work is of a purely missionary character, and the outlook is encouraging.

This parish has suffered seriously both numerically and financially by deaths and removals. But those who remain have worked the harder to make good the money losses, and so far neither the Rector's salary nor the pledge for Diocesan Missions has suffered. No less than one-seventh of our families have been lost to us by deaths and removals, though some of the latter have not yet become sufficiently settled elsewhere to call for letters of transfer.

Of amounts reported above, the Sunday School contributed $12.51 for Missions, the Ministering Children's League $8.94 for papering two rooms in the Rectory, and the Altar Guild gave $18 for a pair of candle sticks as a memorial to one of their number called to rest. $5 was a thank-offering.

Although we owe about $225 on the Parish House, yet it has been cupied since about the 15th of last June, and will be very useful to e parish.

A lady friend of Philadelphia donated about Easter to St. Mary's urch a beautiful Prayer Book for the altar.

The long continued inclement weather of Winter and Lent prented the ladies of the parish Societies from meeting as often as ual for work, but since the Spring opened they have arranged for eir usual meetings and work, and have all the year kept up their orts in behalf of the Home of the Friendless Children at Easton. ie severe weather interfered also very much with the Sunday hools, and the Services at St. Mary's and St. Mark's. The three nday Schools, however, are and have been since March in full opation, and services are (by the valuable help of the Rev. Mr. Whitigham) regularly kept up at the Church, and Chapel, and Parish ouse at Perryville. Providentially the rector was enabled during e very severe weather of Lent to fill every appointment at Church, apel, and Parish House, and on one Sunday reached the Chapel ien the Sexton could not get there, on account of the roads being ocked up with snow. Only once, Ash Wednesday, also did the xton of St. Mary's fail to open the Church for the same cause. On th of these occasions I held service in the houses of the parishion-. We have to lament the loss by death and removal of several of r devoted and liberal members, but hope and pray that the good rd will raise up others to take their places.

This parish has been greatly depressed and crippled by a destructive fire which visited this town in May, the loss falling entirely upon our people and supporters of the church. Our church building was preserved from destruction in a manner that has not failed to impress the community, and indicates to us plainly the protecting hand of God. On the Sunday following the fire, a service of thanksgiving was offered to the Giver of all good things, in which the congregation heartily joined. The ladies of the parish are doing all in their power to complete and beautify the church, which was considerably damaged by the fire. There is hope of improvement in this parish, which for years past has suffered so severely by removals and death of its zealous friends and supporters.

The Southern Convocation met here in September last, when St. Stephen's Church was consecrated, and a series of interesting and profitable services were held by the Clergy of the Convocation in connection with this consecration. A Rectory has also been purchased during the year, and half of the purchase money already paid. The property has been deeded to the Convention of the Diocese of Easton, subject to a mortgage for the payment of the balance. We expect confidently to satisfy this mortgage in one or two years more, and hand over a clear title to Convention. The amount, $39.30, for the Home of Friendless, was given mainly in provisions, estimated at the current market price. A bed has been endowed in the Home, called "The St. Stephen's Parish Bed," at a cost of $7.50. The earnest and persevering work of the ladies ought to be mentioned in any report from this parish.

The spirit of unity, zeal and loyalty to church and rector in the parish church is most commendable.

The vestry looking for the welfare of the parish in the future have secured additional land to form a pasture, &c. A new fence is in process of erection around the church yard. The Church property is in a measure insured. The parish called the rector in 1893, promised a salary of $500 made up as follows: from St. Luke's Church, $340; St. Andrew's Chapel, $160. Whilst the Chapel ceased, after the first year, to redeem its pledge, St. Luke's Church has made up the deficiency, though some two or three of her own members failed to pay as was expected. The cheerful meeting of all obligations and even exceeding them by the parish church deserves unstinted praise and commendation.

The notable event in connection with the parish during the past year is the construction and completion, except in a few minor details, of a Parish House. This important adjunct to the Church, erected at a cost of about $6,000, and with but a small remaining indebtedness, testifies more strongly than words to the persevering effort, consecrated zeal and unabated courage of this people to the Lord's work through a period of almost overwhelming financial depression. New seatings for the more satisfactory equipment of the building have been contracted for, and a bronze tablet for the cloister, now in course of preparation, will transmit to coming generations a concise history of this "memorial of God's abundant kindness" to us.

Note.—Of the above amount reported for Diocesan Missions, $3.25 was handed to the Bishop at his visitation. The Woman's Guild at All Saints has been very helpful in meeting the current expenses of the Church. The members of the Woman's Auxiliary at Cordova, though few in number, continue to help in the work of that noble organization. The Ready Helpers, a society of young people of All Saints, give every evidence that they are true to their name.

All Faith Chapel, Tunis.—Since November, 1898, I have been holding services twice-a-month in All Faith Chapel, Tunis, where at every service large and appreciative congregations have assembled. The people by their own effort have already raised, through direct giving, and paid me $32.27. Of the Baptisms reported above, three were at Tunis'. There is a Sunday School, under the charge of two ladies, of 25 pupils, which meets every Sunday afternoon in the Chapel. Two communicants have been removed by death from the list of communicants of Miles River Parish, Mrs. George Frances Dunham, and Mr. William Goldsborough, Jr.

Organ insured for $800.

St. Paul's by the Sea, Ocean City.—It is impossible for me to render an intelligent report. My work there began April 9th of this year. I hold weekly services. The offerings, except for two months of the year, do not meet expenses. The Board of Missions gives $100 towards the work. A Sunday School and a Woman's Guild are the agencies at work. Until we have a church more desirably located, the Mission will not succeed. Efforts are being made to prosecute the work more vigorously.

I regret not making my report for Worcester Parish more specific, but coming so late as April, prevents my doing so. The Rev. David Howard left in January, having accomplished much for the advancement of the Church's interests in the Parish, which he served for five years.

Personal Reports.

CHURCH CREEK, MD., May 30th, 1899.

To the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of the Diocese of Easton:

In making my usual report to you, I would state that since the Convention in Centreville, in the absence of the Rector in Baltimore, I preached last fall in Christ Church, Cambridge, and administered the Holy Communion, the Rev. J. L. Bryan, M. D., assisting in the services: and this spring held service and preached in Grace Church, Taylor's Island, to a good congregation; that I have assisted in the services on various occasions, and officiated at two burials; that I attended the meeting of the Southern Convocation in East New Market and also that in Pocomoke City, and made an address at the Missionary Meeting.

Very respectfully,

WM. WALLACE GREENE.

The Rev. Norman H. Burnham respectfully reports that during the last Conventional year he has "officiated" or "assisted" at the following named parishes in the Diocese of Connecticut: St. John's, East Hartford; St. Luke's, South Gastonbury; St. Paul's, Windsor Locks, and St. Andrew's, Thompsonville. Nine "celebrations" of the Holy Communion are included in the above services.

Suffield, Connecticut, June, 1899.

| Your Treasurer's Report shows Disbursements of | $1273 68 |
| And Receipts of | 916 84 |
| Leaving the Convention in debt | $ 356 84 |

Your Treasurer has also received the following amounts for Parish Assessments for the year 1899-1900: Shrewsbury (Ladies Aid), $5; East New Market, $10, and North Elk, $25. These amounts will be turned over to the Treasurer elected by this Convention.

Your Treasurer feels it incumbent upon him to call the attention of this Convention to the fact that he is now in debt to the extent of $356.84 as shown by this report; and that he has been obliged to borrow this amount on the credit of the Convention. Certainly this state of affairs should not be allowed to exist. The income from the Episcopal Fund is inadequate to pay the Bishop's Salary, and each year the Convention Fund is called upon to make up the deficiency. During the past year your Treasurer has paid to the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund the sum of $450 for this purpose. The other extraordinary expenses of the past year were the payment of the overdraft and interest shown by the last report $117.02, the expenses of the delegates to the General Convention $179.06, and the assessment of $120 by the General Convention. Inasmuch as the payment to the Episcopal Fund for the Bishop's Salary will probably have to be continued in the future as it has been in the past, it is incumbent upon this Convention to take this into account in assessing the various Parishes.

The deficiency is also partly accounted for by the action of past Conventions in reducing assessments and remitting arrearages. Your Treasurer earnestly recommends that this be stopped, and that each parish be required to pay its arrearage, if any, and be made to understand that in future it will have to bear its just proportion of the expenses of the Convention.

Your Treasurer also requests that the Parochial Treasurers do not send him money before the meeting of the Convention, unless it be for arrearages. The majority of the Parochial Treasurers pay their assessments at the Convention, but some, apparently ignorant of this general practice, remit to the Treasurer before the meeting of the Convention. This has a tendency to confuse the accounts, and arrearages only should be remitted direct to the Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ADKINS, Treasurer.

The Treasurer begs to report to the Convention that the Trust Funds in his hands consist of $504.55 held in Trust for St. John's Parish, and $100 known as the Bailey Fund.

The first sum was invested by the predecessor of the present Treasurer in a mortgage of the property of George C. Shehan, situated in the town of Easton, and which mortgage has not yet matured.

The Bailey Fund was formerly on deposit in the Savings Bank department of the Workingmen's Permanent Building & Loan Association, and drew interest at the rate of 3 per cent. During the year your Treasurer has invested this sum in a share of the stock of the said Association, which pays an annual dividend of 5 per cent.

of one thousand dollars, who now resides in Philadelphia, and at one time was an active worker in our Diocese. I enclose his letter with my report, so that the Convention may fully understand why he was prompted to make this generous donation the past year. I think we have reason to feel that the fund will grow larger each year, and that there was an increase over 1898 of $152.23, without including the gift of Rev. Chas. H. Vandyne.

HOTEL PILKINGTON, 110 N. 11TH ST.,
PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1898.

MR. EDWARD B. HARDCASTLE, Treas.,

Dear Sir:—

Some months ago I made a will in which I bequeathed one thousand dollars to the Clergy Relief Fund of our Diocese. I am thinking that perhaps it might be better to place the money at once in your possession, as it is somewhat troublesome and expensive to obtain what is left by will. A special act of legislature is, I believe, requisite. The costs of probate are inevitable. Moreover I may be subjected hereafter to influences unfavorable to my making the bequest. If I pay the sum to you now, could you invest it safely so that it would yield a fair dividend? And could you give me the dividend during my life and afterward apply it as usual for the benefit of others in the diocese? I see by last year's Journal of Convention that your investments were yielding six per cent. at least, but that you had on hand $2046.17 apparently uninvested. I have already communicated with the Bishop on the subject and sent him a copy of the Will. Kindly let me know what you would suggest and advise. I am,

Faithfully yours,

CHARLES H. VANDYNE.

P. S.—My health continues feeble so that I cannot return to work. This I very much regret. C. H. V.

The 30th Annual Report of the Home for Friendless Children of the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

JUNE 1, 1899.

In presenting our report for the Home of the Friendless, the Board feels that it is fitting to express their thankfulness for the mercies of the past year. In a family of twenty-one we have had only one slight case of sickness.

Although the Board finds it impossible to come together as a whole very frequently, they are doing good work in their homes, by arousing interest in behalf of the Institution, which is manifested in the shape of gifts of various kinds. Four iron bedsteads have been placed in the dormitories, the gifts of St. Peter's Parish, Salisbury; a friend in Kent County; St. Stephen's, East New Market, and one from Pocomoke. Others have been promised, and will come later. The merchants in Easton have contributed liberally in discounts.

Nine more children have been clothed this Spring by the parishes, viz: The Cathedral, Greensborough, North East, East New Market, Princess Anne, Berlin, Snow Hill, Millington, and Pocomoke City; with donations from St. Michaels and Oxford in money for that purpose. Three children have been put out in homes: One in Western Maryland, one in Caroline County, and one in Easton; the last two are young children, not put out for service, but families have taken them to raise as their own children. A fourth will go in a few days to a home in Talbot County. We have admitted three, all from Centreville.

The children are being well trained in all the departments pertaining to the household, by the Matron, and are well instructed in the school and sewing room, by the Assistant to the Matron.

We earnestly pray for a continuance of health and prosperity.

A. E. ADAMS, President.

APPENDIX D—I.

The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Easton:

In compliance with the requirements of Article 9 of the Constitution, I would hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed: to wit, those comprised in the resolutions printed herewith, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, held in the city of Washington, D. C., in October, A. D. 1898.

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS,

February 1, A. D. 1899.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article 9 of the Constitution as follows:

Strike out the Title "Constitution adopted in General Convention, in Philadelphia, October, 1789," and insert:

CONSTITUTION ADOPTED IN GENERAL CONVENTION IN PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER, 1879, AS AMENDED IN SUBSEQUENT GENERAL CONVENTIONS.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article 9 of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Articles 1, 2, and 3, and insert the following to be known as Article I. of the Constitution:

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. There shall be a General Convention of this Church, consisting of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, which Houses shall sit and deliberate separately; and in all deliberations freedom of debate shall be allowed. Either House may originate and propose legislation, and all acts of the Convention shall be adopted and be authenticated by both Houses.

SECTION 2. Every Bishop of this Church having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, and every Bishop who by reason of advanced age and bodily infirmity arising therefrom has resigned his jurisdiction, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Foreign Missionary Bishops and of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdictions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 3. The Senior Bishop of this Church in the order of consecration, having jurisdiction within the United States, shall be the Presiding Bishop of the Church. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention. But if the Presiding Bishop shall resign his office as such, or if he shall resign his episcopal jurisdiction, or if by reason of infirmity he shall become disabled, the Bishop next in seniority by consecration, having jurisdiction within the United States, shall thereupon become the Presiding Bishop.

SECTION 4. The Church in each Diocese which has been admitted to union with the General Convention shall be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than four Presbyters, canonically resident in the Diocese, and not more than four Laymen, communicants of this Church, having domicile in the Diocese; but the General Convention by Canon may reduce the representation to not fewer than two Deputies in each order. Each Diocese shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

To constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, the Clerical order shall be represented by at least one Deputy in each of a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation, and the Lay order shall likewise be represented by at least one Deputy in each of a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation.

On any question, the vote of a majority of the Deputies present shall suffice, unless otherwise ordered by this Constitution or, in cases not specially provided for by the Constitution, by Canons requiring more than a majority, or unless the Clerical or the Lay representation from any Diocese require that the vote be taken by orders. In all cases of a vote by orders, the two orders shall vote separately, each Diocese having one vote in the Clerical order and one in the Lay order; and the concurrence of the votes of the two orders, by not less than a majority in each order of all the Dioceses represented in that order at the time of the vote, shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the House.

SECTION 5. In either House any number less than a quorum may adjourn from day to day. Neither House, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than three days, or to any place other than that in which the Convention shall be sitting.

SECTION 6. The General Convention shall meet in every third year on the first Wednesday in October, unless a different day be appointed by the preceding Convention, and at the place designated by such Convention; but if there shall appear to the Presiding Bishop of the Church sufficient cause for changing the place so appointed, he may appoint another place for such meeting. Special meetings may be provided for by Canon.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article 9 of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Articles 4 and 10 of the Constitution and insert the following as Article II. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. In every Diocese the Bishop or the Bishop Coadjutor shall be chosen agreeably to rules prescribed by the Convention of that Diocese. Missionary Bishops shall be chosen in accordance with the Canons of the General Convention.

SECTION 2. No one shall be ordained and consecrated Bishop until he shall be thirty years of age; nor without the consent of a majority of the Standing Committees of all the Dioceses, and the consent of a majority of the Bishops of this Church exercising jurisdiction within the United States. But if the election shall have taken place within three months next before the meeting of the General Convention, the consent of the House of Deputies shall be required in place of that of a majority of the Standing Committees. No one shall be ordained and consecrated Bishop by fewer than three Bishops.

SECTION 3. A Bishop shall confine the exercise of his office to his own Diocese or Missionary District, unless he shall have been requested to perform episcopal acts in another Diocese or Missionary District by the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof, or in a vacant Missionary District by the Presiding Bishop of this Church, or unless he shall have been authorized and appointed by the House of Bishops, or by the Presiding Bishop by its direction, to act temporarily in case of need within any territory not yet organized into Dioceses or Missionary Districts of this Church.

SECTION 4. A Bishop may not resign his jurisdiction without the consent of the House of Bishops.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article 9 of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to the Constitution the following as Article III. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE III.

Bishops may be consecrated for foreign lands upon due application therefrom, with the approbation of a majority of the Bishops of this Church entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, certified to the Presiding Bishop; under such conditions as may be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention. Bishops so consecrated shall not be eligible to the office of Diocesan or of Bishop Coadjutor of any Diocese in the United States or be entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, nor shall they perform any act of the episcopal office in any Diocese or Missionary District of this Church, unless requested so to do by the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article 9 of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to the Constitution the following as Article IV. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE IV.

In every Diocese a Standing Committee shall be appointed by the Convention thereof. When there is a Bishop in charge of the Diocese, the Standing Committee shall be his Council of Advice; and when there is no such Bishop, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese for all purposes declared by the General Convention. The rights and duties of the Standing Committee, except as provided in the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Dioceses.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article 9 of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Article 5 of the Constitution and insert the following as Article V. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. A new Diocese may be formed (1) by the erection into a Diocese of the whole or any part of one or more Missionary Districts; (2) by the division of an existing Diocese; or (3) by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses, under such conditions as the General Convention shall prescribe by general Canon or Canons. The proceedings shall originate in a Convocation of the Clergy and Laity of the Missionary District called by the Bishop for that purpose; or, with the approval of the Bishop, in the Convention of the Diocese to be divided; or (when it is proposed to form a new Diocese by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses) by mutual agreement of the Conventions of the Dioceses concerned, with the approval of the Bishop or the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese. In case the Episcopate of a Diocese be vacant, no proceedings toward its division shall be taken until the vacancy is filled. During a vacancy in a Missionary District, the consent of the Presiding Bishop must be had before proceedings to erect it into a Diocese are taken. When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the General Convention, by a certified copy of the proceedings and other documents and papers laid before it, that all the conditions for the formation of the new Diocese have been complied with and that it has acceded to the Constitution of this Church, and the General Convention shall have so declared, and shall have ratified such proceedings, the formation of the new Diocese shall be complete, and it shall thereupon be admitted to union with the General Convention.

SECTION 2. In case one Diocese shall be divided into two or more Dioceses, the Bishop of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he will be attached, and he shall thereupon become the Bishop thereof; and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, may elect the one to which he will be attached, and (if it be not the one elected by the Bishop) he shall be the Bishop thereof.

SECTION 3. In case a Diocese shall be formed out of parts of two or more Dioceses, each of the Bishops and Bishops Coadjutor of the several Dioceses out of which the new Diocese has been formed shall be entitled, in order of seniority of consecration, to the choice between his own Diocese and the new Diocese so formed. In case the new Diocese shall not be so chosen, it shall have the right to choose its own Bishop.

SECTION 4. Whenever a new Diocese is formed and erected out of an existing Diocese, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese out of which it was formed, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese. Whenever a Diocese is formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses to which the greater number of clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 5. A Diocese formed out of a Missionary District shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons to which such Missionary District was subject, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 6. No new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain fewer than six self-supporting Parishes, or fewer than six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain fewer than twelve self-supporting Parishes and twelve Presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above provided.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted in the next General Convention, in accordance with Article 9 of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to the Constitution the following as Article VI. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1. The House of Bishops may establish Missionary Districts in States and Territories or parts thereof not organized into Dioceses. It may also from time to time change, increase, or diminish the territory included in such Missionary Districts in such manner as may be prescribed by Canon.

SECTION 2. # APPENDIX D—II.

In Reference to a Bequest to All Saints' Parish.

The following paper was to have been presented to the Convention of 1899, but owing to circumstances unnecessary to explain, it was not done. It is published at the request of the residuary legatees for the information of the Church people throughout the Diocese, and will be presented to the next Convention for its favorable action:—

By the terms of the will of the late Mary C. Goldsborough, of Talbot County, two legacies of one thousand dollars each were made to All Saints' Parish, payable upon the death of another beneficiary, her brother, John McDowell Goldsborough. Both were to be applied toward the establishing of a Parish School. The only difference in the character of the two legacies is that one was given without conditions, whereas the annual interest on the other was made payable to the Rector of the Parish until such time as it was needed for the school contemplated. The fund was invested, and on the death of the first beneficiary the investments were allowed to remain, and the interest on one of the legacies has been regularly paid to the Rector of the Parish since the death of the testatrix, and that on the other has been allowed to accumulate in the hands of the executors. No probability of an increase of the fund appearing, and it being conceded that it was, in itself, totally insufficient for the purpose designed by the donor, it became necessary to determine what disposition to make of it. Upon application to counsel, the executors were advised that the legacies were void and payable to the residuary legatees under Miss Goldsborough's will, and that application should be made to a Court of Equity for a construction of the will. This application has been made, with the result that the Court has decided that the clauses in the will relating to the establishing of a Parish School are void, and that the fund in the hands of the executors belongs to the said residuary legatees. The undersigned, who are the residuary legatees, have no desire to take advantage of this decision. On the contrary they purpose, as far as possible, to carry out the wishes of the testatrix, and since the establishing of a Parish School is impracticable, they propose as follows: To place in the hands of this Convention the amount of said legacies, which shall be called and known as the "Mary C. Goldsborough Fund," and which shall be held, in trust, for the benefit of All Saints' Parish. The same to be invested in safe and profitable securities, always designating in the investment the name of the Fund, and to pay the revenues arising therefrom to the Rector of said Parish, who shall apply the same as follows: two-thirds for his own personal use, and the remaining one-third to such needy cases among the poor and sick in the Parish, as in his discretion are worthy of aid. And for the distribution of the said one-third he shall account to this Convention at its annual meetings.

GEORGE R. GOLDSBOROUGH,
ELEANOR A. GOLDSBOROUGH.

A Brief Pastoral to Accompany the Journal.

Be we careful to remember that all mortal men are subject to many sudden perils, disease and sickness, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life.

To the intent that we may always be in readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call us, we must often receive the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ.

Moreover, every just man should be careful while he is in health to make his Will and to declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience and the quietness of his executors. Such persons as are of ability should be liberal to the poor.

Legacies may be left to the various charities and religious undertakings of the Diocese by the names and designations given herewith.
